The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, April 10, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

To Our Readers.

For the information of our friends and the public generally, we publish the following from the Code of Public General Laws:

Art. 83. Sec. 8th. In any case in which notice by publication in a newspaper is required to be made by any sheriff, coroner, elisor, constable or other officer, the defendant shall have the right to select the newspaper in which such notice shall be published, and upon his refusal or neglect so to do, the officer shall make publication in the newspaper making the lowest charge for the advertisement.

The law, as a general thing, receives no attention from the officers of the county.

GENERAL VICKERS was called from his seat in the Senate, on Monday last, by the illness of Mrs. Vickers, and as Congress will adjourn in a few days, will not, we presume, return the present session. The General, notwithstanding his arduous duties, is looking well. Senator Vickers has carried to the Senate the same indomitable energy which characterized his practice at the bar. Though scarcely twelve months in his seat, he has discussed, all the leading measures before the Senate, and made himself many friends throughout the country.

Rail-road Matters.

In referring to the contract about to be made with Mr. Mahony, in our last issue, we stated:

Provided the graduation be confined to the section from Massey's to Kennedyville, and on that part of section three from Kennedyville to Parrott's, until the road shall be completed down to Kennedyville.

We should have said until the graduation shall be completed from Massey's to Kennedyville. The contract referred to last week, has, we learn, been signed by both contracting parties; the work to be commenced on the 15th of April.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT.—Thursday afternoon, upon the arrival of the Middletown stage at our post office, Hopewell Horsey, second son of Mrs. J. Leeds Barroll, aged about nine years, climbed up behind and when the stage started, by some means, his foot caught in the wheel, and his left leg was dislocated at the knee: the ligaments are badly broken and flesh torn, producing an ugly wound. He was attended by Drs. Meeteer, Perkins and Houston. The bones, we learn, are not broken.

ROBBERY.—The meat house of Mr. William H. Stewart, living near Chestertown, was entered on Thursday of last week, and fourteen pieces of meat taken, Mr. Stewart thinks probably more. Two negroes, named Tilghman and Mack, have been arrested; meat, which Mr. S. believes to be his, having been traced to their possession.

An attempt was made the same night to force Mr. J. R. Gray's meat house.

These robberies are becoming almost weekly affairs in our county.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—The old military organization, formerly Reed Rifles, was fully organized on Tuesday last. The following officers were elected:

Captain—E. F. Perkins.
First Lieutenant—C. A. A. Stanley.
Second—Wm. A. Vickers.
Treasurer—J. K. Aldridge.
Secretary—H. W. Vickers.

APPOINTMENT OF TAX COLLECTORS.—The County Commissioners, on Tuesday last, made the following appointments of Collectors of Tax; also, Standard Keeper:

First District—E. E. Miller.
Second—Jacob Sutton.
Third—Thomas H. Kennard.
Fourth—Charles H. Baker.
Fifth—Arthur Wheatley.
Standard Keeper—James A. Russell.

EARLY VEGETABLES.—The steamship Maryland, Captain Johnson, which arrived at a late hour on Monday night from Charleston, had on board eight crates of green peas, the first of the season.—Sun of Wednesday.

A Singular Case.

A somewhat singular case, and one which has caused considerable comment among our people, came to light on Sunday. Mr. Senica Sinickson from Mount Holly, New Jersey, came to this county a few weeks ago, and with his brother in-law, Mr. D. L. Knight, late of the Confederate army, purchased a farm a few miles from this town. All moved along quietly until a few days ago when Miss Mary A. Pancost, of the same town and State, followed Sinickson, claiming that he had been her ruin and had with him her child, which she came to re-claim.—She went to Snickson's house after the child, as she alleges, when the former forbade her entrance. Determined not to give up without a struggle, she loitered around the house in the hope of exciting the sympathies of the destroyer of her character. But to no effect. Sinickson still refused her admission. This was on Saturday afternoon last. She remained there all night, sleeping on the door step with nothing but her wearing apparel to shield her from the cold winds which blew on that night. On Sunday morning Sinickson came to to town and lodged complaint against her before Esquire Goldsborough, who issued a summons for her arrest. Constable Stroughn went out and in few minutes returned with the prisoner. That officer informs us that when he reached Sinickson's house Miss Pancost was lying on the steps with a buffalo robe spread over her. Her hair was much dishevelled and her clothing muddy and torn. When he made his business know she seemed willing to accompany him Sinickson then came out and suggested to her that she had better fix up her hair and clothes, but she declined, stating to the officer, that her disfigured state was caused by Sinickson, who that morning had dragged her around the yard by the hair, and she desired the people of the town to see how he had treated her. In the magistrates office she gave a lengthy account of her troubles. Esquire Goldsborough turned her over to the protection of the Sheriff. In the meantime a summons was issued for Sinickson for maltreatment. The case was heard yesterday, and resulted in the discharge of Miss Pancost and the holding of Sinickson in the sum of $500 to answer to the Grand Jury.—Centreville Observer.

Unmarried and Married.

During the session of this Legislature, a Dr. Bailey, formerly of Wilmington, but for some time a resident of Fort Warren, applied for a divorce from his wife, who was considerably younger than himself, because he thought she smiled too sweetly on some of his brother officers. A divorce was granted. Mrs. Bailey, on learning the fact, hastened to Dover and laid her side of the story before the Legislature, when a bill was introduced repealing the act, making Dr. Bailey and wife both unmarried and married again the same month.—Clayton Herald.

Man Shot.

On Thursday night week, the family of Charles P. Craig, Esq., in Trappe District, was aroused by a negro man named Alexander Green, who had entered the house through a window in the second story over the piazza. On the alarm being given by Mr. Craig's daughter, whom he awoke in entering the window, the negro fled down stairs and out into the yard, pursued by Mr. Craig's sons, one of whom fired a gun at him, several shot taking effect in the thief's posteriors. It is a mercy that the villian was not instantly killed, as he deserved to be. The next day Dr. Chaplain was called in and dressed his wounds. He found that he had been hit by six or eight buck-shot, but that the wound was not dangerous. Green has since been lodged in jail and is now under the treatment of Dr. Anderson. It is said this is the fourth house that he has entered at night for the purpose of pilfering.—Easton Star.

In addition he shall also make oath to the Clerk of the rate of rent or annual value of the house or place at or in which the business to be authorized by the License may be done or if intended to be done. If the said rent or annual value does not exceed $100 the rate is 25 50

The License in all cases is $50.00.

The oath required to be made by applicants for Traders' License, and License to sell spirituous liquor in quantities not less than a pint, may be made before a Justice of the Peace and forwarded to and filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, to whom all applications for License must be made.

Any person, or company of stage players, ventriloquists, slight-of-hand performers, rope-dancers, tumblers, and wire-dancers shall, previously to exhibiting or performing for a reward in any county in this State, pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for such county thirty dollars for one year, or one dollar for each exhibition, at his or their option.

Every person or company of circus riders or equestrian performers, who shall exhibit for a reward in any county in this State, shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for such county, the sum of thirty dollars for a license therefor for one year.

Every person or company who shall exhibit for a reward any animal or animals, or natural or artificial curiosities of any kind, (except models of useful inventions,) shall pay to the said Clerk the sum of fifteen dollars for a License therefor for one year.

Each license shall contain a list of the personal performers, or animals, or other articles or things to be exhibited.

The owner or keeper of every stallion or jack shall, before being permitted to stand or station such animals, pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of some one of the counties in this State the highest sum which he intends to ask or receive for the season of one mare; and the receipt of the said Clerk, with the seal of his Court attached thereto for said sum, shall be the License for stationing or standing such stallion or jack for one year from the date thereof: Provided, that in no case shall the sum directed to be paid by this section for such license be less than ten dollars; and that every stallion or jack upon which the said tax is paid, shall be exempt from all other State tax.

Any owner or keeper stationing or standing any stallion or jack without a license, shall forfeit and pay twice the sum authorized and required to be paid in the last preceding section, one-half to the State and the other half to the informer.

To My Friends and the Public.

FEARING that I may not long be able to undergo the arduous duties of my profession, I have this day associated with me DR. J. A. PERKINS.

From my knowledge of Dr. Perkins, I without hesitation, recommend him to my patients. If any one should object to the services of either, they will so state when sending, that anything unpleasant may be avoided. The one preferred will give all or most attention. Consultations will be held without the consultation fee. Our charges will correspond with those who practice around us. We herewith offer our services and pledge our best efforts to discharge our duty.
