John Carradine, use of John Field against Cornelia Sewell Extrix of Clement

Be it remembered that on the sixteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven, Command was given to the Sheriff of Queen Anns County to take Cornelia Sewell, Executrix of the last will and Testament of Clement Sewell late of the said County, Decease, if she should be found in his Bailiwick, and him safe keep, so that he might have his body before the Judges of our General Court, to be held at Easton, in Talbot County, on the second Tuesday of September then next, to answer unto John Carradine, of a plea that she render unto him the sum of eight hundred pounds Current money, which from him she unjustly detains, and so forth — And that thereof he the said Sheriff should not fail at his peril, and have then and there that writ &c — At which said second Tuesday of September in the year four Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety seven (being the day for the return of the aforegoing writ) came into Court the said John Carradine by William B. Martin Esq. his Attorney, and the Sheriff of Queen Anns County, to whom the same writ was, in form aforesaid directed, likewise came and made return thereof to our said Court, thus endorsed, towit — "Cepi, Phil: C. Blake Shff. Q. Anns County" — And the said Cornelia Sewell being called, appeared in Court by Richard Hopkinson Earle Esquire her Attorney, and defended the force and injury when &c. and prayed leave of the Court to imparle untill the next Term, and she had it. The same day was given to the said John Carradine, then, &c —

At which said next Term, towit, the second Tuesday of April in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, came again into Court the parties aforesaid, by their Attorneys aforesaid, And the said John Carradine by his Attorney aforesaid for declaration against the said Cornelia Sewell in the plea aforesaid, in manner and form following, towit — Eastern Shore of Maryland, Queen Anns County, towit — Cornelia Sewell, Executrix of the last will and Testament of Clement Sewell, Decease, was summoned to answer unto John Carradine, of a plea that she render unto him the sum of eight hundred pounds Current money, which from him she unjustly detains, and so forth — And whereupon, the said John by William B. Martin his Attorney, saith, that whereas the said Clement in his lifetime, towit, on the thirtieth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty seven, at the County aforesaid, by his certain writing Obligatory, with his Seal sealed, and hereunto Court now brought, the date whereof is the day & year afo-acknowledged himself to be held and firmly bound unto the said John in the sum of eight hundred pounds Current money, to be paid to the said John when he the said Clement should be thereunto afterwards required — Yet the said Clement in his lifetime, and the said Cornelia (although often required) the aforesaid sum of money, or any part thereof to the same John have not kept (said), but the said Clement in his lifetime, do altogether refuse to pay the same, also the said Cornelia after the death of the said Clement doth not refuse to pay the same to the said John, to his ~~Judgment~~ Damage two thousand pounds Current money, and thereupon he brings suit &c — Wm. B. Martin for Plff. pledges &c. John Doe and Richard Roe.

Whereupon, it was ruled by the Court, at the prayer of the said John Carradine by his Attorney aforesaid, that the said Cornelia Sewell answer to the Declaration of John the said John Carradine in the plea aforesaid — And the said Cornelia Sewell Executrix as aforesaid by her Attorney aforesaid, further defended the force and injury when &c. and prayed leave of the Court to imparle untill the next Term, and she had it, the same day was given to the said John Carradine, then, &c — And now here, at this day, towit, the second Tuesday of September in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety eight, comes again into Court the parties aforesaid by their Attorneys aforesaid, and the said Cornelia Sewell Executrix as aforesaid by her Attorney aforesaid further defends the force and injury when &c. and says, that she cannot gainsay the action aforesaid of the said John Carradine so as aforesaid against her brought nor can she deny but that she unjustly detains from the said John Carradine the sum of eight hundred pounds Current money, in manner and form as he the said John Carradine above thereof against her hath complained — Therefore it is considered by the Court here that the said John Carradine recover against the said Cornelia Sewell, Executrix as aforesaid, as well the said sum of eight hundred pounds Current money his Debt aforesaid in form aforesaid acknowledged, as also the quantity of six hundred and three pounds of Tobacco for his Damages, which he hath sustained, as well by occasion of the detention of that Debt, as for his Costs and Charges by him about his suit in this behalf laid out and expended — Adjudged unto the said John Carradine by the Court here with his Assent — And the said Cornelia Sewell in mercy &c —
