The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, March 20, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Mr. Harris' Lecture, on Wednesday evening last, before the Young Men's Christian Association, secured a moderately well filled house—but the reputation of the lecturer should have filled every available place. Mr. Harris was listened to with wrapt attention, and we have heard but one universal expression of gratification. Mr. Harris' speciality is word-painting, and his "Paul the Orator" is, in fact, more a gorgeous panorama of the different places visited by the Apostle in his eventful life than an exposition of his character. The thanks of our community are due the Association for having presented us with so intellectual a treat.

Kent Mutual Building Association.—The Stock Book of this Association was opened last Saturday evening, at which time one hundred and sixty-five shares were subscribed for. Shares $125; weekly dues 25 cents a share. The book—as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere—will be opened again this evening, at the Court House, from 7½ to 9½ o'clock. The first weekly instalment on stock will be paid in the first Saturday evening in April. All who desire to avail themselves of the benefits to be derived from membership in the Association, are invited to attend the meeting above named, when all information in regard to its management, &c., can be obtained.

M. E. Church, South.—The Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, adjourned on the 14th inst., after a session of ten days. Rev. J. J. Edwards is appointed to Kent circuit. Rev Sylvanus Townsend (last year on this circuit) is appointed to Calvert. Revs. J. Hervey DuLaney and L. H. Baldwin, are the preachers for Queen Anne's circuit.

The Wilmington M E Conference, which embraces the State of Delaware and the Eastern Shores of Maryland and Virginia, met last Wednesday, in Wilmington, Del.

Bishop Lay.

Advices from Right Reverend Henry C. Lay, the newly elected P. E Bishop of the diocese of Easton, now in Arkansas, where he has been Missionary Bishop since the close of the war, represents affairs in a very unsettled condition. Business has revived but little, and no respect is paid to the administration of civil law. Bishop Lay will be compelled to sacrifice his personal effects and other property, as it is impossible to dispose of property in Arkansas for anything like its value. In view of these circumstances a purse is being made up in the diocese, to be forwarded to the Bishop, to facilitate him in his removal, and to compensate, in some degree, the losses he sustains. Bishop Lay is expected here in April. Notice has been given by the Standing Committee of the diocese that all the forms necessary in the election of a new diocese, have been complied with, and the "Diocese of Easton" is now an accomplished fact.—St. Michael's Comet.

Peters' Musical Monthly.

The March number of Peters' Musical Monthly is at hand, and contains some twenty-four pages of Choice New Music, giving selections from the most popular writers, and variety enough to suit the most fastidious. We notice, first, a beautiful little ballad, with Chorus, by T. S. Cox, entitled "Left all Alone," the words of which run as follows:

"I'm left all alone in my sorrow,
No mother to soothe me to rest."

Then follows a Sacred Song by George Leach, entitled "The Lord will Provide." "Coraline," by the Nation's Song-Writer, Will S. Hays, comes next.

This is followed by Sprightly Comic Song by T. Brigham Bishop, entitled "The Young Widow."

In addition to the above, Mr. Peters gives fifteen pages of choice family Reading, and all for the moderate sum of 30 cents, or $3 per year—over $3 worth of New Music appearing in each number. Those of our musical friends who do not subscribe are certainly losing a rich treat, as $40 worth of music cannot be bought every day for such a small sum. Issued by

J. L. PETERS, Music Publisher,
Sample copies, 30 cts. P. O. Box 5439,
New York.

A Perfect Sewing Machine.

"I believe it to be the best, all things considered, of any that I have known. It is very simple and easily learned; the sewing from the ordinary spools is a great advantage; the stitch is entirely reliable; it does' ornamental work beautifully it is not liable to get out of order. I suppose I can sum it all by saying it is a perfect machine. I have had occasion to compare the work with that of other machines. The result was always favorable to the Grover & Baker Machine."—Testimony of Mrs. A. M. Spooner, 36 Bond Street, Brooklyn, before the Commissioner of Patents.

TO PEACH GROWERS!

A LARGE AND VERY SUPERIOR LOT OF PEACH TREES
For Sale at Moderate Prices.

From among the hundreds of varieties of the Peach which have been grown, these Trees were budded from a few of the best, and those were bearing trees, thus giving a decided advantage over budding from Nursery Stock, as most nurserymen do.

These trees were not raised for speculation, or for the trade, but for a special purpose. But different arrangements have been made, and this valuable selection is offered for sale at moderate prices. A better show of trees, and a finer and more choice variety of fruit, cannot be found anywhere.
