and the said Thomas Wallace by his attorney aforesaid prayed that the said William Kemp might be ruled to file his plea in answer to the Declaration of him the said Thomas Wallace on before the second Tuesday in April then next following, or that Judgment on Default thereof against the said William Kemp might be entered, and it was granted unto him the same day was given to the said Thomas Wallace then &c. At which said second Tuesday in April to wit, in the year Seventeen hundred and ninety one, Came here again the parties aforesaid by their attorneys &c. and the said William Kemp by his attorney aforesaid, defends the force and injury when &c. and saith that the said Thomas Wallace his action aforesaid thereof against him to have or maintain ought not, because he saith, that at the day and place mentioned in the said Condition he did well and truly pay and discharge to the said Thomas Wallace the said sum of five hundred and twenty pounds current money in the Condition of the writing Obligatory aforesaid mentioned, according to the form and effect of the same Condition mentioned, to wit, at the County aforesaid, and this he is ready to verify: whereupon he prays Judgment if the said Thomas Wallace his action thereof against him to have and maintain ought. And the aforesaid Thomas Wallace says that he from having or maintaining his action aforesaid against the said William Kemp ought not to be precluded because he saith that the said William Kemp at the time and place mentioned in the said Condition did not well and truly pay, discharge unto him the said Thomas Wallace the said sum of five hundred and twenty pounds Current money in the Condition of the writing Obligatory aforesaid mentioned, according to the form and effect of the Condition aforesaid in manner and form as the said Thomas Wallace, above in pleading hath alleged, and this he prays might be enquired of by the Country: And the said Thomas Wallace in like manner &c. and this Cause standing ready for trial: further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by Consent of the said parties and their attorneys aforesaid and by order of the Court here thereon was further Continued until the second Tuesday in September then next following, And now here on this day to wit, the second Tuesday in September in the year Seventeen hundred and ninety one, Came here again the said Thomas Wallace by his attorney aforesaid as the said William Kemp by his attorney aforesaid, Nevertheless the said William Kemp by his attorney aforesaid relinquishing the account above by him pleaded saith that he cannot gainsay that the action of the aforesaid Thomas Wallace as aforesaid against him brought, nor can he deny that the writing Obligatory aforesaid is the Deed of him the same William Kemp, nor but that he owes unto the aforesaid Thomas Wallace the aforesaid sum of five hundred and twenty pounds Current money in the writing Obligatory aforesaid mentioned, in manner and form as the said Thomas Wallace against him has Complained, Therefore it is Considered by the Court here that the said Thomas Wallace do recover against the said William Kemp his debt aforesaid in form aforesaid acknowledged, and also the quantity of five hundred and twenty seven and four fifths pounds of tobacco which was adjudged for his Costs and Charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended, and the said William Kemp in mercy &c.
