being the day of the return of the aforegoing Writ, comes the said John by his Attorney aforesd. and the Sheriff of Worcester County, to whom the same Writ was directed, likewise came and made return thereof to the Court here, that he had made known unto the said James by John Doe and Richard Roe two good and lawful men of his Bailiwick, that he should be and appear before the Judges of our said General Court, at the time and place aforesd. to show cause &c. according to the tenour of the Writ aforesd. to him directed as aforesd. Whereupon the said James altho' solemnly called, comes not, but therein makes Default. Therefore it is considered by the Court here, that the said John have his Execution against the said James for as well the sum of seven hundred and six pounds current money a certain Debt, and seven hundred and thirty one pounds and four fifths of a pound of Tobacco, costs of that suit, as also the further quantity of four hundred and thirty seven and two fifths of a pound of Tobacco, which unto the said John Hammond with his Assent was adjudged for his Additional Costs and Charges which he had sustained by delay of the Execution of the Judgment aforesd. And the said James Martin in mercy &c.

State of Maryland
Cornelius Somerys Admr
of Malachi Ambrose, Lockp.
of Isaac Redgraves

Be it remembered that on the twenty eighth day of July seventeen hundred and ninety, the State of Maryland by Luther Martin Esquire, Attorney General for the said State, sued out the said State Writ of Scirifacias, the tenor whereof ensues in the words and figures following, to wit: The State of Maryland, To the Sheriff of Kent County, Greeting: Whereas at a General Court, begun and held at Easton, the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini Seventeen hundred and eighty seven before the Honorable Robert Hanson Harrison Esquire, Chief Judge and the other Associates, then Judges of the said Court, the State of Maryland by consideration of the same Court, recovered against Malachi Ambrose late of Kent County, one of the Executors of Isaac Redgrave late Collector of the Tax for said County, for as well the sum of eight thousand pounds current money a certain Debt, as also the quantity of six hundred and sixty nine pounds of Tobacco for the said State's Damages, which the said State had sustained by reason of the detention of that Debt, as for the said State's Costs and Charges, by the said State about its suit in that behalf laid out and expended, whereof the said Malachi Ambrose is convicted as of Record is manifest; and altho Judgment thereof hath been rendered as aforesd. Execution nevertheless yet remaineth to be — And whereas also on the part of the said State of Maryland we have in our said Court, before the Judges thereof likewise understood that the said Malachi Ambrose is since deceased and died intestate, and that Administration of all and singular the Goods and Chattels, Rights and Credits which belonged to the said Malachi Ambrose at the time of his death afterwards, to wit, on the fourteenth day of April Anno Domini Seventeen hundred and eighty nine by Cornelius Somerys Gentleman to whom the commission of the Administration aforesd. of right did belong, at the County aforesd. in due form of Law committed to Cornelius Somerys late of the said County: Whereupon the said State of Maryland hath besought us to grant her a proper remedy in this behalf; and we being willing that what is just in this part should be done, Do therefore COMMAND you that by good and lawful men of your Bailiwick, you make known unto Cornelius Somerys that he be and appear before the Judges of the next General Court, to be held at Easton, the second Tuesday of September next, to show cause if any he hath to say, or knoweth why, the said State of Maryland ought not to have Execution against him for the Debt, Damages, Costs and Charges aforesaid of the Goods and Chattels which belonged to the said Malachi Ambrose at the time of his death in the hands of the said Cornelius Somerys, Administrator as aforesd. to be administered being according to the force, form and effect of the Recovery aforesd. if he shall think fit: and further to do and receive all and singular those things which by our Judges aforesd. of him in this part shall be adjudged; and have you then and there the names of those before whom you shall make the same known unto him and this Writ — Witness the Honorable Robert Hyde Chase Esquire, presiding Judge of our said Court the 29th day of April Anno Domini 1790.
