The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, November 20, 1869.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SENTENCE OF PRICE.—J. Peterson Price convicted in Centreville, last week, for stealing Frank Wright's horse and buggy, has been sentenced to serve five years in the State penitentiary.

WE call attention to the advertisement of E. W. PURNELL, Galena, who in addition to a large and varied stock of goods, has introduced into his business that great desideratum a good and fashionable tailor. He is also agent for the Grover & Baker Sewing Machines. PURNELL seems to be a live merchant, and desires an examination of his stock.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The public Temperance meeting held by Resolute Lodge I. O. G. T. at the M. P. Church on Thursday night last was very largely attended, the gallery as well as the main floor of the audience room being filled. The Lodge assembled at their Hall at 6½ o'clock, and clothed in regalia, proceeded in procession to the Church. The exercises were opened by singing by the Order, and prayer by Rev. M. L. Hysore, after which able and eloquent addresses were delivered by Revs. G. W. Barton of Church Hill, and J. T. Murray, of this place.

TARGET PRACTICE.—On Thursday last the Reed Rifles, Co. G., 13th Reg. M. N. G., marched from their Armory about 9½ o'clock, A. M., and proceeded direct to Dr. Whaland's field, just beyond our town, for target practice. At one hundred yards from the target the Company Flag was planted, and the Company drawn up behind it. Col. John N. Denuing, Capt. Charles H. Wickes, and Mr. Samuel E. Sullivan acted as judges. Commencing on the right each fired once, and then the second and third time. The three best shots were made by private Thos. H. Cacey, who won the prize, a GOLD STAR, to be presented publicly hereafter. The Company having carried their dinners in their knapsacks, dined in soldiers' style, and spent part of the afternoon in drill. Between three and four o'clock the Company returned to the town, and after parading around the town returned to the Armory and were dismissed—giving three rousing cheers for the pleasure of the day. The Company paraded thirty muskets, three officers and four drums.

CHURCH PROPERTY.—It appears by an official statement that the value of the Churches of the Methodist Protestant denomination in Virginia is about $67,000.

SNOW AND SLEIGHING.—It appears that North of Baltimore there was quite a "respectable" snow storm on Saturday night. In several portions of York county, Pa., the snow fell to the depth of four or five inches. The citizens of Shrewsbury, in that county, enjoyed pleasant sleighing on Sunday, during most of the day.

A GOLDEN WEDDING—HON. REVERDY JOHNSON.—A Golden Wedding of more than usual interest, from the celebrity of the parties and their numerous descendants and extensive family connections, took place Wednesday, at 122 Park street, the city residence of the Hon. Reverdy Johnson, who celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage with Mrs. Johnson, a daughter of the late Governor Robert Bowie, who filled the executive chair of Maryland in 1803 and 1811. Mr. Johnson is in his 74th year, and Mrs. Johnson in the 67 year of her age. They have ten children living, thirty-four grandchildren, four of whom are children of a daughter deceased, and three great-grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson lost several children in early life.

The assembling of so large a domestic circles, which included much of graceful beauty, intellect and worth, presented a scene which might well make the hearts of the parents, whom they so respect, swell with pride and happy emotions. In consequences of the recent family affliction befallen the connections there was no public reception, the gathering being confined to the circle of the family. There were numerous golden presents made on the occasion from members of the family, consisting of golden pitchers, boxes, &c.—There were also exhibited on the tables the beautiful gold box, nearly six inches square, with the freedom of the city of Glasgow, presented to Mr. Johnson by the corporation of that city on the occasion of his visit, when United States minister to Great Britain.

Rev. Dr. Maban, of St. Paul's Church, was present, and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, standing side by side, as in the marriage ceremony, the rector made an addres appropriate to the occasion, and concluded by pronouncing the usual nuptial benediction, as in the marriage service. The remainder of the evening was passed in festivity and social enjoyment.—Balt. Sun.
