MOORE'S
RURAL NEW-YORKER
THE MOST POPULAR NATIONAL
Agricultural, Literary and Family Weekly,

For Both TOWN and Country.

THE RURAL is the Standard in its Sphere of Journalism, being the largest-circulating Paper of its Class in the World—best evidence of Intrinsic Merit and Superiority. In variety of Practical, Useful, Entertaining and Timely Reading it has no equal, its ample pages comprising Departments devoted to or treating upon

Agriculture, Sheep Husbandry,
Horticulture, Domestic Economy,
Architecture, Arts and Sciences,
Literature, General News,
Education, Market Reports, &c.

With Illustrations, Tales, Sketches, Poetry, Rubuses, Enigmas, &c., &c.

Every Farmer, Planter, Stock and Wool Grower, Horticulturist, or head of a family in the land wants THE RURAL. It is ably edited, neatly printed, profusely illustrated and adapted to the whole country—having subscribers and enthusiastic admirers in the North, South, East and West. The Department of Sheep Husbandry, Edited by the Hon. H. S. RANDALL, LL. D., (author of "The Practical Shepherd, &c.,") is alone worth many times the price of the paper to any flock-master. Its Southern Correspondding Editor is the Hon. T. C. PETERS, former Pres't N. Y. State Ag. Society, now of Maryland. Remember that the RURAL is not a monthly, but a large and BEAUTIFUL WEEKLY of Eight Double Quarto Pages.

TERMS—Only $3 a year—less to clubs, and the most liberal inducements to club agents. Specimens, Show Bills, Premium Lists, &c., sent free. The second Quarter of Vol. XVII commenced April 6, and hence now is a good time to subscribe.

☞ The 13 numbers of the first Quarter (Jan. to April,) sent free to any Post Master, Planter, or Farmer disposed to aid in introducing the RURAL to notice and support.

WHAT THE PRESS SAYS.

MOORE'S RURAL is full of variety, original and select. We confess to a surprise at the variety and richness of its contents, bountifully illustrated as it is. No paper on our exchange list comes so near our ideas of perfection, for a secular family paper. It maintains a high moral standard.—N. Y. Observer.

THE RURAL is not only a favorite in the rural districts, but deservedly popular in the cities. No newspaper in this or any other country has ever run a more prosperous career.—Louisville Journal.

MOORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER comes to us freighted with information valuable to all who take an interest in the improvements of the times. We commend it.—N. Y. World.

A MODEL PAPER for the Farmer's family If we were to start a periodical again it would be in imitation of the RURAL NEW-YORKER.—American Agriculturist.

OF INTEREST TO THE READING PUBLIC

On the first of January, 1868, there will be published simultaneously in the cities of New York and Baltimore the first number of a new monthly Magazine, to be called

"THE NEW ECLECTIC."

It will possess the following distinctive features, which it is hoped will recommend it to the favor of a large portion of the reading public.

1st. It will embrace the whole field of American, English and Continental periodical literature, and after a comprehensive and careful monthly review, will republish only such articles as bear evidence of the highest ability, the purest principle, and the most complete adaptness to the wants of American readers and the general necessities of the age.

2d. It will refuse to identified with the principles of any party or sect, political or religious, but will seek to bring before a discriminating public views of the most asteemed and temperate organs of the more prominent schools which divide the suffrages of the thinking world, with a view to promote the growth of an intelligent, healthful operative public opinion.

3rd. The selections will come under the general heads of Politics, Sociology, Religion, Belles Letters, Biography, History, Science and Art; and the aim will be to keep busy mercantile and professional men accurately and compendiously informed upon those important movements of the day in the world of thought and discovary, which merit the attention of all classes of society.

4th. Though distinctively an Eclectic Magazine, the liberty will be reserved of bringing forward original articles from time to time, but only such are from the pens of the eminent writers.

5th. A special department will be devoted to notices and concise reviews of the most valuable new publications, and care will be taken to render all information under this

Each number of the Magazine will contain 128 octavo pages, in clear distinct typography, and printed on the best paper. The subscription price will be $4.00 per annum, in advance: to ministers, 3.00. Single copies 40 cents. Specimen numbers may be had of all the principal news dealers of the country, or upon a written application addressed to the Magazine, box 1484, Baltimore.

DEVOTED to Education in its widest sense—mentally, morally, physically, at home and in the school-room—which will make it a readable journal for all.

This Journal is practical in purpose, substantial in matter, attractive in style. And although from its title it may be supposed that its pages are wholly devoted to school matters, such will not be the case hereafter. The subject of Education is a much broader one than many imagine, and the idea of the publisher of this Journal, as announced in the outset, is to make it very comprehensive.—The flashy publications of the day, filled with trashy tales, are devoted to Education, and that of a very useless if not injurious character. Not so with this Journal.

We solicit the interest and co-operation of all. Some one in every neighborhood and town wanted to secure subscribers. Liberal cash premiums paid to agents,

PHILADELPHIA UNIVERSITY OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY

THE Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery was organized in 1848. Chartered by the Legislature, February 26, 1853. Name changed by a legislative enactment to the Eclectic Medical College of Philadelphia in 1860. In 1863 it purchased the Pennsylvania Medical College, established in 1842, and the Philadelphia Medical College, which had previously been merged into be Pennsylvania Medical College. In 1864 it purchased the Penn Medical University. The Trustees of the separate schools united, petitioned, and obtained a special act of the Legislature, consolidating these institutions and changing their names to that of the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery, March 15, 1865. All these various acts are published in the statutes of Pennsylvania. The cost of the building and museum was over one hundred thousand dollars. It will be observed that the University, as now organized, is the legal representative of the four medical Colleges that it has absorbed. It is a liberal school of medicine, confined to no dogma, nor attached to any medical clique; but embraces in its teachings everything of value to the profession.

Sessions.—It has two full sessions each year, commencing on the 1st of October, and continuing until the 1st of January as its first session, and from the 1st of January to the 1st of April as its second; the two constituting one full course of lectures. It has also a summer session, commencing the 1st of April and continuing until August, for the preparatory branches, such as Latin, Greek, Mathematics, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, Anatomy, Physiology, etc.

Tickets.—Tickets to the full course of lectures $120, or $60 for each session. For the summer or preparatory course $25. Graduating fee $30. To aid young men of moderate means, the University has issued five hundred scholarships, which are sold to first-course students, for $75, and to second-course students and clergymen for $50, each constituting the holder a life member, with the perpetual privileges of the lectures, and all the teachings of the school. The only additional fees are a yearly dissecting and matriculating ticket, each of which is $5.

The Advantages of Scholarships.—The student holding a scholarship can enter the College at any time during the year, attend as long as he chooses, and re-enter the institution as frequently as desired.

It requires no previous reading or study to enter the University on scholarships, hence, all private tuition fees are saved.

Students, by holding scholarships, can prosecute other business a part of the time.

The candidate for graduation can present himself at any time, and receive his degree as soon as qualified.

In case a student should hold a scholarship and not be able to attend lecures, it cany be transferred to another, thus preventing an loss,

Parents, guardians, or friends of students wishing to purchase scholarships for them a year or more before their attendance at the University, can secure them by advancing one-half the price, and paying the balance when the student enters. Physicians and benevolent men can bestow great benefit upon poor young men, by presenting them a scholarship, and thus enabling them to obtain an honorable profession.

The Faculty embraces seventeen eminent physicians and surgeons. The University has associated with it a large hospital clinic, where every form of medical and surgical disease is operated on and treated in the presence of the class.

COLLEGE BUILDING.—The College building, located in Ninth Street, south of Walnut, is the finest in the city. Its front is collegiate gothic, and is adorned with embattlements and embrasures, presenting a novel, bold, and beautiful appearance. The facade is of brown stone, ornamented by two towers, rising to the elevation of eighty feet, and crowned with an embattled parapet. The building contains between fifty and sixty rooms, all supplied with water, gas, and every other convenience that modern improvement can contribute t facilitate medical instruction. Only five hundred scholarships will be issued, and as two hundred and fifty are now sold, those who wish to secure one should do so at once. Money can be remitted by express, or a draft or check sent on any National bank in the United States, when the scholarship will be returned by mail, signed by the President of the Board of Trustees, Jos. S. Fisher, Esq., and the Dean of the Faculty, W. Paine, M. D. All orders for scholarships or other business of the University, should be addressed to Professor W. Paine, M. D, Philadelphia, Pa.
