The Chestertown Transcript

Saturday Morning, April 23, 1870.

☞ Our friends throughout the county are earnestly requested to furnish us with all items of local interest transpiring in their immediate neighborhoods.

LOCAL MATTERS.

I. O. R. M.—Ozene Tribe, No. 49, was instituted by the proper Grand Lodge officers of the State, last Tuesday night.

The following officers were elected:

Sachem—Charles Hayden.
Senior Sagamore—Robt. E. Nelson.
Junior Sagamore—W. Hudgins.
Prophet—J. Jones Pearce.
Chief of Records—Thos. S. Bordley.
Keeper of Wampum—Thomas Casey.

The Big Show.—As will be seen by our advertising columns, one of the largest Menageries and Circus Troupes which has ever traveled this way, will exhibit here on Wednesday next, the 27th, giving two exhibitions, afternoon and evening. Campbell's Zoological and Equestrian Institute comes better endorsed for what it holds out to be, than these traveling exhibitions generally do. It traveled last season in the New England States and Canada. The Menagerie is represented as full and comprehensive. Among the animals are the African Elephant, Royal Bengal Tiger, African and Asiatic Lions, the Ibex, and the African Eland, said to be the only one on exhibition in America, and the second ever captured. The animal department will be superintended by polite and well informed keepers, and will be so arranged that those who wish to view the specimens can do so and retire before the Circus commences.

The Equestrian department comprises a long list of the equestrian profession, and the grand street display will alone be worth a visit to our town, to witness which our country friends should come in early.

We always embrace the opportunity to examine the animals of 'other climes, and think all young persons especially, should do so.

Mr. William Skinner Stam is now canvassing our county for subscriptions to the "Memoirs of the war of '76," by Gen. Henry Lee, thoroughly revised and annotated by General Robert E. Lee, who has added a full biography of his father. Two editions of this work have already been exhausted, and the book has long been unattainable except at a very high price; but this new, revised and enlarged edition is made doubly valuable and interesting by the editorial labor of General Robert E. Lee. We commend this book to the perusal of all. The work is handsomely printed and bound; the steel engravings and maps are engraved in the best style, and the book is sold only by canvassing agents.

County Commissioners.—The Commissioners have been almost exclusively engaged in making transfers.

Joseph Reed was appointed supervisor of road from Fairlee Creek Landing to School House.

A. J. Rees was appointed supervisor of road from Ship Yard Wharf to public road, and road leading into swamp.

Circuit Court.—The Circuit Court for this county commenced its session on Monday last: present Associate Justice Wickes, James A. Pearce, Prosecuting Attorney, and R. W. Calder, Sheriff: J. Thos. Skirven foreman of the Grand Jury. The full list of Jurors has been published heretofore. Judge Stump took his seat on Wednesday. The following cases have been disposed of:

State vs W. D. Stoops. Presentment for an assault on Chas. Bordley. Guilty: fined $1 and costs.

State vs Stephen Kendall. Presentment for an assault on W. T. Baker: fined $1 and costs.

State vs. W. H. Shriver. Assault on Thos. H. Hadaway: fined $2 and costs.

State vs. Thomas Sherwood. Presentment for an assault on W. H. Preston, negro: fined $5 and costs.

State vs. Darius E. Burton. Presentment for encroachment on the streets of Sassafras. Sub curia.

State vs. W. T. Brown. Presentment for an assault on John Waibel: fined $1 and costs.

State vs. Julia Ann Cotton. Presentment for stealing clothing from Isaac Gale. Verdict guilty.

State vs. Edward Johnson, negro, alias William Johnson. Presentment for stealing carpet from Mrs. Susan E. Barrett: verdict guilty.

State vs. William Hall, negro. Presentment for stealing lumber from Chester Bridge Company. Not guilty.

State vs. John T. Carroll. Presentment for running a knife through the arm of John Wills, negro: fined $1 and sent to jail for three months.

State vs. James B. Seppington. Presentment for receiving stolen goods knowing them to be stolen. Not guilty.

Orphans' Court.—James W. Stoops, administrator of John W. Stoops, late of Kent county, returned an inventory of personal property, and was authorized to sell the same at private sale.

Wm. T Elben, executor of Jos. Mann, returned an inventory of personal property, and was empowered to sell the same at public sale.

Jas. A. Burgess and Jeremiah Nicols, administrators of Thomas D. Burgess, returned an inventory of personal estate, and were authorized to sell the same at public sale, an advertisement of which will be found in our columns.

Wm. H. Lambert and Thos. P. Dixon returned their annual rental value of the real estate of the minor heirs of Samuel A. Smith, deceased.

The last will and testament of Louisa A. Busick was admitted to probat by the Court and ordered to be recorded.

Letters testamentary were granted to William S. Busick, executor of Louisa A. Busick, with J. Wright Howard and Louisa Hepbron as sureties. The legal notice to creditors was ordered.

Letters of administration on the personal estate of John L. Porter were granted to John H. Porter, with Horace T. Roberts and Joel C. Slaughter as sureties, and the legal notice to creditors ordered. B. C. Catlin and David Clemens were appointed to appraise the personal estate.

John C. and James S. Harris, adm'rs. of Richard H. Harris, returned their second and final administration account.

James M. Hyrons, guardian to Agnes S. Hyrons, returned his guardian account for the years 1867 and 1868.

Martha A. Biscoe, admr'x. of Albert A. Biscoe, returned a list of sales of personal estate.

Wm. Janvier and Jacob Highley were appointed to appraise the rental value of the real estate of Francis D. Dunlap, dec.

Richard Millington and John W. Jarman were appointed to appraise the rental value of the real estate of Jos. Mann, dec.

Silly Bragging.—The Philadelphia Ledger says that "the issue of that conflict (the late civil war) was the life of the greatest nation in history," &c. Why will intelligent journals puff up the American bladder with such astounding gas!—Is it requisite to patriotism that men should lie, and blow, and brag like that? Does the Ledger really think that this nation is as great as ancient Greece, or Rome, or France or England? Has she, in letters, arts, arms, or even money, surpassed the great empires of antiquity and modern times? In what is she great, but the extent of her territory and the possibilities of her future? Compared with the chief European powers, she is a mere youth, overgrown, awkward, and verdant, having, however, capabilities which, if she remain united, will make her one day as powerful as any other nation. That is all. Such braggadocia as that of the Ledger only belittles us in the estimation of sensible men, and makes us the laughing stock of the universe.—Statesman.

BLACK
CHESAPEAKE INK.

Most if not all the inks or writing fluids heretofore manufactured in the United States, have been composed of Tanic Acid, Gallic Acid, and a salt of Iron. A saturated solution of Aleppo galls in alcohol, is first made. This tincture contains several ingredients beside the Tannic and Gallic acids. By adding some of this tincture to a solution of Green Vitriol (Sulphate of Iron) the solution assumes first a violet and finally a black color. By adding some of the same tincture to a solution of sulphate of sesquioxide of iron a black color is immediately produced but on standing, both solutions will deposit a black percepitate. The manufacturers of ink add gum sugar or other mucillaginous matter to hold this black powder in suspension.
If this ink should freeze the black powder is, however, precipitated, and will not again readily dissolve, and the ink is rendered worthless. It cannot be diluted, when once too thick, without injuring, if not entirely destroying it. This ink may also be readily washed out from paper or parchment.
Forgers have availed themselves of this knowledge in altering checks, Drafts, Notes, &c. It is probable many wills have been entirely altered to suit interested parties having access to the paper by washing out the writing with oxalic acid, and again filling up the blanks. Many changes of Records have been from time to time discovered. Government Stamps have been freed from the ink used in cancelling them, and used a second time. There is no guarantee that anything written with these inks will not be altered at any time, by designing men.
The only preventive lies in using an ink that cannot be erased by any acid or alkali, without destroying the paper or parchment.
Heretofore no such ink could be obtained. Now, every one can obtain an absolutely indelible, unchangeable ink, for a less price than is paid for the worthless fluids in the market.

BLACK
CHESAPEAKE INK,
When written, cannot be erased with oxalic acid. It does not corrode the Pen.
It may be diluted with rain water, if too thick, and used up to the last drop.
It is equal to india ink for drawing.
It can be written with on the margins of Newspapers, or unsized paper of any kind, and does not blot.
It flows more freely from the pen than any other ink or fluid.
Neither freezing nor boiling injure it.—Every one who once uses it buys it again, and will use no other.

WILLIAM A. VICKERS, with whom I have entered into a limited partnership, will fill all orders from any part of the State of Maryland. All other orders should be addressed to me.
