Dedicating Our Lives to Service.

"The beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ"-what an interesting ably plant a horrible complex in the expression! Did it not begin back boy which will last the rest of his before the foundation of the world? life. For, you see, there's absolutely Yes, for the death of Christ was no nothing he can do about a toe he's mere afterthought in God's plan. stepped on, which leaves him pretty | But now we have the coming into frustrated. He can't offer to send | the world of the One who was the it to the cleaners, nor can he bring | Lamb slain from before the world's founding. Jesus Christ is about to appear to begin his ministry which was to culminate at Calvary's cross.

Before Jesus, comes the one sent to proclaim his appearing, to herald the coming of the Servant of God. Mark begins his account with the ministry of John the Baptist and makes no reference to the birth and genealogy of Jesus. How appropriate that is, for after all the important thing about a servant is not that he came from a certain family, or was born in a particular place. The point is that he is here now and able and ready to do his work.

If he stood aside for a moment there was the One who was to come."

John was a unique personality, admirably fitted to proclaim a stern message of repentance to a decadent age. Let us not put aside or ridicule strangely clad and unusual folk who have a word for us from God. And above all, let us not affect idiosyncrasies of either manner or dress in order to attract people to the preaching of the gospel— John was himself-God used him.

"Repent"—that was his message from the Lord. America needs sandpaper or an emery board a time, stirring constantly, so that that message today. The Christian | from a manicure set. John's greatest message, however, was the coming of the One who was to baptize not with water but with the Holy Ghost. Like every true witness he humbles himself and points to the Saviour. We need the message, "repent," but we need even more to recall to our preaching and our churches the Holy Ghost power of the Son of God.

II. The Baptism of Christ (vv.

The account in Mark is brief but it brings before us the fact that the sinless Son of God thus identified his holy self with sinful humanity which he had come to save. What infinite love and condescension! God the Father gives his approval. "Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased" (v. 11).

Let us learn the lesson that obedience to the divine will, a willingness to humble ourselves to do the work whereunto God has sent us, are prerequisites to the filling of the Holy Spirit with power and grace for life and service.

III. The Temptation of Christ (vv.

We recall as we consider the temptation of Jesus, that he was nature in him to which Satan could appeal. The temptation or testing of Jesus was therefore along Messianic lines, but the principles both of temptation and victory are sim-Matthew 4 and Luke 4.

The Devil has only three real temptations to present, "the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life" (I John 2:16). These he used with Jesus as he tempted him to make food for his hungry body, to look at the kingdoms of this earth and attain them by a wrong method, and to presume on God's grace by throwing himself from the pinnacle of the temple. He uses the same three types of temptation with us, varying the "dress" in which he presents them. Let us be on guard. Victory came through the use of God's Word. We need to learn that lesson and not attempt to defeat Satan with any man-made weapons of will-power, logic, or culture. Jesus was certain of victory. He is our victory. Learn to know him as Saviour and Lord. Study God's Word and learn how to use it in spiritual conflict. Yield to the Holy Spirit. Victory lies that way, and nowhere else.
