Appurtenances, to have and to hold the said undivided third part of the Lands and Tenements aforesaid with the Appurtenances unto the said Randolph Johnson, his Heirs and Assigns, as by the same Indenture more fully appears; By Virtue of which said Indenture the aforesaid Randolph Johnson entered into the Lands and Tenements aforesaid with the Appurtenances and was and yet is seised of the said undivided third part of the Lands and Tenements aforesaid with the Appurtenances to him and his heirs as aforesaid belonging in his demesne as of fee; And so the said Thomas Kennedy saith that he the said Thomas Kennedy and the said Randolph Johnson and the said Sailor Cannon together and undivided do hold the said Lands and Tenements with the Appurtenances in manner and form aforesaid; whereof unto him the said Thomas Kennedy and his heirs it belongs to have and to hold one third part of the Lands and Tenements aforesaid with the Appurtenances, and to the said Randolph Johnson and his heirs it belongs to have and to hold one other third part of the Lands and premises aforesaid with the Appurtenances and and to the said Sailor Cannon during his life as Tenant by the Curtesy and Customs of England in Right of the said Aliphar and after the death of the said Sailor Cannon to the heirs of the said Aliphar, it belongs to have and to hold the remaining third part of the said Lands and Tenements with the Appurtenances, to hold to them respectively in severalty; so that the said Thomas Kennedy of one third part of the said Lands and Tenements with the Appurtenances to him belonging as aforesaid, and the said Randolph Johnson of one other third part of the said Lands and Tenements with the Appurtenances to him belonging as aforesaid, may be able severally and separately so apportion to themselves, the said Randolph Johnson and Sailor Cannon to make partition thereof between them and the said Thomas Kennedy according to the Laws and Customs of the said State of Maryland do unjustly refuse and deny and will not permit the same to be done, contrary to the Laws and Customs aforesaid and so forth; Whereupon the same Thomas Kennedy saith he is injured and hath sustained Damage to the Value of two hundred pounds current money, and thereupon he brings this suit and so forth.

John Doe, Richard Roe pledges pt.