The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, March 13, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

☞ Chas. G Ricaud, Esq., is among those named as a Delegate to our next Legislature.

Building Association.—The Kent Mutual Building Association is now organized, the following officers having been elected: President, W. B. Usilton; Vice President, W. H. Lambert; Treasurer, W. H. Hamilton; Secretary, T. W. Russell; Solicitor, E. F. Perkins; Directors, A. A. Biscoe, Jas. A. Shaw, E. T. Willis, J. K. Aldrige, Geo. Stuart.

The Books will be open for subscription to stock this Saturday evening.

Mr. Harris' Lecture.—The citizens of our town and county around, will bear in mind the lecture of the Hon. J. Morrison Harris, before the Young Men's Christian Association, on Wednesday evening next, at 8 o'clock.

Arrangements have been made to have attentive Ushers, and to seat families, and ladies with gentlemen accompanying them together. Of this Lecture of Mr. Harris', the Balto. Sun thus speaks:

"A lecture was delivered last evening by the Hon. J. Morrison Harris, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, in St. John's Church, Liberty street.—His subject was, "Paul the Orator." The lecturer said his subject was not one of those usually selected for a popular lecture, but he considered that the Bible has its human as well as the divine side. It is a mistake to suppose that they are only to be regarded from the standpoint of the pulpit. He had selected from one of the greatest histories one of its greatest characters—one of the earnest men, whose power always leads the world. The lecturer then described the character of St. Paul, the learned, eloquent, affluent and accomplished citizen of Jerusalem, and spoke of his persecution of the Christians before he became a disciple of Christ.

He then described St. Paul in his new character as an apostle, and gave a sketch of his labors in the cause of Christianity. His life, he said, was tragic in its heroic faith, crowded with earnest action and sublime in its result. The style of the lecturer was ornate and polished. In speaking of the cities of Damascus, Antioch, Athens, Rome and Jerusalem as they existed at the time they became the scenes, successively, of the apostle's labors, his oratory and, in turn, of his persecutions, the lecturer revelled in a luxuriance of language and description which was, at times quiet eloquent, and commanded the earnest attention of the audience, which filled the church.

The Labor of fourteen Hours Accomplished in Five.

"I prefer Grover and Baker's Machine because it is thorough in everything. I can make an entire dress with the Grover & Baker Machine, every part of it except the sewing on of hooks and eyes, buttons and button-holes. It used to take me fourteen hours to make a dress handsomely; I can do it in five."—Testimony of Mrs. H. N. Farnsworth, 4 Carroll Place, New York, before the Commissioner of Patents.

TO PEACH GROWERS!

A LARGE AND VERY SUPERIOR LOT OF PEACH TREES

For Sale at Moderate Prices.

FROM among the hundreds of varieties of the Peach which have been grown, these Trees were budded from a few of the best, and those were bearing trees, thus giving a decided advantage over budding from Nursery Stock, as most nurserymen do.

These trees were not raised for speculation, or for the trade, but for a special purpose. But different arrangements have been made, and this valuable selection is offered for sale at moderate prices. A better show of trees, and a finer and more choice variety of fruit, cannot be found anywhere.
