NEW ESTABLISHMENT!
New Stock, Low Prices!

BUILDING HARDWARE, TIN WARE, AND STOVES.

THE citizens of Chestertown and the adjacent country, are respectfully invited to call at the New Establishment, (stand formerly occupied by Wm. Simpson, on High street, nearly opposite the Voshell House,) and examine our large and cheap stock.

IN BUILDING HARDWARE

We are able to offer great inducements to Carpenters, Mechanics, Farmers, Builders, and those who contemplate having building done. If all such will only give us a chance we are confident of being able to convince them that we can supply their wants with a better article and for less money, than any establishment in this town. Our stock in this line is very full, and we are constantly making additions to it.

TIN AND SHEET IRON WARE.

In this department our stock is very complete, comprising almost any thing that can be called for, and at prices that must, we are sure, give satisfaction. In Tin we also keep the celebrated Stamped Ware. We have in our employ experienced, skillful and faithful workmen, and always use good material.

Stoves.

We shall keep a good stock, of all kinds, purchased from manufacturers direct, and will sell at a very small advance.

TIN ROOFING AND SPOUTING, and all kinds of repairing (including repairs to stoves,) done promptly in a workmanlike and durable manner, at low rates.

HOUSEKEEPING GOODS,

Embracing Safes, Japanned and Block Tin Ware, Ornamental Chamber Sets, and fancy Ware generally, in great variety.

In conclusion we would remark that we have gone into this business with a determination to sell low, to spare no pains, and to do all in our power to give satisfaction: and we respectfully ask our friends and the public to give us a trial.

JAMES T. PARKS,
THOMAS BRYAN.

DURYEAS'
Satin Gloss Starch

HAS established a world-wide celebrity for being the Purest, Whitest, Strongest, and Most Glossy and Economical Starch known. Disinterested judges pronounce it the "Perfection of Starch."

The Messrs. Duryea have no occasion to personally assert the superiority of their goods. A discriminating public and the decision of following scientific and disinterested judges establish it.

PRIZE MEDALS AWARDED
Duryeas' Starch and Maizena

For their "Perfection of Quality," at Grand Paris International Exposition, 1867. Great London International Exposition, 1862. Great Internat. Exposition, Hamburg, 1863. Great Internat. Exposition, Cologne, 1865. Also at States', Agricultural, American Institute and Maryland Institute Fairs.

Inferior Starch is sour, musty, or has a golden or yellow tinge, a color not desirable in one's linen. (It is absurd for the laundress to cleanse and bleach, and then discolor linen with impure yellow starch.)

Maizena

Is a pure flour, from the choicest Indian corn, and is used for all the purposes of Corn Starch and Arrowroot, to which it is superior. Retain the same style of packets, and at same price, with directions for use.

For culinary purposes, call for Duryeas' Maizena. For the laundry, call for Duryeas' Satin Gloss Starch.

For sale by all grocers. Be sure you get our goods. Our name is on all our boxes.

HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN BITTERS.
HOOFLAND'S
GERMAN TONIC.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now before the country called Bitters. There is no tavern fraze connected with them, no whiskey like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, Stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are all of our own growth, and are collected in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. The extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used to preserve the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with pure Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some gentle stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any other preparations in the market. They are the only scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, that have ever been introduced to the use of rum to make them a popular medicine. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. In fact it is considered a luxury to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal properties have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of General Debility, Want of Nervous Energy, Universal Lassitude of the whole system, Mental Depression, Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, Want of Sleep, Dizziness, &c. They act directly on the digestive organs, restore the lost appetite, create pure blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, restore the pale, sallow face to its proper freshness and beauty, and change the pallid form, a mere shadow, into one of healthy roundness. In short, they are the best remedies known to the world, and will cure all diseases resulting from a disordered liver, or a debilitated state of the system. Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

in the world, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep the blood pure, and health will follow. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no boils, pimples, blotches, or sores to mortify you. Keep the blood pure, and you will have a sound, healthy skin. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no fevers, bilious attacks, or liver complaints. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no dyspepsia, or sick headache. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no rheumatism, or gout. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no scrofula, or king's evil. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no erysipelas, or St. Anthony's fire. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no pimples, or humors. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no carbuncles, or ulcers. Keep the blood pure, and you will have no mercurial disease, or disease of any description. In fact, keep the blood pure, and you will have the health and beauty of a blooming child. Bear in mind that these remedies have a reputation of thirty years standing, and that they are the only remedies that can be relied upon as a sure cure for any disease arising from impure blood. Keep your blood pure, and your health is secure. The best men in the country recommend them. If you want a reliable preparation, one that you can depend upon, one that has a reputation of thirty years standing, one that has been tried by millions, one that will not disappoint you, one that will cure you, one that will make you feel like a new person, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" to be not an intoxicating beverage, but in a good sense, useful to discovery of the vital principle, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 26, 1866.

I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable tonic in cases of debility, attended with indigestion, and other symptoms of dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of its merits.

JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to comment my name with recommendations of different kinds of bitters, but not regarding the practice as one of my appropriate spheres, I have in all cases declined; but as I am personally acquainted with you, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I cannot forbear from my present duty, but must say that I have found them a valuable preparation, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is by many considered one of the best preparations.

Yours, very truly,
J. H. KENNARD.

Boyle, below Custer street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the side of the bottle, and his name blown in the glass of the wrapper. All others are counterfeit.

The whole is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggists to impose upon you by telling you that what they have is just as good, or the same as Hoofland's German Remedies. Remember they will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the

Do not forget to examine well the articles you buy, in order to get the genuine.

...trees with voices Æolian.

By the rivers of Life we walked together,
I and my darling, unafraid;
And lighter than any linnet's feather
The burdens of Being on us weighed;
And Love's sweet miracles o'er us threw
Mantles of joy outlasting time,
And up from the rosy morrows grew
A sound that seemed like a marriage chime.

In the gardens of Life we strayed together,
And the luscious apples were ripe and red,
And the languid lilac and honeyed heather
Swooned with the fragrance which they shed;
And under the trees the angels walked,
And up in the air a sense of wings
Awed us tenderly while we talked
Softly in sacred communings.

In the meadows of Life we strayed together,
Watching the waving harvests grow,
And under the benison of the Father
Our hearts, like lambs, skipped to and fro,
And the cowslips, bearing our low replies,
Broidered fairer the emerald banks,
And glad tears shone in the daisies' eyes,
And the timid violet glistened thanks.

Who was with us, and what was round us,
Neither myself nor my darling guessed;
Only we knew that something cro wned us
Out from the heavens with orowas of rest
Only we know that something bright
Lingered lovingly where we stood,
Clothed with the incandescent light
Of something higher than human hood.

Oh, the riches Love doth inherit!
Ah, the alchemy which doth change
Dross of body and dregs of spirit
Into sanctities rare and strange!
My flesh is feeble and dry and old,
My darling's beautiful hair is gray;
But our elixir and precious gold
Laugh at the footsteps of decay.

Harms of the world have come unto us,
Cups of sorrow we yet shall drain;
But we have a secret which doth show us
Wonderful rainbows in the rain.
And we hear the tread of the years move by,
And the sun is setting behiud the hills;
But my darling does not fear to die,
And I am happy in what God wills.

So we sit by our household fires together,
Dreaming the dreams of long ago;
Then it was balmy sunny wearier,
And now the valleys are laid in snow.
Icicles hang from the slippery eaves,
The wind blows cold,—'tis growing late;
Well, well! we have garnered all our sheaves,
I and my darling, and we wait.

President Johnson's Farewell Address to the People of the United States.

We make the following full extract from Mr. Johnson's farewell Address, to the exclusion of miscellaneous matter, and ask for it a careful reading.

Experiencing moreover, as all have done, the frightful cost of the arbitrament of the sword, let us in the future cling closer than ever to the constitution as our only safeguard. It is to be hoped that not until the burdens now pressing upon us with such fearful weight are removed, will our people forget the lessons of the war, and that remembering them from whatever cause, peace between sections and States may be perpetuated.

The history of late events in our country, as well as of the greatest governments of ancient and modern times, teaches that we have everything to fear from a departure from the letter and spirit of the constitution and the undue ascendancy of men allowed to assume power in what are considered desperate emergencies. Scylla, on becoming master of Rome, at once adopted measures to crush his enemies; and to consolidate the power of his party, he established military colonies throughout Italy, deprived of the full Roman franchise the inhabitants of the Italian towns who had opposed his usurpations, confiscated their lands and gave them to his soldiers, and conferred citizenship on a great number of slaves belonging to those who had proscribed him, thus crowding on Rome a kind of body-guard for his protection. After having given Rome over to slaughter and tyranny beyond all example over to those opposed to him and the legions, his terrible instrument of wrong, Scylla could yet feel safe in laying down the insigns of power so dreadfully abused, and in mingling freely with the the families and friends of his myriad victims.

The fear which he had inspired continued after his voluntarily abdication, and even in retirement his will was law to a people who had permitted themselves to be enslaved. What but a subtle knowledge and conviction that the Roman people had become changed, discouraged and broken in spirit could have induced this daring assumption? What but public
