Samuel Keene, use of Nathan Godwin vs David Neil

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit on the thirteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven Command was given to the Sheriff of Queen Anns County that he should take David Neil late of Queen Anns County, otherwise called David Neil, Joiner of Queen Anns County and State aforesaid, if he should be found in his Bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that he might have his body before the Justices of the then next County Court, to be held for Queen Anns County at Chester Mill in the County aforesaid on the Monday before the fourth Tuesday in March next, to answer unto Samuel Keene of a plea that he render unto him the sum of two hundred and sixty seven pounds current money which to him he owes and unjustly detains and so forth. Hereof he is not to fail at his peril and that he have then and there that Writ &c. And now here at this day, to wit, that is to say, the Monday before the fourth Tuesday of October being the twenty second day of the same Month Anno Domini 1787 and the day of the return of the foregoing Writ, comes the said Samuel Keene by William Tilghman his Attorney, and the Sheriff of Queen Anns County to whom the same Writ was made and directed likewise comes and makes return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed, to wit, Non est. James O'Bryon Shff. And be it further remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the twentieth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty seven Command was given to the Sheriff of Queen Anns County that he should take David Neil late of Queen Anns County, otherwise called David Neil, Joiner of Queen Anns County and State aforesaid, if he should be found in his Bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that he might have his body before the Justices of the next County Court to be held for Queen Anns County at Chester Mill in the County aforesaid on the Monday before the fourth Tuesday in March next, to answer unto Samuel Keene of a plea that he render unto him the sum of two hundred and sixty seven pounds current money which to him he owes and unjustly detains &c. Hereof he is not fail at his peril and that he have then and there that Writ &c. And now here at this day, to wit, that is to say, the Monday before the fourth Tuesday in March, being the twenty fourth day of the same Month Anno Domini 1788, and the day of the foregoing Writ, comes the said Samuel Keene by William Tilghman his Attorney, and the Sheriff of Queen Anns County to whom the
