Mears' Infallible
(SUGAR-COATED)
AGUE PILLS
NEVER FAIL!

Mears' Wonderful Ague Pills

are unrivalled for the cure of Chills and Fever. Hundreds of persons who have been afflicted with this distressing complaint for months, after trying Quinine in vain, have been speedily cured by them.

They are warranted not to contain a particle of Quinine, Arsenic, or any other deleterious drug; on the contrary, they are a most excellent tonic and alterative, promoting the appetite, and renovating and strengthening the system. For a torpid liver, or any bilious derangement, they will be found an excellent remedy—gently stimulating the liver to an increased action—thus removing the most troublesome source of this distressing disease.

Those living in districts where Chills and Fever prevail should never be without these Pills; and on the first appearance of the symptoms, should take a few, and thus ward off an attack.

They may be taken by old or young, and at any time, without the slightest regard to diet or exposure.

BRISTOL, August 1st, 1866.

This is to certify, that I am acquainted with the formula of MEARS' CELEBRATED FEVER AND AGUE PILLS, and I have used the same very extensively in my practice, and have never known them to fail when used according to directions; on the contrary, I have succeeded with them, in many instances, after TRYING QUININE IN VAIN.

E. J. GROOM, M. D.

NEWPORTVILLE, Aug. 1st, 1866.

This is to certify, that I am acquainted with the formula of MEARS' FEVER AND AGUE PILLS, and I have no hesitation in pronouncing them a perfectly reliable and sure cure for all forms of this distressing disease, if taken according to directions.

COPARTNERSHIP.

BALTIMORE, MARCH 1st, 1865.

THOMAS NORRIS, for TEN years past engaged in the sale of AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS and Machines, FIELD and GARDEN SEEDS, etc., respectfully informs his friends and customers, that he has this day associated with him Mr. JOEL PUSEY, of Havre de Grace, very favorably known to many of the farmers of Maryland. The business will be continued under the name and style of at the old stand, No. 141 PRATT STREET, (near Light.) The senior partner tenders his grateful acknowledgments to his many friends who have so liberally patronized him, and solicits for the new firm a continuation of their favors.

In addition to the old business, the subscribers will be prepared to transact, in an extensive way, the Lime, Plaster and Cement Business.

Yielding to the solicitations of many friends in the country, they beg to offer their services as for the sale of GRAIN and all kinds of Country Produce.

General Commission Merchants

By a faithful attention to business, they expect to merit a good share of public favor, and ask a continuation of the patronage of old customers, and a fair trial by new ones.

They will continue the sale of Wood's Prize Mower, Wood's Self-Raking Reaper, Westinghouse's Horse Powers and Threshing Machines, Beckford & Hoffman's Grain and Guano Drills, Van Wickle's Grain Fans, and many other Implements and Machines, of superior merit.

They assure their customers that they are prepared to furnish any article in their line on as good terms as they can be supplied by any house in Baltimore.

Circulars, Catalogues, etc., giving descriptions, prices, &c., will be furnished on application.

PUBLIC LOCAL LAW,

OPERATIVE IN KENT COUNTY.

AN ACT to incorporate the village of the Head of Sassafras, in Kent county, Maryland by the name of "Sassafras."

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the citizens of the village of the Head of Sassafras, in Kent county, shall be and they are hereby constituted and made a body corporate by the name of Sassafras, with all the privileges of a body corporate, and to have a common seal and perpetual succession, and that the following sections be also enacted:

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the free white male citizens of the Head of Sassafras aforesaid, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, being citizens of the United States, who have resided in the said village for or during the space of six months next preceding the first Wednesday in April next, may on that day, at the hotel of James L. Pryor, in said village, in the house formerly Voshell's Hotel, and the free white male citizens of the town of Sassafras aforesaid, having the qualification aforesaid, on the first Wednesday in April every year thereafter, be authorized to elect five Commissioners for said town, who shall be entitled to vote and have resided within the limits of the same one year next preceding the election.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That any Justice of the Peace residing in the First Election District in Kent county shall appoint by writ under his hand one Judge to hold the first election, who shall keep the polls open from nine o'clock in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon, that the voting shall be by ballot, and the said Judge shall make return under his hand to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent to be recorded and retained by him.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That all future elections shall be held and conducted as shall be from time to time directed by the laws of the corporation, the same not being inconsistent with the provisions of this Act and the laws of the State.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners to be elected according to the provisions of this Act shall, at the first or second meeting after said election, choose some one of the said Commissioners President of the Board, whose duty it shall be to preside at the meetings of the said Commissioners and preserve order and give such directions as may be deemed necessary by the said Commissioners to carry into effect the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That the Commissioners aforesaid, or a majority of them, may meet together from time to time as often as occasion may require upon the business of said town, and if during the time for which they are elected any of the Commissioners should die, resign, remove from said town or be otherwise disqualified, the remaining Commissioners, or a majority of them, may fill the vacancy.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to appoint a clerk and assign his duties, and who shall keep a book or record of all the ordinances and proceedings of said Commissioners, and to allow him such compensation for his services as they may think proper, and the said book and proceedings shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall have power to impose fines not exceeding five dollars in one case, and all the fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of the said corporation shall be recoverable as small debts are recoverable out of court, before any Justice of the Peace in said county.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That the limits of said town shall be a square, whose sides shall measure five hundred yards each, and shall be marked out and bounded by the said Commissioners, but shall not extend into Cecil county, the said lines to be recorded in the record books of said Commissioners.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power to make all such laws, regulations and ordinances not inconsistent with the laws of this State, as from time to time they may deem wise, equitable and expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of said town and its inhabitants, for the prevention or removal of nuisances, preservation of health and suppression of vice and immortality within the limits of said town, and shall have power to lay an equal tax on the property, real and personal, within said limits to such an amount as may from time to time be deemed necessary to accomplish the purposes aforesaid; which tax shall be collected and paid to the President and Commissioners by the collector by them appointed, who shall have the same power to distrain therefor and sell said distraint after five days notice by public advertisement set up in said town; provided, that the tax shall not exceed twenty cents in the hundred dollars of the taxable property of said town for any one year, and the said Commissioners shall fix the term of office, amount of bond and compensation of such Collector.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority annually to appoint one or two Bailiffs, whose duty it shall be to preserve the peace and good order of said town, and to perform such other duties as may be assigned him or them by said Commissioners, or a majority of them, and for this purpose he or they are hereby vested with the same power and authority as any constable may now have under the laws of this State, except such as relate to the service of civil process or collection of debts, but may serve any process for the collection of fines and forfeitures aforesaid.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the said Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to straighten and widen old streets and to lay out and grade new ones when in their discretion the same may be considered necessary, and they shall have full power to provide for the payment of damages and expenses incurred by widening or opening the streets aforesaid by levying and assessing the same generally upon the whole assessable property of said town or upon the property of persons benefitted thereby.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to authorize the corporation hereby created to issue any device, token, note, certificate or evidence of debt to be used as currency, and the General Assembly reserves the right to amend or repeal this charter when the same shall be deemed advisable.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from its passage.

We certify that the aforegoing is a true copy of an act which passed the General Assembly of Maryland at its January session, 1867.
