for that the Court here is not yet advised thereof — At which day; to wit, the said second Tuesday of April in the year One thousand seven hundred and Ninety three here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid: Whereupon as well the Record and Process aforesaid, and the Judgment thereupon given, as the matter aforesaid by the said William Stevens's Lessee above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court here fully understood, and mature deliberation being thereupon had, it appears to the Court here that the Record and Process aforesaid and also in the giving of the Judgment aforesaid it is manifestly erred, therefore it is ordered by the Court here, that a Jury should be impannelled and sworn to say the truth of and upon the premises aforesaid on the second Tuesday of September then next following the same day is given to the Parties aforesaid. At which said day; to wit, the second Tuesday of September, here came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid, and thereupon this Cause standing ready for Trial further Process of and upon the Premises aforesaid between the Parties aforesaid by consent of the said Parties, and by order of the Court here thereon, was defered until the second Tuesday of September then next following. —

And now here at this day; to wit, the second Tuesday of April in the year, One thousand seven hundred and ninety five, come again the Parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid, whereupon for trying the Issue, between the Parties aforesaid it was ordered, that a Jury thereon, appear before the Judges aforesaid immediately, by whom &c^a who neither &c^a to recognize &c^a because as well &c^a who being called come; to wit, David Kerr, William Miller, Richard Skinner, John Williams, Thomas Williams, James Seth, Thomas Angier, William Robinson Reuben Harding, Greenberry Goldsborough, Levin Pollitt and Solomon Frazier, and are duly elected, impannelled and sworn to say the truth of and upon the premises aforesaid; and from the Bar here to discourse upon giving their verdict did withdraw, and being agreed to return the same to the bar here did return, and upon their Oath do say that the said Levi Houston is guilty of the trespass and ejectment in manner and form as the said William Stevens's Lessee above against him hath Complained. Therefore it is Considered by the Court here that the said Timothy Tichlelaby Lessee of the said William Stevens, do recover against the said Levi Houston his Term aforesaid, yet to come of and in the tenements aforesaid, with the appertenances to the same belonging, and also the quantity of Three thousand, Two hundred and forty eight Pounds and one fourth of a Pound of Tobacco, for his Costs and Charges by him about his Suit in this behalf expended; unto the said Timothy Tichlelaby Lessee of the said William Stevens as aforesaid, by the Court here with his assent adjudged and the said Levi Houston in mercy. James Earle Clk^n.

Judgment Signed this 9th. day of April 1794. —

Daniel Jenifer and Daniel Jenifer Junior Executors of Daniel of St Thomas Jenifer against Peter Chaille	Be it remembered that Peter Chaille, the Defendant, by Littleton Dennis his Attorney sued out of the Court here the State of Maryland's Writ of Habeas Corpus the tenor whereof follows, in these words; to wit, (The State of Maryland, &c. To the Justices and Sheriff of Worcester County, Greeting: Seal. Whereas a certain Chaille late of Worcester County is detained in the prison of our said County, under the Custody of you our said Sheriff, at the Suit of a certain Daniel of St Thomas Jenifer's Executors of a Plea of Debt, &c^a so forth which said Plea as it is said still depends before you our said Justices, undetermined; and we being willing, for divers causes, that the Plea aforesaid, undetermined as aforesaid, shall be heard and determined before the Judges of our General Court, therefore we command you that you have the body of the said Peter Chaille, by whatsoever name or names he may be called in the Plea aforesaid, together with the Cause of his Caption, and detention and all things thereunto relating before the Judges of our General Court may further proceed therein as to Justice appertains and so forth: Hereof fail not at your Peril and have you then and there this Writ: Witness the honourable Samuel Chase Esquire, Chief Judge of our said Court the 10th. day of September Anno Dominii 1792.
