William S. Bond, use of Thomas Sacherman jun.
against
James Millson

Be it remembered that on the fifteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven, a certain James Millson by John Goldsborough jun. Esquire his Attorney, sued out of our Eastern Shore General Court, the State of Maryland's Writ of Habeas Corpus in the words and figures following, to wit. — The State of Maryland, To the Chief Justice, and his Associates, Justices of Talbot County Court, and to the Sheriff of Talbot County, Greeting: Whereas a certain James Millson, the Younger, late of Talbot County, is detained in the prison of our said County, under the Custody of you our said Sheriff, at the suit of a certain William S. Bond of a plea of Attachment in Privilege in Case, which said plea as it is said, state depends before you our said Justices undetermined as aforesaid; and we being willing for divers causes that the said plea and undetermined as aforesaid should be heard and determined before the Judges of our General Court: We therefore Command you that you have the Body of the said James Millson the younger, by whatsoever name or names he may be called in the said plea, together with the cause of his Caption and detention and all things thereunto relating before the Judges of our General Court, to be held for the Eastern Shore of this State at Easton in Talbot County, the second Tuesday of April next, that the Judges of our said General Court may further proceed therein as to Justice appertains and so forth. — Hereof fail not at your Peril, and have you then and there this Writ. — Witness the Honorable Robert Goldsborough Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court the 12th day of September 1797. — Signed the 15th day of November 1797. — James Earle Junr. Clerk.

And now here, at this day, to wit, the second Tuesday of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, being the day for the return of the aforegoing Writ of Habeas Corpus, the Chief Justice and Associate Justices of Talbot County Court, and the Sheriff of the said County in obedience to the Command contained in the said Writ, to wit, the said Sheriff now here hath the body of the said James Millson, the younger, and the said Chief Justice and Associate Justices certify and transmit to this Court here, a Record of the Proceedings before the said County Court, containing the cause of the Caption and detention of the said James Millson, the Younger, and all things thereunto relating; And which said Record of Proceedings is in form following, to wit. —

Among the Records and proceedings of Talbot County it is enrolled as follows, to wit. — Talbot County, to wit, At a County Court of the State of Maryland, held for Talbot County aforesaid at Easton in the said County on the second Monday in November in the year seventeen hundred and ninety seven, it being the thirteenth day of the same Month, by the Justices of the same County Court, and other Officers duly Commissioned and Qualified to hold the same, of whom were present — John Roberts & Wm. Hayward Esquires Associate Justices

Daniel P. Cox Esquire Sheriff. Wm. S. Bond, Clerk.

James Millson Junr. by John Goldsborough Junr. his Attorney comes into Court here, and produceth to the Court here, a Writ of Habeas Corpus of the State of Maryland, directed to the Chief Justice and his Associates and Sheriff here, in the following words and figures, to wit. — The State of Maryland; To the Chief Justice and his Associates, Justices of Talbot County Court, and to the Sheriff of Talbot County, Greeting: Whereas a certain James Millson, the Younger, late of Talbot County, is detained in the prison of the said County, under the Custody of you our said Sheriff, at the suit of a certain William S. Bond of a plea of Attachment in privilege in Case, which said plea, as it is said, state depends before you our said Justices, undetermined as aforesaid, and we being willing for divers causes that the plea and undetermined as aforesaid, should be heard and determined before the Judges of our General Court: We therefore Command you, that you have the body of the said James Millson the younger, by whatsoever name or names he may be called in the plea aforesaid, together with the cause of his Caption and detention, and all things thereunto relating, before the Judges of our General Court, to be held for the Eastern Shore of this State at Easton in Talbot County, the second Tuesday of April next, that the Judges of our said General Court may further proceed therein, as to Justice appertains and so forth. — Hereof fail not at your Peril, and have you then and there this Writ. — Witness the Honorable Robert Goldsborough Esquire Chief Judge of our said Court the 12th day of September 1797. — Signed the 15th day of November 1797. — James Earle Junr. Clerk.

The Record and proceedings in our said Court, are as follows, to wit. —

William S. Bond
against
James Millson Junr.

Be it remembered that heretofore, to wit, on the seventh day of November 1797, William Stoddart Bond in his proper person sued out of our County Court here the State of Maryland's Writ of Attachment in privilege directed to the Sheriff of Talbot County in the words and figures following, to wit. — Talbot County, to wit. The State of Maryland, To the Sheriff of Talbot County Greeting: We command you that you take James Millson the younger late of Talbot County Merchant, if he shall be found in your Bailiwick, and him safe keep so that you have his body before the Justices of our County Court, to be held at Easton, on the second Monday of November Inst. to answer unto William Stoddart Bond Gentleman, Clerk of the said County Court here, according to the Liberty & privilege of such Clerk, and Officer ministers of the said Court for time out of mind used, and approved in the same, in a plea of Trespass upon the case &c. — Hereof fail not at your Peril and have you then and there this Writ. — Witness the Honorable Samuel Chapman Esquire Chief Justice of our said Court the 22nd day of May anno Domini 1797. — Signed the 7th day of November 1797. — Wm. Bond Clerk. — And the said William S. Bond in his proper person declares against the said James Millson Junr. in the plea aforesaid, as follows, to wit. — Talbot County, to wit. James Millson the younger, late of Talbot County Merchant, was attached to answer unto