The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, April 17, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Court.—The April Term of the Circuit Court for this County begins on Monday next. If the civil cases on the trial docket are all tried, the term will be longer than usual.

M. E. Church, South.—We are requested to state that Rev. J. J. Edwards will preach in Queen street M. P. Chapel, in this town, to-morrow (Sabbath) afternoon, at 3½ o'clock.

Jos. McIntyre, the present deputy, as Collector, and Samuel A. Graham, as Assessor of Internal Revenue for this District, have been nominated to the Senate and will doubtless be confirmed.

Amputation.—The physicians attending Hopewell Barroll have found it necessary to amputate his leg above the knee. The operation was successfully performed several days ago, and his condition has been more favorable since.

Arrival of Ice.—A large sea schooner, loaded with ice, arrived here on Friday evening, 9th inst., consigned to Perkins—the proprietor of the Rising Sun Saloon—who has been supplying our citizens for some years past with that very desirable and almost necessary summer article. The ice is in very large blocks, perfectly clear and pure; and the quantity—about two hundred tons—sufficient to allay any fears of a scarcity during the hot season.

Queen Anne's Rail-road.—The Centreville Observer, of Tuesday last, says:

The Directors of the Queen Anne's and Kent Railroad Company met in Centreville on Thursday, and determined to continue the road from Carville's Corner to Centreville. We understand that the Directors assert that if the subscribers to the stock are prompt in paying their subscriptions the road will be in use by the 1st of August next.

It is gratifying to see that our friends of Queen Anne's are actuated by a desire to give their road the benefit of connection with their County Town; thereby mutually benefitting the road and the town, as also the county at large.

Library and Reading Room.—The surviving members of the Reading Room Club, of this town, generously donated their furniture, stove, lamps, &c., to the Young Men's Christian Association, who have gratefully accepted the gift, and will, we learn, at once take steps for the formation of a library and reading room, to be open at all hours of the day and evening. The Association some time ago, with the view of raising a fund for this purpose, engaged a lecture by Hon. J. Morrison Harris; but it was only moderately patronized, and barely met expenses. Should not our citizens who have the welfare of young men at heart, lend a helping hand in aid of this meritorious enterprize? We hope steps will soon be taken towards soliciting subscriptions to the library fund: donations of books would doubtless also be very acceptable.

The Kent Building Association.—The subscriptions to this Association now number 399 shares; additions are being made every day, and members increasing their original subscriptions The first loan will be offered on Saturday, the 24th inst. The interest in this means of investment is increasing, and attracting the attention of some of our most substantial citizens. For men of moderate means, it will commend itself to the judgment of any one who will candidly examine it. Read the following from the Towsontown Journal:

The Value of Building Associations.—From a report in the York (Pa.) True Democrat, of the 30th ult., we learn that since the first of January 1867, the time of the first establishment of a building association in that city, (since which time seven have been organized,) combined they have loaned their various members $100,665, and the accumulated profits have been $29,265. It may be safe to say that nearly all the $100,000 has been used for the purpose of building houses, &c. When we reflect that two-thirds of this amount is doubtless furnished by the laboring class of the community, of what inestimable value does a building association appear.

Improvements.—The spirit of improvement, we are pleased to see, still seems to be abroad in Chestertown. Since our last notice, Mr. Geo. H. Bennett has greatly improved his residence by remodeling and painting the front; and his neighbor and partner in business—Mr. John Fiddis—no doubt stimulated thereto by his good example, is having improvements put upon his property. Mr. James Mirch has just completed and occupied his new house on Cannon street. We notice a large space left next the street, reserved, we presume, as the site for a large main building at some future day. Capt. Wm. D. Burchinal, we also notice, is still engaged in improving—by the aid of the carpenter and painter—his handsome residence and grounds on the corner of Bridge and Queen streets. Capt. John Russell has also the frame up for his new two-story dwelling, on the old site, High street near the corner of Water. Mr. A. A. Biscoe is engaged in plastering a new house—two-story, with good sized back building, very neat in appearance and nicely arranged for convenience and comfort—on Queen street, which will be occupied by parties from Baltimore as soon as finished. It gives us pleasure to chronicle these evidences of prosperity. May the good work still go on.

While on the subject of improvements and new buildings, we must regret the erection of one, which from its character and prominent position, is not consistent with the good taste usually displayed by the gentleman who had it built. We allude to the omnibus stable on the corner of Cross and Cannon streets. The old-fogy notions which encumbered some of the best building sites in the town with horse stables, has been a serious disadvantage to its appearance: and here we have the old blunder repeated under certainly some objectionable circumstances. One of the best building lots and the value of several, on one of the most available streets of the town, have been materially injured; and its proximity to the Methodist Protestant Church must be more or less an annoyance to the congregation worshipping there.

We hope to avoid the error of fault-finding in this matter, but we really believe the gentleman did not think of these objections; and it may not be too late to remedy the mistake, as the rear of the lot will answer all his purposes quite as well.

—TO—

MERCHANTS, TRADERS, AND OTHERS.

ALL PERSONS AND BODIES,

Corporate or politic, in Kent county, who are or shall be doing any act or thing, or shall be in the occupation of any house or place for any purpose for which a License is made necessary by the laws of Maryland, are hereby warned to obtain a License or renew the same, on or before the under the penalties prescribed by said laws for the infraction thereof.

Those interested are notified of the following requirements of the License Laws passed by the General Assembly of Maryland.

The rates required for Traders' Licenses are as follows:

If the amount of goods on hand at the principal season of sale, or expected to be kept on hand, does not exceed one thousand dollars, the price of License is $12 50

If over	$1,000	and not over	$1,500	15 50

"	30,000	"	40,000	125 50
"	40,000	"		150 50

The applicant must either make oath, as heretofore, before the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County where he is engaged in business, of the amount of goods kept on hand at the principal season of sale, or the oath may be administered by a Justice of the Peace when the person wanting the License applies through an agent. If the latter course be adopted, the following form will be deemed a sufficient compliance with the act:

Kent County, to Wit:

On this——day of——1869, before the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland in and for said County, personally appeared ——, and declared that he intends to apply for a trader's license, under the laws of the State, to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent County, and made oath that the amount of the stock of goods generally kept on hand by him (or by the concern in which he is engaged, in case it is a partnership) at the principal season of sale, (or if the applicant has not previously engaged in such trade, that the amount of the stock of goods which he expects to keep, &c.,) does not (or will not) exceed $

Sworn before ——————,
Justice of the Peace.

If the oath be administered by a Justice of the Peace out of the county in which the application is made there must be attached the certificate of the Clerk of the county in which the Justice resides.

The rates of License of females vending millinery, &c., whose stock at any season of the year does not or will not exceed $500, is $6 50. If their stock does or shall exceed $500, the rates are the same as those of Traders' License and the same form of application must be observed.

The law requires all persons proposing to sell spirituous or fermented Liquors, or Lager Beer in quantities not less than a pint, to apply to the Clerk of the Circuit Court in person, or in making the oath before a Magistrate as above, state that he desires a license to sell spirituous or fermented liquors, as the case may be, and the amount of stock in trade, in the same manner as those applying for Traders' License. If the amount of stock does not or shall not exceed $500 the rate is

"	10000	" "	20000	" 140 50
"	20000	" "	30000	" 150 50

Persons applying for Ordinary licenes, in which spirituous or fermented Liquors or lager beer is sold in quanties less than a pint, must make application to the Clerk of the Circuit Court in the county in which they reside, and must also be recommended by two respectable freeholders of the immediate vicinty of the applicant, which may be made in the following form:

To the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Kent County:—We the undersigned, free-holders of Kent county, living in the immediate vicinity of —— ——, who is about about to apply to you for a license to keep an Ordinary at——, in said County, do hereby recommend him as a suitable person to obtain the license.

—— ——, 1869. —— ——,

The applicant must then make oath to the Clerk to the following effect: That he has bona fide, and without intending to evade the requirements of the Acts of Assembly of this State, regulating the issues of Licenses to ordinary keepers and traders, provided and expects to maintain six good beds with sufficient clothing therefor, and three rooms more than sufficient for private use of said applicant, and stabling and provender for five horses at least.

In addition he shall also make oath to the Clerk of the rate of rent or annual value of the house or place at or in which the business to be authorized by the License may be done or if intended to be done. If the said rent or annual value does not exceed

				$100 the rate is 25 50

Any person proposing to keep an oyster house, &c., or any place other than an ordinary, for the sale of spirituous or fermented Liquors, or Lager-beer in quantities less than a pint, shall apply to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County where he resides, and must be recommended by two respectable free-holders of his immediate vicinity as a suitable person to keep such a house. The License in all cases is $50.00.

The oath required to be made by applicants for Traders' License, and License to sell spirituous liquor in quantities not less than a pint, may be made before a Justice of the Peace and forwarded to and filed with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, to whom all applications for License must be made.

Any person, or company of stage players, ventriloquists, slight-of-hand performers, rope-dancers, tumblers, and wire-dancers shall, previously to exhibiting or performing for a reward in any county in this State, pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for such county thirty dollars for one year, or one dollar for each exhibition, at his or their option.

Every person or company of circus riders or equestrian performers, who shall exhibit for a reward in any county in this State, shall pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for such county, the sum of thirty dollars for a license therefor for one year.

Every person or company who shall exhibit for a reward any animal or animals, or natural or artificial curiosities of any kind, (except models of useful inventions,) shall pay to the said Clerk the sum of fifteen dollars for a License therefor for one year.

Each license shall contain a list of the personal performers, or animals, or other articles or things to be exhibited.

The owner or keeper of every stallion or jack shall, before being permitted to stand or station such animals, pay to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of some one of the counties in this State the highest sum which he intends to ask or receive for the season of one mare: and the receipt of the said Clerk, with the seal of his Court attached thereto for said sum, shall be the License for stationing or standing such stallion or jack for one year from the date thereof; Provided, that in no case shall the sum directed to be paid by this section for such license be less than ten dollars; and that every stallion or jack upon which the said tax is paid, shall be exempt from all other State tax.

Any owner or keeper stationing or standing any stallion or jack without a license, shall forfeit and pay twice the sum authorized and required to be paid in the last preceding section, one-half to the State and the other half to the informer.

JOSEPH E. GILPIN.
Sheriff of Kent County.
