State vs. Matilda Wilson. Indictment for the murder of her step-son by starvation and beating. Hynson & Vickers for the defence. Verdict—Guilty of murder in the second degree.

Murder Trial.—Since the conviction of the Cosden murderers, in 1851, up to the present time, we believe, the trial of Martha Wilson has been the first murder case tried in our Court, where the crime was committed in our county. Martha has been convicted of murder in the second degree. She, in connection with her husband, (negroes) are charged with murdering by a system of beating, ill-using and starving, the son of Jim Wilson the husband, a boy about eleven years of age

From the testimony of Dr. Whaland, who made the post mortem examination at the Coroner's inquest, it appears that the boy was found with a fractured skull, the skin broke on both legs below the knees and on the wrists, as though it had been done by friction, back filled with old scars, and in such an emaciated condition as must necessarily lead to the conclusion that the boy was starved, unless he had some organic disease. A brother of the murdered boy, an intelligent colored child of about nine years of age, testified that his step mother often whipped the boy, and gave him nothing to eat; and once, the day before his death, struck him with a stick of fire wood. Other witnesses testified that there were no indications nor had they heard of any complaint of organic disease in the boy.

The trial of the man is, at the time we go to press, in progress.

An uncommon scene was witnessed in the Court room at the rendition of the verdict. While the jury were on one side of the room waiting for the prisoner, to deliver their verdict, a jury was being empanneled in the other murder case on the opposite side.

Store Robbed.—Miss Annie Earle's store on Dover street was entered and robbed of a quantity of goods on Tuesday night. The thief entered by means of a key and after taking what he chose again locked it. She has missed over forty dollars worth of goods and there may be others not yet missed. No clue has been obtained to the theft.—Easton Journal of Thursday last.

The American Union, published at Denton, says the Easton Star, denies the truth of the rumor we published a few weeks ago, "that a woman in Caroline county had been indicted as a witch." In contradicting the report, the Union pays a high tribute to the moral worth, enterprise and intelligence of the people of Caroline, all of which we heartily endorse. We published the report as we heard it, and had no intention thereby of doing injury to the good people of Caroline. We make the correction with great pleasure. The following is the Union's account of the matter, which gave rise to the report:

The facts in the case are briefly these:

In the lower part of this county resides a middle-aged white woman, formerly from Pennsylvania, who professes to be able to prognosticate future events. As a natural consequence a great many persons seek her abode out of mere curiosity, whilst others go there to while away a tedious hour. Others still resort thither to carry on their carousals, with no respect whatever for the day or hour while thus engaged. The sabbath has been frequently desecrated in this manner, and a knowledge of this fact becoming known to the grand jury, that body presented her to the court for keeping a disorderly house. The word witchcraft was no where mentioned in the presentment, and the only object the grand jury had in view was to abate the nuisance of the Sunday carousals. This woman has only been a resident of this county about two years.

This is the sum and substance of this wonderful story.

The Odd-Fellow's Hall Dedication at Church Hill.

Yesterday says the Centreville Observer of Tuesday last, will long be remembered by the good people of Church Hill, it being the occasion of the dedication of the new Odd-Fellows' Hall at that place.—Early in the morning persons from the different entrances of the town commenced pouring in and at 10 o'clock, the hour for the dedication a large assembly were present. The new Hall was dedicated by David H. Crane, Deputy Grand Master, assisted by Wm. W. Busteed, Deputy Grand Marshall; Rev. Mr. Gardner, Deputy Grand Chaplain; Mr. Johns, Herald of the East; W. E. Temple, Herald of the West; Jas. B. Palmer, Herald of the North; and Jas. W. Thompson, Herald of the South. The ceremony was an interesting one, and seemed to be enjoyed by the audience as well as the members present.

After the dedication, the line (composed of members of St. Tammany Lodge" of Centreville, "Richland Lodge" of Halltown, "Kent Lodge" of Galena, and "Unity Lodge" of Church Hill,) was formed, and they proceeded to the old camp meeting woods near town, where a stage and all necessary arrangements for a day's enjoyment had been prepard. After singing by the lodges, and music by the Band, (Chestertown) Mr. John B. Brown was introduced and delivered a fine oration. Dinner was then announced, and the audience repaired to tables spread as only Church Hill ladies can do it. After dinner Mr. John T. Hand was introduced and entertained the audience for some minutes with a well prepared oration. An election for a Queen of Love and Beauty followed. A number of ladies were nominated, but the voting seemed dull. The successful one was Miss Annie Russell, of Church Hill, who received 290 votes. At 6½ o'clock, and after supper, the Queen was crowned, Dr. Stiles Kennedy, of Halltown, delivering the oration, after which the audience was dismissed, after having spent a very pleasant day. Long live Unity.

Sylvan's Veterinary Liniment.

AFTER innumerable experiments, we have succeeded in discovering to almost a certainty the Remedy for Rheumatism, Pains in the Side, Back, Breast, in the Spine, between or about the Shoulders, Face, pain and soreness through the Bowels, numbness and pain in the Limbs, Neuralgia, Stiffness of the Neck, Sprains, Felons, Cuts, Bruises, Sore Throat, Swellings of any kind, Mosquito Bites, Stings of Bees and other Insects, &c., &c.

It is the best remedy yet discovered for the relief and cure of old and fresh Cuts or Sores, Galls, Sprains, Swellings, Bruises, and all injuries to the Horse.

CHESTERTOWN, Maryland.

After a careful and thorough experiment in the use of Roberts' Embrocation, Hunt's and Tobias' Liniments, Judson's Subduing and Sylvan's Veterinary Liniment upon man and beast, I find for reducing Inflammation, healing Cuts and Gails, for instant and permanent relief in Neuralgia and Rheumatic pains, Sylvan's Veterinary Liniment is superior to all Liniments extant for either man or beast, It gives me great pleasure to testify to its unequaled healing properties. I shall never be without it, and no horseman, who values a good horse, will ever be imposed upon by worthless trash, after having used your Liniment, but will always be found with a supply on hand of Sylvan's Veterinary Liniment. W. J. VANNORT.

KENT COUNTY, Maryland.

Having been suffering for a long time with a severe sprained back, and after repeated trials of several highly recommended Liniments with no good results attending their use, accidentally I heard of your Liniment. I was induced to try your so celebrated Veterinary Liniment, and must confess, that before I had used one small bottle, I found the most radical benefit resulting therefrom, and have no hesitancy in pronouncing it to be the best Liniment I ever used, and shall never be without it. Many of my friends coincide with me in its praise. MRS. JOHN T. DODD.
