The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, November 6, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

A CORRECTION.—In stating the time of Mr. William Stephens' horse "Mount" at the trial of speed last week at the Cattle Show, we gave his fastest heat at 2 44½—it should have been 2.41½.

LARGE POTATOE.—Mr. J. Morgan Beaston brought to our office, this week, a MONITOR potatoe weighing 1 lb. 5 ozs.—grown by Mr. Robert Comly, near Locust Grove. Four of the same weighed 4 lbs. 9 ounces.

REV. S. B. SOUTHERLAND, D D., President of the Maryland Annual Conference, is expected to arrive to-day on his official visit to the Churches in Kent Co. He will preach as follows: Waters' Chapel, Kennedyville, to-morrow, (7th inst.,) at 10½ o'clock, A. M.; and at Christ Church, Chestertown, at 7½ P M. On Sunday, 14th inst., at St. James', 10½ A. M., and Wesley Chapel in the evening.

STRENGTH OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY.—There are now in the United States navy four iron-clads in commission and twenty-nine more that can be ready for sea in two weeks. The number of sailing National vessels of all kinds attached to the navy is fifty.

OYSTERS FROM BALTIMORE IN CALIFORNIA.—The San Francisco Bulletin of the 23d ult. states that a car load of oysters, ten tons in amount, arrived in that city on the 21st from Baltimore. They were shipped in a car constructed for the purpose, and came through in eight days in excellent condition. The entire car load was disposed of within twenty-four hours after their arrival. The success of this experiment will, it is believed, result in the construction of more oyster cars and a regular overland bivalve trade.—Baltimore Sun

A REMARKABLE CASE.—The superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in Columbus, Ohio, gives the following interesting account of one his pupils, named William E. Moffier: "This pupil, in his misfortune, illustrates the intimate connection between hearing and seeing, in their origin. Last year, while a pupil at the Blind Asylum, he suddenly recovered his sight, with a simultaneous loss of hearing and power of speech. Accordingly, at the opening of his term, he was transferred to his institution, and has been in all respects a genuine deaf mute. Last Sunday he was attacked with severe neuralgic pain in the head and chest, resulting in perfect restoration of hearing and the loss of sight, without even the power of raising the eyelids. His faculty of speech had not returned to him, but he communicates by the manual alphabet.—He still suffers considerable pain."

A "Fashionable Wedding" in Philadelphia.

The Philadelphia papers record what they style a "fashionable wedding." It took place in that city on Wednesday evening, last week, at the Spring Garden Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride was the daughter of Bishop Simpson, and the bridegroom J. Riely Weaver, lately appointed to a consulship in Italy. Gen. Grant and family, together with many government officials, were present at the wedding. The Inquirer says:

The bride was the recipient of handsome presents, valued at many thousands of dollars, including a grand parlor organ, escretoire, silver tea sets, whole services of solid silver, some six dozen silver spoons and forks, table linen, silver pitchers and goblets, oyster tureens and salvers, coffee urns, cake and fruit knives, handsome Bibles, toilet sets, medicine chest, napkin rings, pearls, paintings, work basket, glass and silver ware of peculiar kind and construction, with many other articles, making in the aggregate over one hundred in number, and being a rich and rare collection. In addition to these, checks were drawn for sums of $100 on the Bank of North America by James Long, and $500 by John Evans, of Colorado, on the First National Bank of Denver. A $100 greenback was also presented by Mrs. Thomas Price, of Philadelphia.

THE STONEWALL DISASTER—Scenes and Incidents.—A telegram from Cario, Ill., to a St. Louis paper says:

"A most revolting termination of a struggle for life was when one victim stabbed and killed another, and was soon after drowned himself. A group of men in the water sought to save themselves by the aid of a floating bale of hay, which was too small to float them all. A savage contest arose for its possession, all struggling to obtain a lodgment upon it, when one, more desperate than the rest, was roused to demoniac passion, and drawing a knife, plunged it into a companion's body, and the lifeless form rolled over into the current, which was reddened by his blood. The act of fiendish impulse was speedily avenged, for the whole party are believed to have been drowned."

The St. Louis Republican gives the narrative of a woman, Anna Gerney, who escaped by means of a spar, and makes the following statement:

On arriving at the landing instead of finding her husband, the peanut vender, burned to a crisp or drowned, there he stood, hale and hearty, on the bank, without a wet thread on him. There also stood his father and mother, but all the children were drowned except one. She ascertained that her husband was one of the ten who cut the yawl loose and escaped to the shore. They went ashore with but ten people, when the yawl could safely hold from forty to fifty passengers. After they got ashore none of them offered to go back with the yawl and rescue their wives and relatives, much less their fellow passengers.

TO THE PUBLIC.

WE have this day, May 25th, 1869, completed extensive repairs on the MILL, which enable us to grind more than ten bushels of good meal in one hour, and more than eight bushels of wheat. If any one doubts it, I invite him to call, and I promise to convince him, we can accommodate all that may find it convenient to send, in the best possible manner. We have also repaired the mill for grinding Plaster, and Corn in the ear, etc.

N. B. I have been compelled to expend quite a large amount of money in the repaires or incur great loss, and cause the public much inconvenience; I would therefore take it as a great favour for any one owing me to call and pay their indebtedness, or any part of it. I have called where I thought it most likely to succeed and failed, and am discouraged from further attempts. This may find some prepared whom I least suspect. If so, I shall be spared the mortification of selling paper or borrowing money.
