And now here to wit, on the same third monday of March Seventeen hundred and ninety three, the aforesaid Gilbert Semans, by his attorney aforesaid alledged to the court here that the action aforesaid so as aforesaid depending between the aforesaid Daniel Charles Heath, plaintiff and him the said Gilbert Semans Defendant was by Habeas Corpus removed to the General Court for the Eastern Shore of this State, at the Court House in Talbot County on the second Tuesday of April next of all which the said Court for the County of Kent hath legal notice by Habeas Corpus amongst the proceedings of the same Court filed & allowed,

Seal of Kent County Court

In Testimony that the above is a true Transcript of the proceedings in this Cause I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of Kent County this 1st day of April 1793.

Ben: Chambers Clk K. C.

Thereupon the sheriff of Kent County aforesaid reported to the court here that he had the body of the said Gilbert Semans, here ready as by the said writ of Habeas Corpus he was commanded, and the said Gilbert Semans, by William Bradley his attorney, appeared here in this General Court and the said Daniel Charles Heath, by his attorney aforesaid, prayed that the said Gilbert Semans, might be ruled to file his plea in answer to the Declaration of him the said Daniel Charles Heath, on or before the second Tuesday in September then next or that Judgment on default thereof against him might be rendered: and it was granted unto him: the same day was given to the said Daniel Charles Heath there to forthwith. At which said second Tuesday in September to wit, in the year seventeen hundred and ninety three, here came again the parties aforesaid, by their attorneys aforesaid it was said to the said Gilbert Semans, that he pleaded answer to the Declaration aforesaid of him the said Daniel Charles Heath, by the same Tuesday in April then next following, and it was further said to the said Gilbert Semans, that if he should not answer to the Declaration aforesaid, by the day aforesaid, Judgment should be rendered against him by default the same day was given to the said Plaintiff there and to forthwith. At which said second Tuesday in April to wit, in the year Seventeen hundred and ninety four, here came again the parties by their attorneys aforesaid, and it was said to the said Gilbert Semans, that he pleaded answer to the Declaration aforesaid of him the said Daniel Charles Heath, by the same Tuesday in September then next following, and it was further said to the said Gilbert Semans, that if he should not answer to the Declaration aforesaid, by the day aforesaid Judgment should be rendered against him by default, the same day was given to the said Daniel Charles Heath there &c. — And now here on this day to wit, the same Tuesday in September in the year Seventeen hundred and ninety four, here came again the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid, and the said Gilbert Semans, by his attorney aforesaid, saith that he cannot deny the action aforesaid of the said Daniel Charles Heath, so as aforesaid against him brought nor but that the said Daniel Charles Heath hath sustained damage to the same of two hundred and six pounds twelve shillings and six pence current money, by reason of the non performance of the promises & assumptions aforesaid in manner and form aforesaid, so as aforesaid against him alleged. Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said Daniel Charles Heath do recover against the said Gilbert Semans, as well the sum of two hundred and six pounds twelve shillings & six pence current money, by Damages aforesaid in form aforesaid Confessed; as also the quantity of nine hundred and ninety pounds of Tobacco by the Court here unto him in this behalf adjudged for his Costs and Charges by him about his Suit in this behalf laid out & expended, and the said Gilbert Semans in mercy &c.
