The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, February 26, 1870.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

David C. Blackiston, Esq., has been appointed Inspector General of grain, by Gov. Bowie, and confirmed by the Senate.

We have received from Mr. W. F. Massey his Catalogue of Flowering Plants. Parties wishing to supply themselves with flowers would do well to examine it.

Religious —The protracted meeting at the Methodist Episcopal Church in this town still continues, and the interest appears to be unabated. We learn it will be held during next week.

The Fox Hunting Law for Kent.—In the State Senate, on Wednesday, Mr. Miller, from the committee on the judiciary, reported unfavorably on the House bill relative to the hunting of foxes in Kent county. The report was adopted, and the bill rejected.

The Courts.—Tuesday last being a legal holiday the Orphans' Court was not in session.

The County Commissioners transacted but little business of general interest. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, was appointed keeper of the Sassafras river bridge for one year.

The Central Farmers' Club was permanently organized on Thursday evening last and a constitution and by-laws adopted. Dr. F. Worrell was elected President, Simon Wickes and J. M. J. Byron Vice Presidents, and William H. Stewart Treasurer. The election of Secretary was deferred. The subject for discussion at the next meeting is, "The proper method of applying stable manure."

I. O. of O. F.—Institution of a new Lodge in Chestertown.—We learn that a number of gentlemen have been for some weeks past making arrangements to procure a charter, and that they expect next week the proper Grand Lodge officers to visit Chestertown and institute the Lodge. The use of the Good Templars hall has been secured as a place of meeting.

Washington's Birthday.—The twenty-second was not generally observed in our town. The Reed Rifles made an excursion to Annapolis and the great British war steamer Monarch. The Company mustered twenty-eight men, three officers and four drums; left Chestertown at half-past eight o'clock and arrived at Annapolis something after one; in time to witness the dress parade of the Fifth Regiment of Baltimore. Leaving Annapolis at half-past three, the steamer landed her passengers on the Monarch, where a half hour was most agreeably spent in examining the different parts of the ship and her armament. The Monarch was reached from the upper deck of the steamer Chester, by a long gang-plank to her upper deck, at an angle of nearly forty-five degrees, ropes for hand-holds being stretched on each side. Every attention was shown by the officers and crew of the boat, and we would recommend all who have the opportunity to visit her.

Owing to the severe weather, but few persons went, and the company sustained considerable loss.

Presentation to a Minister.—On Saturday evening last, Rev. J. T. Murray of the Methodist Protestant Church, of this town, was the recipient of a silver pitcher, waiter and pair of goblets, all of beautiful design and workmanship, and bearing appropriate inscriptions. They were procured in Baltimore, the funds for their purchase being contributed by the members of the Church in Chestertown generally. The occasion of the presentation was a surprise party. About 7½ o'clock the members of the congregation assembled at designated places and then proceeded in a body to the parsonage, accompanied by a dearborn well filled with substantials for the pastor's larder as well as luxuries, consisting of ice cream, cake, confectionery, &c., for the evening's entertainment. The presentation of the silver-ware was made by Mrs. John T. Dodd, in a very pretty and appropriate manner; and the response of the recipient was equally good; both being spontaneous heart-felt expressions, far more eloquent than the most elaborately prepared addresses would have been on such an occasion. Refreshments were then served, and a very agreeable evening spent by the large company in attendance.

Bishop Lay's Appointments.—The Bishop proposes (D. V.) to visit the Diocese in the order following:

That all who see this notice may send their address, and test the business, we make this unparalleled offer: To such as are not well satisfied, we will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing. Full particulars, a valuable sample, which will do to commence work on, and a copy of The People's Literary Companion—one of the largest and best family newspapers published—all sent free by mail.—Reader, if you want permanent, profitable work, address E. C. ALLEN & CO., Augusta, Maine. Feb. 5,-3m.

LORILLARD'S "EUREKA," Smoking Tobacco is an excellent article of granulated Virginia; wherever introduced it is universally admired. It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for Meerschaum Pipes are daily packed.

LORILLARD'S Yacht Club Smoking Tobacco classed by all who consume it as the "finest of all;" it is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is anti-nervous in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very mild, light in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 3 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack orders every day for first quality Meerschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourself it is all it claims to be, "THE FINEST OF ALL."

LORILLARD'S CENTURY Chewing Tobacco This brand of Fine Cut chewing tobacco has no equal or superior anywhere. It is without doubt the best chewing tobacco in the country.

LORILLARD'S SNUFFS have now been in general use in the United States over 110 years, and still acknowledged "the best" wherever used.

If your storekeeper does not have these articles for sale, ask him to get them; they are sold by respectable jobbers almost everywhere.

Circular of prices forwarded on application.
