The Name "Scioto" Like the Cuyahoga, there are three explanations for the origin of the name "Scioto," applied first to the river and then to the county, in Ohio, says a writer in the Cleveland Plain Dealer. Henry Howe, early Ohio historian, believes the name was first used by the Wyandot Indians who called it Sci-on-to, the meaning of which is unknown. The geographer, Gannett, however, believes the name was derived from the word "Seeyotah," meaning "Great The city of Barcelona in Spain is | Legs," and that it was applied to named after the Carthaginian, the river because of its long tributaries. Other authorities insist Scioto
