Daniel D. Addison
Assignee of Anthony Addison against
Samuel & John Fulton, Exors
of James Fulton

Be it remembered that on the thirteenth day of December, Anno Domini Seventeen hundred and ninety, Command was given to the Sheriff of Cecil County that he should take James Fulton, late of Cecil County, Physician, if he should be found in his Bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that he might have his Body before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at Easton in Talbot County, on the second Tuesday of April, then next, to answer unto Daniel Dulany Addison, Assignee (according to the force, form and effect of the Act of Assembly in such Case made and provided) of Anthony Addison, of a plea that he render unto him the sum of eighteen hundred and eighty pounds, current money, which from him he unjustly detains and so forth And that thereof he the said Sheriff should not fail at his peril; and that he should have then and there that Writ. —

At which said second Tuesday in April, towit, in the year Seventeen hundred and ninety one, being the day of the return of the aforegoing Writ, came here into Court the said Daniel Dulany Addison, by William Cooke, his Attorney; and the then Sheriff of Cecil County aforesaid, to whom the said Writ was directed, also came and made return thereof to the Court here thus endorsed, "Cepi; James Orrick, Sheriff." Thereupon the following Bail piece was produced to the Court here and filed of Record. —

Daniel Dulany, Assignee of Anthony Addison,
against
James Fulton

You William Ward and Richard Savin, do jointly and severally acknowledge yourselves Special Bail for the said James Fulton at the suit of the said Daniel Dulany Addison, Assignee of Anthony Addison in an action of Debt brought by the said Daniel Dulany Addison against the said James Fulton, in the General Court. They acknowledge themselves to be contained therewith this ninth day of April 1791. before

To the Hon'ble the Judges of the General Court.

W. Matthews,
Sidney George

I do hereby constitute and appoint Peregrine Lethberry, Esq. my Attorney in this Suit; James Fulton

Whereupon all further process of and upon the Premises between these Parties, with the consent of the said Parties and their Attornies, and by an Order of Court thereon, was continued until the second Tuesday in September then next — At which said second Tuesday in September, towit, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety one, came again the said Parties by their Attorneys aforesd; and the said James Fulton by his Attorney aforesd, prayed that the said Daniel D. Addison might be ruled to file his Declaration in this Plea, by the second Tuesday in April, then next; on that on default thereof Judgment of Non pros should be rendered against him; and to him it is granted. The same day was given to the said James Fulton there &c: At which said second Tuesday in April, towit, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety two, came again the said Parties by their Attornies aforesd; and the said Daniel D. Addison, by his Attorney aforesd, affixed in Court here his Declaration against the said James Fulton; which ensues as follows: —

Eastern Shore State of Maryland
Cecil County, towit,

James Fulton, late of Cecil County, was summoned to answer unto Daniel Dulany Addison, Assignee, according to the force,
