against
Philip Dougan Tenant.

Kent County to wit. William Stiles late of Kent County Planter was attached to answer unto Richard Goodtitle of a plea wherefore with force & arms he entered into all that Tract of arable land called and known by the name of Cambles Farm situate in Kent County aforesaid & containing the quantity of three hundred & fifty acres with the appurtenances which Thomas Smyth ~~demised~~ demised to the said Richard Goodtitle for a term which is not yet expired & ejected him from his said Farm, & other wrongs to him did to the great damage of him the said Richard & against the Peace, Government and dignity of the State of Maryland &c —

And whereupon the said Richard by William Tilghman his Attorney complains that whereas the said Thomas on the first day of March in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty eight, at the County aforesaid had demised to the said Richard the tenements aforesaid with the appurtenances to have & to hold the said tenements with their appurtenances to the said Richard & his Assigns from the first day of March aforesaid to the end and term of five years from thence next following & fully to be complete & ended, by virtue of which demise the said Richard entered into the said tenements with the appurtenances & was thereof possessed; & the said Richard being so possessed thereof, the said William afterwards, that is to say on the second day of March in the year aforesaid with force & arms, that is to say, with swords, staves & knives entered into the said tenements with the appurtenances which the said Thomas demised to the said Richard in form aforesaid for the term aforesaid which is not yet expired, & ejected the said Richard out of the said Farm, & other wrongs to him did to the great damage of the said Richard and against the peace, Dignity, & Government of the State of Maryland &c. whereupon the said Richard saith he is the worse & great damage hath, to the value of one hundred pounds current money of Maryland & therefore he brings suit &c —

Wm. Tilghman — Pledges &c John Doe Richard Roe —

Mr. Philip Dougan I am informed that you are in possession of, or claim title to the premises mentioned in this declaration of ejectment or to some part thereof & I being sued in this action as a casual ejector & having no claim or title to the same do advise you to appear at the next General Court to be holden for the Eastern Shore of Maryland on the second Tuesday of April next at Talbot County Court House by some Attorney of that Court, & then & there by a rule to be made of the same Court do cause yourself to be made Defendant in my stead; otherwise I shall suffer Judgment to be entered against me, & you will be turned out of possession —

Your loving Friend

March the 5. 1788. — William Stiles —

At which said second Tuesday of April Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty eight, came the aforesaid Richard Goodtitle by William Tilghman his Attorney, and the Sheriff of Kent County, to wit, George Hanson Gentn. made return that on the twenty fourth day of March Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty eight, he did deliver to Philip Dougan in possession of the Premises in question a true copy of the Declaration in Ejectment at the foot of which Declaration is a notice for the said Philip Dougan to appear on the second Tuesday of April then next at the General Court holden as aforesaid and defend his title, otherwise Judgment would be entered against him by default. And further said that he told the said Philip Dougan that if he did not appear and defend his title the then next April Term he would be turned out of Possession. Therefore it is ordered by the Court with the consent of the Attorneys for both Parties that Philip Dougan be admitted Defendant in stead of the
