Be it remembered that on the third day of January seventeen hundred and ninety two, Command was given to the Sheriff of Kent County that he should take James Ringgold late of Kent County Gentleman, otherwise called James Ringgold if he should be found in his Bailiwick, and him safe keep so that he might have his Body, before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at Easton, in Talbot County, the second Tuesday of April then next, to answer unto Philip Richard Fendall of a Plea, that he render unto him the full and just sum of Four hundred pounds current money which to him he owes and from him unjustly detains and so forth: And that thereof he the said Sheriff was not to fail at his peril, and that he should have then there that Writ. &c.

At which day, towit, the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini seventeen hundred and ninety two, being the day of the return of the aforegoing Writ, came into Court the said Philip R. Fendall by William Cooke his Attorney; and the Sheriff of Kent County to whom the aforesaid Writ was directed likewise came and made return thereof to the Court here thereon thus endorsed, towit. "Execu. Philip Reed Sheriff of Kent County." And the said James Ringgold by George Jennings his Attorney came here into Court; and thereupon the said James Ringgold at the prayer of the said Philip R. Fendall was ruled to give Special Bail in the plea aforesaid. Whereupon John Rowes of Kent County came here into Court in his proper person and became pledge and Manucapter for the said James Ringgold, that if it should happen that Judgment by the Court here for the aforesaid Philip in the Plea aforesaid against the said James Ringgold should be rendered then the said John Rowes granted that all such damages, Costs & charges which unto the said Philip R. Fendall in this part should by the Court be adjudged, of his Lands & chattels should be made
