The Chestertown Transcript.

Saturday Morning, March 26, 1870.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Kent Railroad.—In the First Branch of the Baltimore City Council on Wednesday, the report of the committee in reference to aid to the Kent County Railroad was indefinitely postponed.

I. O. O. F.—Institution of a new Lodge in Chestertown.—We are informed by parties interested, that the proper officers from the Grand Lodge of the State, will arrive here by steamer this afternoon, and to-night, (assisted by members from the Lodge at Church Hill,) institute a Lodge. The organization will be known as Damon Lodge, and it is said the prospect is good for a large membership.

Quarterly Association I. O. G. T.—Election of Delegates by Resolute Lodge.—On Wednesday night last, the following delegates were elected to represent the Lodge in the County Quarterly Association, which meets at Still Pond on Saturday, April 2d, viz: William B. Usilton, Miss Maggie Parks, J. B. Wingate, Miss Mollie Usilton, Alex. Cahall, Miss Laura Wingate, I. J. Coleman, Miss Mollie Taylor.

Rev. J. Thos. Murray, who for three years past has most ably, faithfully and acceptably served as Pastor, Christ Church in this town, was by the last Conference removed, greatly to the regret of the congregation here, to whom he had endeared himself, and to the community at large, who highly appreciated his Christian virtues and social qualities. He goes to the Methodist Protestant Church corner of Fayette and Aisquith streets, Baltimore. Mr. Murray will preach his last sermon here to-morrow (Sunday) evening.

Rees' Corner Farmers' Club—Is reported alive and working, increasing in numbers, debates lively and interesting, and participated in by all. The Club has recently received a lot of public documents from Hon. Geo. Vickers, and a lot of seed from Hon. Horace Capron, Commissioner of Agriculture, which have been distributed among the members, to experiment with and make report of success at the proper time. *

A Negro Church, near Batter-shell Hill, was burned to the ground on the 17th inst. The fire originated from a defective flue too long neglected.

Both a day and night school were held in this building—two teachers engaged—all sizes and ages attended.

Some five years ago this Church, when situated near Rees' Corner, was burned, and an effort was made by some evil disposed persons to fix its destruction upon persons of Southern feelings. *

Handsome Improvement.—One of the handsomest and most tasty improvements we have noticed in our town for some time has been made by Mr Thomas W. Wickes in his Drug Store at the old stand.

The whole interior has been papered with neat and elegant paper, in a style which does credit to Mr. Wickes' taste. The shelving has been new painted, and the handsome mahogany drawers newly dressed and mounted. The old side counters have given place to handsome and modern tables, with large show-cases.

The lights resemble gas fixtures, and the oil used is Payne's brilliant illuminating compound. When the new bottles, with their handsome lables, are on the shelves, the establishment will compare with any of its size that we know of.

Orphans' Court Proceedings.—Caroline V. Stanley and C. A. A. Stanley, administrators C. T. A. of Charles Stanley, dec'd., returned first administration account, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Pere L. Lynch, guardian to Wm. B. Rasin and others, returned his first and final guardian accounts, which were passed and ordered to be recorded.

Letters of administration on the personal estate of Eliza P. Thomas were granted to J. K. Hines, and the legal notice to creditors ordered to be published.

An application, letters of administration were granted on the personal estate of James Brown of James, late of Kent Co., presumed to be deceased, to Sam'l. Clark, (the parties entitled having filed their renunciation,) with Wm. H. Lambert and Charles D. Brown as sureties, and the legal notice to creditors ordered.

County Commissioners.—Thos. Baker was appointed supervisor of the road from Chestertown to the upper school house in Quaker Neck, from thence round Airy Hill; also, from Chestertown main road to R. S. Emory's gate in Quaker Neck, 4½ miles. W. J. Maslin was appointed supervisor of road from school house in Quaker Neck to Bakerville. H. M. Thomas, road from James Deford's shop to Frog [illegible] J. Walls, road from Bakerville to [illegible]d Nicols' gate, and from Bond Ch[illegible] New Wharf, about nine miles. Dan[illegible] Kee, road from Lynch's Corner to stage [illegible] and to Thomas P. Dixon's gate. John A. Foreman, road from Hopewell Corner to Catt's Corner, 4 miles. Victor Hendrickson, road from Fannel's Branch to Beck's Mill, and thence around to the Quaker Neck road, two miles. R. H. Loud, road from Bramble's branch to Quaker Lane, 2½ miles.

An order was passed in favor of Abner Campble for $250, and in favor of James Whitehill for $250, making $500 to be paid them for patent right indexing for Kent County Records.

The remainder of the session was occupied in making transfers.

Call Accepted.—Rev. Daniel Bowers, of the Methodist Protestant Church, has received and accepted a unanimous call to become the Pastor of Chatsworth Independent Methodist Church, in this city, and will enter upon the duties of his new field on next Sunday. Mr. Bowers is one of the most successful ministers of Maryland, and the congregation consider themselves happy in having secured his services.—Sun of Wednesday.

Singular Fatality.—During the present winter several deaths have occurred from pneumonia among them we will mention three cases where a singular fatality has attended them. All three were ladies who were looked upon as among the most healthy persons in this section, and they were all taken sick on Wednesday and died on Friday, being sick just nine days with this fatal disease. All of them were buried on Sundays. The first to die was Mrs. Edward Covey, of St. Michaels, the second was Mrs. John E. Wrightson; the third and last, Mr. Francis A. Wrightson, the wife of Francis A. Wrightson, Esq., who died on Friday, March 4. The two latter were from Bay Hundred.—St. Michael's Comet.

Methodist Episcopal Conference.

The Wilmington annual conference, which met at Port Deposit, Md., last week, adjourned sine die on Monday.—The following is a list of the appointments for Easton District:

J. B. Quigg, Presiding Elder. Bethel—T. S. Williams. Cecilton—J. E. Bryan. Chesapeake City—James Esgate. Millington—E. B. Newman. Still Pond—J. A. Brindle. Cestertown—J. B. Merritt. Kent—D. C. Ridgway, Isaac G. Fosnocht. Church Hill—W. W. Redman. Sudlersville—E. P. Aldred. Greensborough—C. F. Sheppard. Marydel—To be supplied. Centreville—J. W. Pierson. Queenstown—A. A. Ewing. Kent Island—W. O'Feil. Talbot—John Hough. Easton—G. A. Phoebus. Trappe—Edw. Davis.—Hillsborough—Wm. R. McFarlane. Denton—S. W. Hammersly. Dorchester—N. M. Brown, W. P. Davis. Cambridge—W. H. Hutchin. Cambridge Circuit—T. B. Killiam. Church Creek—S. T. Gardner. Warwick Mission—To be supplied. Preston—Francis M. Collins.

Serious Case of Hydrophobia.—A dog belonging to Mrs. Stubbles, residing on the farm of Mr. A. C. Richardson, in Sassafras Neck, was seized with hydrophobia on Wednesday last, and, although chained, broke loose and bit her son, Jas. Stubbles, a young man, and her grandson, Wm. Clark, a lad of fourteen, four sheep, four cats and four dogs, all on the same farm, and then escaped, running off toward Elk river. The canines, felines and sheep were all instantly killed. The wounds of the unfortunate youths were dressed by Dr. Samuel E. Wills, which we hope will not result seriously.—Cecil Whig.

Mysterious—A Lady Born Deaf and Dumb Talks on her Death Bed.—Elizabeth Cordrey, of Tyaskin district, in this county, was born a mute and was never known to utter a syllable until last Saturday, on which day our informant states, she was 50 years old. She had been confined to a bed of sickness for some time, when, on the day mentioned, to the great surprise of her family and friends she began talking fluently, and from then to the hour of her death, which occurred on the following day, she prayed almost unceasingly in an audible voice and understanding. The lady we learn, has two sisters and brother also mutes.—Eastern Shoreman.

Finding Money on the Cars—Interesting Deceision.—Some time since a Mr. Haws found a package containg one thousand and forty-five dollars on a car of the New York and Harlem railroad, which he handed to the conductor, remarking at the same time that he supposed the company was entitled to it. The conductor gave it to the company, who were unable to find the owner. The plaintiff now believing that as no owner has been found, he is best entitled to the money, brings suit to recover it. The company claim that according to the laws relating to public carriers, they are responsible to the owner, and therefore, are entitled to the money. The court held that although the defendant had no positive right to the money, the plaintiff had none at all.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a Sure Cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, etc. The object of the advertiser in sending the Prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address

TO THE WORKING CLASS.—We are now prepared to furnish all classes with constant employment at home, the whole of the time or for the spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Persons of either sex easily earn from 50c. to $5 per evening, and a proportional sum by devoting their whole time to the business. Boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. That all who see this notice may send their address, and test the business, we make this unparalleled offer; To such as are not well satisfied, we will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing. Full particulars, a valuable sample, which will do to commence work on, and a copy of The People's Literary Companion—one of the largest and best family newspapers published—all sent free by mail.—Reader, if you want permanent, profitable work, address E. C. ALLEN & CO., Augusta, Maine. Feb. 5,-3m.

LORILLARD'S "EUREKA," Smoking Tobacco is an excellent article of granulated Virginia; wherever introduced it is universally admired. It is put up in handsome muslin bags, in which orders for Meerschaum Pipes are daily packed.

LORILLARD'S Yacht Club Smoking Tobacco classed by all who consume it as the "finest of all;" it is made of the choicest leaf grown; it is anti-nervous in its effects, as the Nicotine has been extracted; it leaves no disagreeable taste after smoking; it is very mild, light in color and weight, hence one pound will last as long as 3 of ordinary tobacco. In this brand we also pack orders every day for first quality Meerschaum Pipes. Try it and convince yourself it is all it claims to be, "the finest of all."

LORILLARD'S CENTURY Chewing Tobacco This brand of Fine Cut chewing tobacco has no equal or superior anywhere. It is without doubt the best chewing tobacco in the country.

LORILLARD'S SNUFFS have now been in general use in the United States over 110 years, and still acknowledged "the best" wherever used.

If your storekeeper does not have these articles for sale, ask him to get them; they are sold by respectable jobbers almost everywhere.

Circular of prices forwarded on application.
