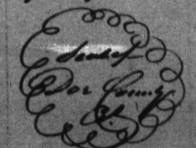
Copied from the Records and proceedings of Dorchester County Court remaining in my Office



In Testimony whereof I have hereto set my Hand and affix

W. Dickinson Clk. Do. County Court

At which day to wit the second Tuesday of September being the fourteenth day of the same month anno domini one thousand seven hundred and ninety, came into the General Court here as well the aforesaid James Williams by Gustavus Scott his attorney as the said Elizabeth Berge by Luther Martin her attorney since the said James Williams by his attorney aforesaid, said, that the Record and process aforesaid and likewise in the Rendering the Judgment it is manifestly error, in this, that by the Record aforesaid it appears, the Judgment aforesaid was rendered for the said Elizabeth Berge against the said James Williams, whereby that any after Legal Judgment might have been rendered for him the said James Williams, against the said Elizabeth Berge; and the said James Williams prays judgment, Error, and that in the Record and process aforesaid appearing, the Judgment aforesaid might be reversed, annulled and for nothing held, and that the said James Williams, to all things which by occasion of the Judgment aforesaid he lost, might be restored &c. and the said Elizabeth Berge by her attorney aforesaid said that in the Record and process aforesaid, and also in rendering the Judgment thereon it is in nothing error; and prays the Judgment thereon in all things might be affirmed &c. And thereupon as well the said James Williams, as the said Elizabeth Berge, by their attorneys aforesaid prayed that the Judges of the Court here would proceed as well to the Examination of the Record aforesaid as the Matters above for error assigned; whereupon for that the Court here were not advised of their Judgment of and upon the premises aforesaid, day therefore was given to the said parties to hear their Judgment thereof until next Court. for that the said Court here as yet not &c. And now here at this day to wit, the second Tuesday of April anno domi ni one thousand seven hundred and ninety one, came the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid, whereupon all and singular the premises being seen, and by the Court here matuely considered, and mature deliberation being thereon had; because it seems to the Court here, that there is manifest error in the Record and proceedings aforesaid and also in the rendition of the Judgment aforesaid thereupon it is Considered, that the Judgment aforesaid, for these errors and others in the Record and proceedings aforesaid appearing be reversed, annulled and held entirely as Void; and the said James Williams by his attorney ap-prays Judgment of Procedendo and Costs equable to an act of assembly lately made and provided, for that the said Appeal was just: whereupon it is Commanded, the said Justices of Dorchester County Court of Dorchester that they proceed in the action aforesaid as if Judgment before the said Court of Dorchester had never been rendered, any thing to the Contrary notwithstanding; and the said James Williams by his attorney aforesaid prays Judgment for his Costs and Charges expending by reason of the premises aforesaid: Therefore it is Considered by the Judges here that the said James Williams recover against the said Elizabeth Berge the quantity of one thousand and sixty four pounds of Tobacco and the said James Williams in his assent adjudged for his Costs and Charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended, and that he have thereof his execution &c.
