our said County, under the Custody of you our said Sheriff, at the suit of a certain Anthony Manning's Lessee, of a Plea of Trespass and Ejectment, which said Plea as it is said, still depends before you our said Justices undetermined, and We being willing for divers causes, that the Plea aforesaid undetermined as aforesaid, should be heard, and determined before the Judges of our General Court, therefore We command you that you have the Body of the said Joseph Trippe, by whatsoever Name, or Names he may be called in the Plea aforesaid, together with the Cause of his Caption, and detention, and all things thereunto relating before the Judges of our General Court, to be held for the Eastern Shore Shore of this State, in Talbot County the second Tuesday of April next; that our said Judges of our said General Court, may further Proceed therein as to Justice Appertains, and ofsoever — Hereof fail not at your Peril, and have you then and there this Writ. Witness the honorable Samuel Chase Esquire, one of Judge of our said Court the 18th day of September Anno Domini 1792 Issued the 28th day of October Anno Dominie 1792

Test James Earle Junr Clk.

Which being read, and heard, the same is by the Court allowed; And it is Ordered by the said Court, that the Cause of the Caption &c be accordingly transmitted before the Judges of the said General Court, as they prescribed thereunto &c

Test H Dickinson Clk.

Dorchester County, to wit, I hereby certify all persons whom it doth, or may concern that the transcript and proceedings within described were faithfully and exactly copied from the Records and Proceedings of Dorchester County Court, remaining in my Office

In Testimony Whereof I have set my Hand, and affix the Seal of my Office this 20th day of April 1793

H Dickinson Clk. Dor. County

And now comes well the said Plaintiff by his Attorney aforesaid as the said Defendant by his Attorney aforesaid and said Defendant prays leave of the Court here to imparle until the next Court, and to him it is granted the same day is given to the said Plaintiff, then &c At which said next Court, to wit, the second Tuesday of April Anno Domini 1794 come again into Court the Parties aforesaid, by their Attorneys aforesaid, and the said Defendant defends the force &c And prays leave of the Court here to further imparle until the next Court, and to him it is granted the day is given to the said Plaintiff, then &c At which said next Court to wit the second Tuesday of September Anno Dominie 1794 come again into Court here, the Parties aforesaid, by their Attorneys aforesaid and the said Defendant defends &c and prays leave of the Court here, to imparle, until the second Tuesday of April next, and to him it is granted the same day is given to the said Plaintiff, then &c At which said second Tuesday of April Anno Dominie 1795 come again into Court here, the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid and by consent of the said Parties and by Order of the Court here, the whole matter in variance between the Parties aforesaid is referred to John Henry & William Vans Murray Esquires, and in case they disagree, they are empowered to choose a third Person, and that said Arbitrators have power to examine Evidences upon Oath &c And the Arbitrators, or any two of them, when the whole matter concerning the Premises, between the Parties aforesaid, being fairly stated have their Award in Writing under their Hands and Seals before the said Court with all convenient speed, that Judgment of the said Court may be entered according to such Award: there upon day is given as well to the said Parties until the second Tuesday of September next. At which said second Tuesday of September next, to wit Anno Dominie 1795 came again the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid, and the Arbitrators aforesaid have not made return of their Award, thereupon further day is given to the said Parties until the second Tuesday of April Anno Dominie 1796 came again into Court the Parties &c At which said second Tuesday of April Anno Dominie 1796 came again into Court the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid and the aforesaid Arbitrators not having made return of their Award. Thereupon further process &c is continued until the second Tuesday of September next — At which said second Tuesday of September Anno Dominie 1796 come again into Court here, the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid and the Arbitrators aforesaid not having made return of their Award further process &c is continued until the second Tuesday of April next — At which said second Tuesday of April Anno Dominie 1797 come again into the Court here the Parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid And the Arbitrators return their Award to the Court here, in the following Words to wit, A Cause of Ejectment, now depending in the General Court, for the Eastern Shore of the State of Maryland, between Anthony Manning Plaintiff and Joseph Trippe for Part of Bonwells Expectable Lott being by Order of the said General Court, and the Consent of the Parties, & their Counsel, referred to William Vans Murray, and John Henry Now we the same William Vans Murray, in pursuance of the said Reference, having heard the Parties, and examined and considered the Matter to us referred to determine of and concerning the Premises, in manner following &c. We for which this Ejectment was brought, was Originally part of a Tract of Land, called Johns Delight. It Appears that the Tract called Johns Delight was granted on the thirteenth day of August 1682, to John Finch for ten hundred Acres. This said John Finch was also owner of another Tract of Land called Finch Range, contiguous to Johns Delight and granted to him by Patent the 16th day of May 1687 for 500 acres