CARRIER'S ADDRESS.

Once more, kind friends, in the course of my rounds
A New Year has come; "Happy New Year!" resounds—
And following a fashion well pleasing to all,
I doff you my hat, and make you my call.

And, as through the year each week I did bring
The notes of the market and many such things,
So, now, I will give you a few scraps of rhyme,
To pass a dull moment at some odd time.

And, first, of the ladies—bless their dear hearts—
Never Grecian of old did bend with more art
Than the dear little calico, who sweeps as she goes,
And describes a true curve from her nose to her toes.

The dear little rosebuds which make up her hat
Now stand visa-vis with the roll on her back,
While around the dear throat is a nice little cat,
Or some sweet little thing which looks like a rat.

On the top of her head is a mound of dear moss;
On the bridge of her nose the hat goes across;
While dangling around the neck, and behind,
One stray little curl of the old-maiden kind.

Such hats and such cats, such curls and such moss,
I find my poor head all ideas have lost;
For each and for all, for each sweet little dear,
I tip you my hat and drop you a tear.

And now my dear sir, stand out to the front,
And say whether or not the dollar you hunt,
Whether six, ten, or forty, whether fifty per cent,
Is the old Grecian game on which you are bent.

Your hat is slicked up, your eyes are bent down,
You step like a priest on the consecrate ground;
You smile like a saint while you fumble the cash,
And you think yourself far above the poor trash.

And you, my good sir, with your blue-book and bag
Your quids and your quillets, how smooth your tongue wags;
You plead and you pray, you pray and you plead,
And the purse of your neighbours freely doth bleed.

And you, mister Merchant, with your stick and your measure
You show men your goods with Oh! how "much pleasure;"
You sell them for cost, and perhaps a trifle less;
All the little girls you kiss, and the babies you bless.

Just so Mister Butcher, with your steak and your stew,
You slay like a trooper, you weigh like a Jew;
With two quarter before, and two quarters behind,
With the hide and the tallow a fifth quarter you find.

Sir Boots and Sir Shoes, knights of the last,
Your leather is ris—how comes it to pass—
You punch and you hammer, you peg and you wax,
You make new, old soles, and pay revenue tax.

Sir Farmer, speak out—your crops and your grass,
How near to an average, how near can they pass;
You sow and you reap—never a crop have you made—
You sell and you sell, but are never half paid(?)

And you, Mister Smithy—you blow and you blast;
You file and you hammer, you mould and you cast;
And while on the back of your anvil you pound,
You gossip with any old loafer around.

The preachers they pray—they pray and they preach—
With the Bible they hold—by its precepts they teach;
Like mortals they live—North, South, West and East:
Sometimes they drink wine, sometimes they feast.

The youngster goes smoking his cigar around,
Bought with the money in his trowserloons found;
He sleeks up his head and curls up his 'stache,
And asks the 'old man' for a little more cash.

The printer stands up at his case all the day,
Stick in his hand and sticking away;
Makes up his own form—sometimes into pi—
He presses it out and washes with lye.

The editor writes—he reads and he writes—
Sometimes he runs, and sometimes he fights:
Sometimes with scissors and paste-cup makes up
The editorial article and Congressional puff.

And, now, my dear readers, to all I have paid
Some compliment fitting and by the "devil" made;
I hope that you all may be puffed up with pride,
And ne'er for one moment say the "devil" has lied.

And so, my good friends, I bid you adieu,
And a 'Happy New Year!' my greeting renew;
May you laugh and be merry the rest of your life,
Each one and all,—father, son, daughter and wife.

HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN BITTERS.
HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN TONIC.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,
and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.
All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.
PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,
J. H. KENNARD,
Eighth, below Coates street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggists to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

DURYEAS'

Satin Gloss Starch

HAS established a world-wide celebrity for being the Purest, Whitest, Strongest, and Most Glossy and Economical Starch known. Disinterested judges pronounce it the "Perfection of Starch."

The Messrs. Duryea have no occasion to personally assert the superiority of their goods. A discriminating public and the decision of the following scientific and disinterested judges establish it.

PRIZE MEDALS AWARDED
Duryeas' Starch and Maizena

For their "Perfection of Quality," at Grand Paris International Exposition, 1867. Great London International Exposition, 1862. Great Internat. Exposition, Hamburg, 1863. Great Internat. Exposition, Cologne, 1865. Also at States', Agricultural, American Institute and Maryland Institute Fairs.

Inferior Starch is sour, musty, or has a golden or yellow tinge, a color not desirable in one's linen. (It is absurd for the laundress to cleanse and bleach, and then discolor linen with impure yellow starch.)

Maizena

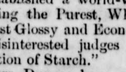

Is a pure flour, from the choicest Indian corn, and is used for all the purposes of Corn Starch and Arrowroot, to which it is superior. Put up in the same style of packets, and at same price, with directions for use.

For culinary purposes, call for Duryeas' Maizena. For the laundry, call for Duryeas' Satin Gloss Starch.

For sale by all grocers. Be sure you get our goods. Our name is on all our boxes.
