to pay the said sum of Three hundred & fifty one pounds fifteen shillings specie together with legal Interest thereon from the nineteenth day of November next ensuing as is specified in said Bond as witness my Hand & Seal this thirtieth day of July One thousand seven hundred and ninety three. Wm. Hughlett (Seal)

Signed Sealed & delivered in the presence of Henry Downes John Keene Jr. —

Whereupon the said Charles Adams, at the prayer of the said John Corrie by his Attorney afs being ruled by the Court to give Special Bail in the plea afs, a certain Peter Gordon of Dorchester County, came here before the Judges of our said Court in his proper person & became Pledge & Mainpeptor in the usual form for the afd Charles Adams in the plea aforesaid. Thereupon the Process of and upon the Premises between the Parties afd, was Continued by the Court here until the second Tuesday of September then next following. At which said second Tuesday of September, here came again into Court, the Parties afd, by their Attorneys afs, and thereupon at the prayer of the said John Corrie by his Attorney afd. it was ruled by the Court, that the said Charles Adams should file his Plea in answer to the Declaration of the said John Corrie by the second Tuesday of April then next following according to a Rule of this Court in such case to be observed; or that Judgment should be rendered on that day by default thereof: The same day was also given to the Parties afs then &c — Afterwards, to wit on the 20th day of Feby 1795 the said Charles by his Attorney afs, in compliance with the above mentioned Rule of Court affiled his Plea, which ensues in manner & form following, to wit. "And the afd Charles Adams by Nicholas Hammond his Attorney comes & defends the wrong and injury when &c And prays hearing of the writing obligatory in the Declaration afs mentioned: & it is read to him in these words {Here insert the Bond} He likewise prays a hearing of the Condition of the writing Obligatory; & it is read to him in these words, {Here insert the Condition} Which being severally read and heard the said Charles Adams saith that the said John Corrie his Action afs thereof against him to have or maintain ought not, because he saith that after the making of the said writing Obligatory & before the impetration of the original writ of him the said John Corrie in this Cause, to wit on the first day of January in the year Seventeen hundred and ninety four at the County afs he the said Charles Adams did pay to the said John Corrie the sum of Three hundred and fifty one pounds and fifteen shillings Current Money in the Condition mentioned, according to the form of the Statute in such Case made and provided, together with all the Interest then due thereon and this the said Charles Adams is ready to verify. Wherefore he prays Judgment whether the said John Corrie his Action afs thereof against him to have or maintain ought &c. Nr Hammond for Deft" —

At which said second Tuesday of April, in the year One thousand seven hundred & ninety five, here came again into Court the Parties afs by their Attorneys afs, whereupon at the prayer of the said Charles Adams by his Attorney afs, it was ruled by the Court, that the said John Corrie, should file his Replication in answer to the Plea of the said Charles Adams, by the second Tuesday of September then next following, according to a Rule of this Court in such case to be observed; or that Judgment should be rendered on said day by default thereof. The same day was also given to the Parties afs then &c — Afterwards, to wit on the 26th day of August 1795 the said John Corrie by his Attorney afs affiled his Replication in answer to the plea afs, which ensues in manner and form following, to wit. "And the said John Corrie says that he for any thing above alledged by the said Charles in his plea above pleaded ought not to be precluded from having his Action thereof against him the said Charles because he says that he the said Charles hath not paid to him the said John Corrie the said sum of Three hundred and fifty one pounds and fifteen shillings Current Money with all the Interest thereon due in such manner and form as the said Charles hath above alledged in his plea; and this he prays may be enquired of by the Country, and the said Charles Adams doth the like &c. Mr Hammond for the Deft. And now at this day, to wit. The said second Tuesday of September in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred & ninety five, here come again into Court the Parties afs by their Attorneys afs, & the said Charles Adams by his Attorney defends the wrong & injury when &c. and relinquishing the averment above by him in his Plea pretended says, that he cannot gainsay the action of the said John Corrie, nor can he deny but that the writing obligatory afs is the deed of him the said ~~John~~ Charles Adams, nor but that he owes to the said John the afd sum of Seven hundred & two pounds ten shillings Current Money in manner & form as the said John against him hath complained: Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said John Corrie do recover against the said Charles Adams, as well the Debt afs in form afs acknowledged; as also the quantity of seven hundred and eighty nine pounds of Tobacco, as well for his Damages which he hath sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt as for his Costs & charges by him about his suit in this behalf expended: Unto the said John Corrie assigned as afs by the Court here with his assent adjudged. And the said Charles Adams in mercy &c — James Earle Clk.

Judgment was rendered in this Action for Penalty & Costs. To be released on Payment of the Principal Interest and Costs. Payments if any to be allowed. —
