SONG OF IRON.

I am mighty in the saber,
Fiercely wielded by the brave.
Glorious in the stalwart steamer,
Laugh'ng at the storm and wave.

Beauteous in the palace pillars,
Saving in the pointed rod,
As it brings the deadly lightning,
Quelled and harmless to the sod.

But there is a glorious essence,
Where I take my grandest power,
Giving to the race my surest,
Sweetest aid, in danger's hour,

See! before my fly diseases!
See the darkest hydras bow!
See the rose of health and beauty
Take the palest cheek and brow.

Fly, dpspepsia! fly consumption!
Yes, all ills are crushed at length,
For I give what human nature
Only ever needed—STRENGTH!

Shall I tell in what great essence
I can thus your spirits cheer up?
Pallid, trembling, dying suffer,
'Tis the famed "PERUVIAN SYRUP."

The PERUVIAN SYRUP is a protected solution of the Proxtide of Iron, a new discovery in medicine that strikes at the root of disease by supplying the blood with its vital principle of life element,—IRON.

The Official History of the War,
Its Causes, Character, Conduct and Results.
By Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.
A Book for all Sections and all Parties.

THIS great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the Causes of the War yet published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from the position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfeited with APPARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we promise a change of fare, both agreeable and salutary, and an intellectual treat of the highest order.
