RUTH'S

Challenge Soluble Phosphate,

THE most active and durable FERTILIZER ever offered to the Farmer. This article is manufactured expressly to take the place of A. No. 1 Peruvian Guano, and will be found as active as Guano and much more durable in its effects. It is made upon the principle that the measure of our prosperity is the prosperity of the farmer, and every farmer who uses it may confidentially rely upon large Crops unless injured by providential acts. It is indeed the "Challenge" Fertilizer of the times and in order that it may always remain such we have engaged in its preparation the very best chemical skill in this country.

Give it a trial.

DURYEAS'

Satin Gloss Starch

HAS established a world-wide celebrity for being the Purest, Whitest, Strongest, and Most Glossy and Economical Starch known. Disinterested judges pronounce it the "Perfection of Starch."

The Messrs. Duryea have no occasion to personally assert the superiority of their goods. A discriminating public and the decision of the following scientific and disinterested judges establish it.

PRIZE MEDALS AWARDED

Duryeas' Starch and Maizena

For their "Perfection of Quality," at Grand Paris International Exposition, 1867.

Great London International Exposition, 1862.

Great Internat. Exposition, Hamburg, 1863.

Great Internat. Exposition, Cologne, 1865.

Also at States', Agricultural, American Institute and Maryland Institute Fairs.

Inferior Starch is sour, musty, or has a golden or yellow tinge, a color not desirable in one's linen. (It is absurd for the laundress to cleanse and bleach, and then discolor linen with impure yellow starch.)

Maizena

Is a pure flour, from the choicest Indian corn, and is used for all the purposes of Corn Starch and Arrowroot, to which it is superior. Put up in the same style of packets, and at same price, with directions for use.

For culinary purposes, call for Duryeas' Maizena. For the laundry, call for Duryeas' Satin Gloss Starch.

For sale by all grocers. Be sure you get our goods. Our name is on all our boxes.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

...en in a Ly[illegible]ing Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters

is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

Hoofland's German Tonic

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in cases where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These Remedies are the best

Blood Purifiers

ever known, and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no disease will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action, in the system.

Yours truly,

GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,

Eighth, below Coates street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The genuine have the signature of C. M. Jackson on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggists to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. These Remedies will be sent by express to any locality upon application to the Selected Poetry.

THE LITTLE GLEANER.

I am a little gatherer,
  A gleaner, if you please;
I pick the little golden heads
  That are not bound in sheaves.
I put them in my apron—so—
  They are a lovely sight,
And quite a little shock I'll have
  When I go home to-night.

The reapers are so kind, you know,
  And drop them as they go;
Indeed, they often pity me
  Because I pick so slow;
Yes, sir, my feet get very tired,
  And my hands are very sore,
But I don't mind, for mother's sick,
  And I must work the more.

This is the strangest world, sir,
  That I have ever seen;
So few have all the reaping,
  So many have to glean;
So few have all the wealth and ease,
  So many have the toil;
But then it must be right, I think,
  Else who would till the soil?

And surely God is good to all,
  For things are better than they seem;
He gives the farmer grains to sow,
  And gives me heads to glean;
Oh, sir, we ought to love Him well,
  Who is so good and right,
And mother says, in His own Heaven,
  He'll serve us all alike.

Well said, my pretty little maid,
  And happy shall we be,
If, when the stubble fields of earth
  Are gleaned by you and me,
The richer fields of heavenly life
  Shall by us both be seen,
And God shall say, "My children, come,
  Forever reap and glean."

How Poor Boys Reach the Top Round.

From the N. Y. Com. Advertiser.

There are 17,919 names who pay an income tax in this city—sixty-seven persons who pay tax on incomes of $100,000 or over. Most of these solid gentlemen are self-made men, who have come up from the lowest round of the ladder. The man who leads the list, A. T. Stewart, every body knows is an Irish emigrant, who commenced life with a capital of less than twenty-five cents; indeed, with few exceptions, most the parties in the list were scarce as well off as Mr. Stewart. Take Henry Keep: he boasts that he graduated from the poorhouse of Jefferson county. Jay Gould drove a herd of cattle from Delhi, Delaware county, when a lad, for fifty cents a day, in order to get money enough to reach the Hudson river. David Groesbeck, over thirty years ago, used to mend old shoes for his brother, who was a respectable shoemaker in Albany.

We all know the history of Jas. Gordon Bennett, Robert Bonner, poor boys full of talent and industry. Rufus Hatch, when a youngster, had an ambition to hold the reins of a pedler's wagon. E. D. Morgan commenced life with a quarter measure of molasses. It is scarce a dozen years since Henry Clews was an errand boy in one of the banking-houses down town. The brothers Seligman started out in life with a pedler's pack. David Dowes, in his younger days, retailed pork by the half pound and molasses by the gill. H. T. Helmbold was first cabin boy on the sloop Mary Jane, that navigated the Delaware river. We might go on through the list, and show that nearly every one of these solid men were the architects of their own fortunes. Young men, who are struggling for place and position, should remember that the individuals in the list above had to battle for life just as hard as they are doing. Let them take heart and never say die.

Honor and fame from no condition rise;
Act well your part—there all the honor lies.

MENZEL, in his new work on the Modern Signs of the Times, states that humanity was at its zenith in the fourteenth century, when it was controlled by Christianity and Germanic supremacy, but the conquest of Constantinople by the Turks at the end of the fifteenth century, and was followed by the renaissance which revived Paganism and Romanism; and these, he thinks, are now ruining the world.

[COMMUNICATED.]

To the People of Kent County.

The Editors and Publishers of the Kent News, in the last issue of their paper, seem to have become very much alarmed at the prospect of the defeat of some of their favorite candidates, in the Primary Meetings, which are to be held on Saturday, 25th inst., and are desirous that no persons shall be allowed to vote but the simon-pure Democratic Conservatives, as they estimate them. They appear to be horrified at the idea of a Republican offering a vote, and suppose an extreme case by way of illustration, which they know never has happened and never can occur, by way of sustaining their new-fangled theory of nominations. How long these Editors have been classed among Democratic Conservatives we cannot tell, and perhaps they would find it equally difficult to declare. But as they are converts, that fact does not give them the right to say whose votes shall be taken in the People's Primary Meetings. Two years ago, when the most important County officers were selected, a considerable number—it is believed three hundred—who had before that period acted with the Republican party, attended the Democratic and Conservative meetings and voted without objection: they voted for persons acceptable to the office of the Kent News, and no objection was then made or stated by these patriotic Editors. But, as the persons whom they desire to have nominated on Saturday may not all be supported by those who were Republicans and voted in the nominations of 1867, they have started a new theory; and the pleasant morsel, which they rolled under their tongue at the former time, is becoming unpalatable now.

There are various shades of opinion among the Democrats and Conservatives in regard to public matters, but they agree in substantials, and unite for the common good. They demand a restoration of the Union and a return to peace and harmony; they rally around the Constitution, and agree to defend it and promulgate its principles; they wish for Constitutional rule, and a constitutional currency of gold and silver; a reduction of taxes; the extension of commerce; the return of prosperity and reward of labor and industry. They know that the Government was founded by white men; that it is essentially a white man's government, and while they accept the emancipation and termination of slavery, and have a sympathy for the negro, they do not believe in the equality of the races, and are utterly opposed to negro suffrage and negro equality at the polls, on juries, in schools, churches and social intercourse.

While there were many Republicans who supported the Government and had their own opinions and views of secession and the war, they never dreamed that after the war was ended, they would be called upon to give equality to the negro and support the proposed fifteenth amendment. After the rebellion was suppressed they wished for a restoration of the Union upon the old Constitutional principles, and not upon the basis of an equality of the races.

If Republicans holding such [illegible] attend the Primary Meetings, they will have as much right to vote as any others; they will stand upon the same platform of reconstructing the Government, upon the basis that it is the Government of the white man and not of the negro, and they will support the nominees, as others who attend are expected to do.

How is the Democratic and Conservative party ever to secure the majority, if it is not by an accession of votes from those who have heretofore acted with the Republicans. Why was Mr. Seymour defeated for the Presidency? [illegible] simply because there were not a [illegible] number of Democrats and Conservatives to elect him. We shall be glad to find honest, industrious Republicans, of good standing, laying aside their prejudices, and allowing their love of their country and her institutions, to control them in the exercise of the elective franchise, and to induce them to unite with us in defence of our institutions, and the principles of our Government. Let all such attend the meetings, if they choose, and they shall be cordially received, let their [illegible] be cast for whom they may. [illegible] for us is against us. Distrust [illegible] friend—confidence has secured many. It is not the name of Democrat, Conservative or anything else, should divide us, but a common purpose and object that should unite us. Mr. Jefferson said—"We are all Democrats and all Federalists;" meaning that if we contended for the same thing, names should not estrange us. Little prejudices and [illegible] should never induce [illegible] what is due to our country [illegible]
