April Term 1790.

have their bodies before the Judges of the next General Court, to be held for the Eastern Shore of this State, at Easton, in Talbot County, at the Court house in the same County, the second Tuesday of April next, to satisfy unto the State of Maryland as well a certain Debt of seventy three pounds current money which the same State of Maryland recovered in a General Court, held for the Eastern Shore of the same State, on the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty nine, before the Judges of the same Court, against the said William Dixon and George Walsh as also the sum of seven hundred and twenty nine pounds of Tobacco, which unto the said State of Maryland were adjudged for her Damages which she had sustained, as well by the occasion of the detention of that Debt, as for her Costs and Charges by her about her suit in that part opposed, whereof the aforesaid William Dixon and George Walsh are convict, as by it appeareth of Record, and that thereof he the said Sheriff should not fail at his peril, and that he should have then and there that Writ – And now here at this day, to wit, the second Tuesday of April seventeen hundred and ninety, comes the said State by Luther Martin her Attorney, and James Orrick Sheriff of the County aforesaid to the Court here makes return that he hath taken the bodies of the said William and George; and on payment of the Interest, Costs and Charges aforesaid by the said William and George, they have satisfied the same to the said State's Attorney –

James Earle Clk.

State of Maryland
vs
William Callender &
Richard Reynolds

The State of Maryland – Command was given to the Sheriff of Cecil County that he should take William Callender and Richard Reynolds late of Cecil County if they should be found in his Bailiwick, and them safe keep, so that he might have their bodies before the Judges of the next General Court, to be held for the Eastern Shore of this State, at Easton, in Talbot County, at the Court house in the same County, the second Tuesday of April next, to satisfy unto the said State of Maryland as well a certain Debt of seventy nine pounds ten shillings current money which the same State of Maryland recovered in a General Court held for the Eastern Shore of the same State, on the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty nine, before the Judges of the same Court, against the said William Callender and Richard Reynolds as also the sum of seven hundred and fifty six pounds of Tobacco, which unto the said State of Maryland were adjudged for her

April Term 1790.

Damages which she had sustained, as well by the occasion of the Detention of that Debt, as for her Costs and Charges by her about her suit in that part opposed, whereof the aforesaid William Callender and Richard Reynolds are convict, as by it appeareth of Record, and that thereof he the said Sheriff should not fail at his peril, and that he should have then and there that Writ – And now here at this day, to wit, the second Tuesday of April seventeen hundred and ninety, comes the said State by Luther Martin her Attorney, and James Orrick Sheriff of the County aforesaid, to the Court here makes return that he hath taken the bodies of the said William and Richard; and on payment of the Interest, Costs and Charges by the said William and Richard, they have satisfied the same to the said State's Attorney –

James Earle Clk.

State of Maryland
vs
William Callender &
Richard Reynolds

The State of Maryland – Command was given to the Sheriff of Cecil County that he should take William Callender and Richard Reynolds late of Cecil County if they should be found in his Bailiwick, and them safe keep, so that he might have their bodies before the Judges of the next General Court, to be held for the Eastern Shore of the said State, at Easton, in Talbot County, at the Court house in the same County, the second Tuesday of April next, to satisfy unto the State of Maryland as well a certain Debt of sixty three pounds current money which the same State of Maryland recovered in a General Court held for the Eastern Shore of the same State, on the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini seventeen hundred and eighty nine before the Judges of the same Court, against the said William Callender and Richard Reynolds, as also the sum of seven hundred and fifty six pounds of Tobacco, which unto the said State of Maryland were adjudged for her Damages which she had sustained as well by the occasion of the detention of that Debt, as for her Costs and Charges by her about her suit in that part opposed, whereof the aforesaid William Callender and Richard Reynolds are convict, as by it appeareth of Record, and that thereof he the said Sheriff should not fail at his peril, and that he should have then and there that Writ – And now here at this day, to wit, the second Tuesday of April seventeen hundred and ninety, comes the said State by Luther Martin her Attorney, and James Orrick Sheriff of the County aforesaid, to the Court here makes return that he hath taken the bodies of the said William and Richard; and on