The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, July 31, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Steamers.—Chester river is well accommodated with steam power this season. Besides the three boats of the Chester River Company, there are three tugs making daily trips out of the river.

Religious.—By Divine permission the Rt. Rev. Henry C. Lay, Bishop of this Diocese (Easton) will visit Queen Anne's county again, on Saturday, August 7th, for the special purpose of holding service in St. Luke's Church, at Church Hill, on Sunday morning, at half-past ten o'clock, August 8th.

The Eclipse.—On Saturday next, the 7th of August, there will be an eclipse of the sun, commencing a little after five o'clock, P. M. About ten-twelfths of the sun's disk will be covered. In portions of the United States the eclipse will be total, and this will be the last total eclipse during this century

U. S. Internal Revenue.—The collector of United States internal revenue gives notice that he will be in Chestertown on Tues[illegible], Wednesday, and Thursday, the 17th, 18th, and 19th of August, for the collection of duties, incomes, &c.

We give this notice for the benefit of our readers, the United States being unable or unwilling to pay therefor.

Kent Railroad.—We learn that at the meeting of the Board of Directors of this road, at Kennedyville, on Saturday last, a contract was made with the Messrs. Abbott, of Baltimore, for sufficient iron to lay the track from Massey's to Kennedyville—the same to be delivered in about two weeks.

There seems to be but little doubt that the locomotive will reach Kennedyville by the first of October.

Camp Meetings.—The camp meeting of Chestertown and Still Pond Stations of the Methodist Episcopal Church, commenced in Baker's woods yesterday. We learn that there are about eighty tents pitched, and that the encampment in its general features will be superior to the meetings heretofore held at this place. The Rev. Henry Slicer, of Baltimore, is expected to occupy the pulpit on Sunday morning.

The camp meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will commence near Chesterville, on Friday, the 6th of August, Thirty sites for tents were selected last Saturday, and there is a prospect of forty more before its commencement. URIEVILLE
GRIST AND SAW MILLS.

THE undersigned, having rented the above well-known Mills, takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally that he is now prepared to accommodate them in Grinding and Sawing, having at both Mills thoroughly competent and reliable men. The Mills are in excellent condition for work, and all who favor him with their patronage may rely upon full justice in every respect, being done them, and as good a turn-out for grist as can be had at any Mill in the county. By giving his entire personal attention, and a determination to leave nothing undone to give satisfaction to his customers, he hopes to receive a liberal patronage.

H. M. ROLLISON,
May 29, 1869—6m. Urieville Mills.

TO THE PUBLIC!

WE have this day, May 25th, 1869, completed extensive repairs on the MILL, which enable us to grind more than ten bushels of good meal in one hour, and more than eight bushels of wheat. If any one doubts it, I invite him to call, and I promise to convince him, we can accommodate all that may find it convenient to send, in the best possible manner. We have also repaired the mill for grinding Plaster, and Corn in the car, etc.

N. B. I have been compelled to expend quite a large amount of money in the repaires or incur great loss, and cause the public much inconvenience; I would therefore take it as a great favour for any one owing me to call and pay their indebtedness, or any part of it. I have called where I thought it most likely to succeed and failed, and am discouraged from further attempts. This may find some prepared whom I least suspect. If so, I shall be spared the mortification of selling paper or borrowing money.

Most respectfully,
THOS. H. WHALAND.
