The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, September 11, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Festival.—We are requested to call attention to the Festival to be held at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, near Rock Hall, next Thursday and Friday afternoon. The object is a laudable one, and we hope will be abundantly successful.

Ministerial Change.—Rev. Sylvanus Townsend, of this place, has been transferred to Queen Anne's Circuit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, to take the place of Mev Mr. Dulaney, who has been compelled, on account of serious affliction, to give up his charge.

Depot at Massey's.—We have been informed that the Delaware railroad Company are building a depot at Massey's Cross Roads, the frame of which is up; also, a large granary for storing grain.

We also learn that the contractor has commenced to lay the rails on the Kent road.

Excursion to Norfolk.—The splendid steamer Samuel J. Pentz will make an excursion from Georgetown to Norfolk, Va., on Thursday next, September 16th. The boat will touch at the Sassafras river landings, (except Turner's creek) Gale's wharf in Worton creek, [illegible] at Kent Island; she will leave Georgetown [illegible] o'clock, A M See posters

☞ We have to return thanks for several lots of superior fruit this season: from [illegible]rick Worrell a basket of most [illegible] peaches; from Capt. Thos. Skir[illegible] basket of very superior pears, from an old standard sixty years old; from Capt. R. S. Emory some splendid specimens of Bartlett and Duchess; from Mr. Daniel Crew fine specimens of Duchess, Cycle and Flemish Beauty varieties of pears.

Improvement on Queen Street.—Mr. A. A. Biscoe, carpenter, is erecting for Mr. Goocher a fair sized two-story frame dwelling, which when completed, will no doubt add considerably to the appearance of that rapidly improving neighborhood.

Davis & Bro. have just finished painting the exterior of the residence of Mr. Henry Lambert, on the corner of Queen and Bridge streets, greatly altering and improving its appearance.

The Democratic Conservative Nominations, for Queen Anne's County, are as follows:

For Sheriff—William E. Temple.
For County Commissioners—Nehemiah Bailey, Mordecai Price, William Tanner.
For House of Delegates—Joel Thomas, Edward Bryan.
For County Surveyor—Jas. W. Thompson.

Nominations for School Commissioners are left to the different districts.

Reception of the Harvard Crew at New York.

There was a meeting of New York gentlemen interested in boating matters, on Thursday, to make arrangements for the reception of the Harvard crew, who are expected to arrive on the 11th instant. Commodore Barry presided, and after some speeches from Alderman Roberts and others, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee of arrangements: General Aspinwall, of the Nassau Boat Club; Mr. Shea, of the Gulick Club; Mr. Edwards, of the Atalanta, and Mr. Amelung, of the Palisade Club. A committee of the oldest representatives of the clubs, comprising the following gentlemen, was appointed to receive the Harvards at lower quarantine: General Aspinwall, Mr. Amelung, Mr. Mason, Mr. Banks, Mr. Ogden, Mr. Washagen, Mr. Roberts and Mr. Fortimeyer. A banquet will be given, to which the most prominent citizens of New York will be invited, and every effort will be made to make the crew feel that their pluck in chall nging and rowing the Oxfords is appreciated.

Narrow Escape.—Rev. Wm. McK. Poisall, of the M. P. Church, who resides near this town, met with a narrow escape from a sudden death recently at a camp-meeting in Dorchester county. Mr. Poisall was going through the horse pound, and while passing near a vicious horse, he received a severe kick, the hoof of the horse striking him on the back of the neck, between the skull and the spinal vertebræ. He fell in an insensible condition, the physicians who were immediately summoned, pronouncing him dead. After the expiration of about ten minutes he showed signs of returning animation, and by the application of proper restoratives he recovered, without any permanent or [illegible] injury.—St. Michael's Comet.

Advertising.—The eccentricities of advertising are always an interesting study. [illegible] as we hear that one of the managers of New York has engaged a man to advertise his establishment by writing with chalk on the sidewalks—which may be considered a return to first principles—we have an instance of the value which advertising facilities have gained. The Post-Office of New York, having several applications for the use of the fence round the City Hall Park, while the Postoffice building, advertised for bids. There were over a dozen offers, ranging all the way from three hundred dollars for the privilege of posting bills on the fence for two years, to fifteen thousand dollars for the same right. The highest bid was accepted, and the lessee will lay out the [illegible] into lots and arrange a graduated scale of prices, according to location. Owners of fences and dead walls in general must not expect to be at once enriched by the lease of the bill-sticking privilege, for this fifteen thousand dollar triangle is an exceptional bit of fence, in the busiest place in the busiest city in the country. The amount of space covered by the contract is twelve hundred feet by ten feet high.—Boston Advertiser.

Grant Fishing.

Grant has lately exhibited more proficiency in fishing than in any of his other numerous accomplishments. Fishing requires perseverance, and that is one of Grant's strong points. He is just the man to fight it out on one fishing line all summer. His Excellency is represented as having been so ardent in the pursuit of fish as to have stood up nearly to his middle in water. It would have been pleasant to have looked at the head of the nation, just visible above the tide, at one end of a fishing-rod, struggling with another gudgeon at the other end. His friends ought to make him less venturous, or he may be caught some day by a snapping-turtle, who is no respecter of persons, and perhaps not fastidious in his tastes.—Balt. Statesman.

The Municipal Election at Wilmington, Del.

The Wilmington Gazette, extra, gives the following as the result of the municipal election in that city on Tuesday:

The unofficial returns show that the Democrats have elected three of the city candidates out of four. The vote foots up as follows:

Valentine, Republican, for mayor, 50 majority; Bright, Democrat, for President city council, 145; McCabe, Democrat, for city treasurer, 105; McCall, Democrat, for assessor, 101.

The Democrats elect eight councilmen, two in the first ward, two in the second ward, one in the third ward, two in the fourth ward, and one in the ninth ward.

The councilmen elected are Messrs. Bright, president, Dillon, Simmons, Quinn, Stilley, Finnegan, McManus, Elliott, Single, Hays, Pickles, McIntire, McCloskey, Walter, Foulk, Jones, Liechtenstein, Gallagher, Philips, Johnson and Febiger.

TO THE PUBLIC!

WE have this day, May 25th, 1869, completed extensive repairs on the MILL, which enable us to grind more than ten bushels of good meal in one hour, and more than eight bushels of wheat. If any one doubts it, I invite him to call, and I promise to convince him, we can accommodate all that may find it convenient to send, in the best possible manner. We have also repaired the mill for grinding Plaster, and Corn in the ear, etc.

N. B. I have been compelled to expend quite a large amount of money in the repaires or incur great loss, and cause the public much inconvenience; I would therefore take it as a great favour for any one owing me to call and pay their indebtedness, or any part of it. I have called where I thought it most likely to succeed and failed, and am discouraged from further attempts. This may find some prepared whom I least suspect. If so, I shall be spared the mortification of selling paper or borrowing money.

Most respectfully,
THOS. H. WHALAND.
