...--Beautiful Extract.

...ressed to be the companion of man, how often has she been made his slave, the instrument of his passions, the plaything of his idle hours. This everywhere among the savage tribes has been the case, and even among nations which were civilized, if Pagan, woman rarely had assigned to her her proper place.

This was but another phase of that ferocity that has cursed the earth by its cruelties in war. The stronger trampling on the weak. But there was this mighty difference, that whereas a feeble tribe might by conquest be made harmless, the influence of woman could not be destroyed. There belongs to her in each several relation as sister, wife, mother, a vast social power for good or evil, of which she cannot be deprived. If crushed, downtrodden and despised by an unchristian civilization, Woman, alas, had her too ample revenge in the baneful influences which from man's fault and her own sad misfortune, went from her as by law of retribution to avenge her on her tyrants. Her womanly nature which would have shed its sweet and softening influences on society could not be dried up, but did, without her meaning it, give forth the soured and bitter influences which oppression, to its own just punishment, wrung out from her. Never, therefore, could there be a true civilization where woman was not assigned her proper place.—But where this justice is done to her, what a rich reward she bestows on man It is her's then to humanize him by the gentler charities, to engraft with her delicate female touch, the softer graces upon the under-growths of his nature, to distil around the deep roots of his being a secret subtile balm of all purest passions which, when she has roused into their strength, she then softens without enervating them. It is woman's mission in the quiet privacies of home, to feed the centre founts of society with those humanizing influences which distil as naturally from her as its balm from the tree, or their odor from the flower. But why crush the extending branch? or why tread down the exhaling flower? The more tenderly they are nurtured the richer the balm, the more fragrant the aroma will they yield. And so woman, if herself the nurseling of tenderness, will the more tenderly minister. Now in the Scripture woman has assigned to her her proper place, the amenities of her sex are vindicated, her mission is defined, her ministrations are allowed and acknowledged, she is placed at man's side his companion, his friend, his equal and help meet for him. Weaker in physical frame, she is admonished to cling to him for support; of intellectual energies less vigorous than his, she is taught to make him her counsellor. But superior to man in the finer and pure delicate sentiments of their common nature, he must look toward her unless he would become stern in his strength and in his virile hardihood degenerate into harshness.

We know nothing finer in the whole range of literature than are some of the examinations of female character which are to be met with in the Scripture histories. A loving wife and a devoted mother, she is seen shedding a hallowed loveliness around the household.

The sires and sons of Israel, so noble, patriots, heroes of dauntless bravery, men of action and of mettle in Israel's best days, went forth from homes where woman's work was known and her power admitted. It was she as wife or mother who made these sires and sons of Israel the men they proved to be. But not only in the privacy of home is the Hebrew woman to be seen. She could step forth without forgetting her womanly modesty, in these stirring times equal to deeds of valor, that the veterans of the nation might have envied. She, too, was poetess, Priestess, prophetess, but nobler still, she was ennobled as the mother of the Saviour.

NEW ESTABLISHMENT!

New Stock, Low Prices!

BUILDING HARDWARE, TIN WARE, AND STOVES.

THE citizens of Chestertown and the adjacent country, are respectfully invited to call at the New Establishment, (stand formerly occupied by Wm. Simpson, on High street, nearly opposite the Voshell House,) and examine our large and cheap stock.

IN BUILDING HARDWARE

We are able to offer great inducements to Carpenters, Mechanics, Farmers, Builders, and those who contemplate having building done. If all such will only give us a chance we are confident of being able to convince them that we can supply their wants with a better article and for less money, than any establishment in this town. Our stock in this line is very full, and we are constantly making additions to it.

TIN AND SHEET IRON WARE.

In this department our stock is very complete, comprising almost any thing that can be called for, and at prices that must, we are sure, give satisfaction. In Tin we also keep the celebrated Stamped Ware. We have in our employ experienced, skillful and faithful workmen, and always use good material.

Stoves.

We shall keep a good stock, of all kinds, purchased from manufacturers direct, and will sell at a very small advance.

TIN ROOFING AND SPOUTING, and all kinds of repairing (including repairs to stoves,) done promptly in a workmanlike and durable manner, at low rates.

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS,

Embracing Safes, Japanned and Block Tin Ware, Ornamental Chamber Sets, and fancy Ware generally, in great variety.

In conclusion we would remark that we have gone into this business with a determination to sell low, to spare no pains, and to do all in our power to give satisfaction: and we respectfully ask our friends and the public to give us a trial.

THOMAS BRYAN.

Strawberry Plants AND Dwarf Pears.

I have about 200,000 Strawberry Plants, cultivated expressly for the Plants, which I now offer as low as can be bought of any Nurseryman, embracing the following choice varieties: Wilson's Albany, Agriculturist, Russell's Prolific, Knox's Jucunda or 700, and Golden Seeded.

Also, 5,000 Dwarf Pear Trees, principally Dutchess, budded on the best two year old transplanted Anger's Quince, of my own importation, from the celebrated nursery of Duvesse & Co., at Orleans, France, that I will warrant equal if not superior to any that can be bought and at as low a price.

For the benefit of those wishing to plant Pear Trees, I will state that I have 2,800, of eight varieties, planted in 1868, and selected from the orchard of a gentleman who had thirty-two varities, as the only ones worthy of cultivation. My own experience has induced me to discard all but the following, of which I shall plant about 5,000 myself this fall: Beure Gifford, very early; Beure Easter, very late; Louise Bon de Jersey; Dutchesse de Angoulene.

DURYEAS'

Satin Gloss Starch

HAS established a world-wide celebrity for being the Purest, Whitest, Strongest, and Most Glossy and Economical Starch known. Disinterested judges pronounce it the "Perfection of Starch."

The Messrs. Duryea have no occasion to personally assert the superiority of their goods. A discriminating public and the decision of the following scientific and disinterested judges establish it.

PRIZE MEDALS AWARDED Duryeas' Starch and Maizena

For their "Perfection of Quality," at Grand Paris International Exposition, 1867. Great London International Exposition, 1862. Great Internat. Exposition, Hamburg, 1863. Great Internat. Exposition, Cologne, 1865. Also at States', Agricultural, American Institute and Maryland Institute Fairs.

Inferior Starch is sour, musty, or has a golden or yellow tinge, a color not desirable in one's linen. (It is absurd for the laundress to cleanse and bleach, and then discolor linen with impure yellow starch.)

Maizena

Is a pure flour, from the choicest Indian corn, and is used for all the purposes of Corn Starch and Arrowroot, to which it is superior. Put up in the same style of packets, and at same price, with directions for use.

For culinary purposes, call for "Duryeas' Maizena. For the laundry, call for Duryeas' Satin Gloss Starch.

For sale by all grocers. Be sure you get our goods. Our name is on all our boxes.
