LOCAL MATTERS.

The Negro Meeting last Saturday.

The Mass Meeting of the Negro party which was held on Saturday last on the Court House Green, considerably disappointed at least one of the speakers, a Mr. Lovejoy (white) of Baltimore, who did not hesitate to express his disappointment. We also noticed a mournful lack of the substantial white Radical element, or rather what the Radicals of the county claim as a portion of their forces. Neither Col. Wilkins or Geo. B. Westcott, Esq., who were first named as delegates to the Cambridge Convention, gave their presence to Mr. Torbert. The meeting was presided over by Robert M. Smyth of Millington, who seems to be an itinerant Radical politician. The vice-presidents were Thos. D. C. Ruth, Henry Lambert, Wm. Perkins, Levi Rogers, Dr. Melvin, Edward Willis, (we presume James Willis was meant, as Mr. Edward T. Willis of this town informs us that they had no authority for using his name, and that he has no sympathy with their proceedings,) and ten others.

Mr. Torbert is not a brilliant orator, and in his defeat the country will suffer no loss; he has, however, one qualification as a public speaker—a strong, loud voice, and his audience can hear what he says if they don't understand it afterwards. William Perkins—the negro orator of the county—made the most sensible, practical and honest speech of the occasion, and in the presence of the Democrats who were drawn by a natural desire to hear what he might have to say, seemed rather ashamed of the company in which he deemed himself necessarily placed.

Land Sales.

On Tuesday next Jas. A. Pearce, Esq., will sell at the Voshell House in Chestertown, a tract of land in Still Pond, the property of the late Mrs. Mary Kennard: also, the real estate of the late Samuel A. Smith, including valuable town property.

On the same day, at Massey's X Roads, Richard C. Johnson will sell a small farm in Chesterville, late the property of Mrs. Araminta Medders. See advertisements.

Fine Pears.

We omitted to mention last week the receipt from Mr. William Ford, of a lot of exceedingly fine Pears of the Duchess variety. The twelve weighed eleven pounds, and they were not selected by Mr. Ford with any special reference to their size. Mr. Ford we are glad to learn has a considerable quantity of this fruit, and it has been pronounced of the finest quality carried to the Baltimore market this season.

Orphans' Court.

Sept. 13th, 1870.—Present, Jas. Beck of George, Thomas Lusby, and William Stevens.

The following, among other matters, were attended to:

William Janvier, adm'r. of William Marshall, late of Kent county, dec'd., returned a list of sales of the personal estate, which was ordered for record.

George W. Spencer and Wm. T. Spry returned their report of the annual rental of the real estate of Philip A. M. Brooks, minor, in the hands of S. H. Blackiston, guardian, which was received and ordered for record.

On application, Charlotte A. Dorman (formerly C. A. Reson,) was appointed guardian to Charles H. Reson and Ida Reson, minor children of Thos. Reson.

Peregrine Wroth, executor of Louisa T. Wroth, late of Kent county, dec'd., returned a list of debts due said deceased, received and ordered for record.

THE POPE has completed his arrangements for retiring from Rome upon the arrival of the Italian army of occupation. He will go to his summer palace at Castel Gandolfo. This village is about fourteen miles southeast of Rome, and is picturesquely situated on a volcanic peak 431 feet above a beautiful lake. The spot is one of the loveliest in Italy. The latest dispatches show that the question whether the King of Italy or the Pope shall be the civil ruler of the people in the present papal territory is to be determined by an election, the Italian troops meantime having possession, and the purpose is professed of protecting the Pope in his ecclesiastic rights.

Dates of Elections.

For the information of those of our readers who take an interest in the pending Fall elections, we give a list of the States which hold elections this Autumn, in the order in which they occur, as follows:

Indiana,	Oct.	1	Louisiana,	Nov.	1
Florida,	"	3	Arkansas,	"	1
Mississippi	"	3	Alabama,	"	9
Iowa,	"	11	New York,	"	8
Ohio,	"	11	Maryland,	"	8
Pennsylvania,	"	11	Massachusetts,	"	8
W. Virginia,	"	27	Illinois,	"	8
Delaware,	Nov.	1	Michigan,	"	8
Missouri,	"	1	New Jersey,	"	8
Minnesota,	"	1	S. Carolina,	"	8
Kansas,	"	1	Wisconsin,	"	8

Elections will also take place in Georgia and Texas, but the time has not been determined upon in either case.

Republican Split in Missouri.

The Republican party in Missouri is hopelessly split, the point at issue being whether the existing disfranchisements in the State should be maintained or abrogated. In the State Convention two resolutions—majority and minority—were reported, and on the question of adoption the split came—439 delegates voting to adopt the minority resolution, which declares the time arrived in Missouri for a removal of all political disabilities, and 342 delegates voting against that resolution and in favor of the majority report, which virtually indorses a continuance of existing restrictions. Senator Drake, it is almost superfluous to say, led the proscriptionist wing. Senator Shurz led the enfranchisement party, and under his guidance a secession movement took place, the Convention splitting in two bodies, which met in separate apartments, adopted different platforms, and nominated different candidates for the Governorship, the present executive, McClurg, receiving the proscriptionist and B. Gratz Brown the enfranchisement nomination. The Democrats have held no Convention, nor will they, but in all probability throw their vote in favor of the liberal candidate, Mr. Brown. The appearances indicate that he will carry the State by a good majority, which all real friends of a government of the people will earnestly desire.—Balt. Sun.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

BY virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court of Kent County, as a Court of Equity, the undersigned, as Trustee, will expose to Public Sale, to the highest bidder, on

WEDNESDAY,

THE FIFTH DAY OF OCTOBER, 1870,

at eleven o'clock, A. M., at the Hotel Porch of John Pennington, in Galena, Kent county,

All that Tract or Parcel of Land

in said County, containing about

One Hundred Acres,

the property of the late Thos. E. Gooding, adjoining the Town of Galena, on the road leading to Georgetown and Sassafras; also adjoining the lands of Joseph P. Ireland, Dr. James Heighe, and others. A portion of this land is considered very productive, and the whole is desirable property.

THERE IS A

DWELLING

and some Out Houses on the premises. The property is divided into four fields, and the out and division fences are in fair condition. There are about one half about four years old, and in bearing, and the other half about two years; and of good varieties.

1400 Peach Trees,

There is a small portion in WOOD, suitable for fuel, and also some Chestnut.

A few Lots will be laid off, and the property sold as a whole or in parts.

A Plot of the property will be exhibited at the sale.

THE TERMS OF SALE, as prescribed by the Decree, are—One fourth of the purchase money on the day of sale or in sixty days thereafter, at the option of the Trustee, and the balance in three equal instalments, in six, twelve and eighteen months from the first day of January next, with interest from that time, to be secured by the bond of the purchaser or purchasers, with security to be approved by the Trustee.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

BY virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court of Kent County, as a Court of Equity, the undersigned, as Trustee, will expose to Public Sale, to the highest bidder, on

TUESDAY,

THE FOURTH DAY OF OCTOBER NEXT,

at the Voshell House in Chestertown, at eleven o'clock, A. M.,

ALL THAT MILL PROPERTY

in Kent county, commonly called

URIEVILLE,

lying near the main road leading from Chestertown to Kennedyville, about six miles from the former and two and a half from the Rail Road Depot at Kennedyville.

This property consists of

A GRIST MILL,

TWO RUN OF BURRS,

AND A SAW MILL,

both in running condition; also,

A SMITH AND WHEELWRIGHT SHOP,

SIX DWELLING HOUSES,

and one over a LARGE STORE, immediately on the Public Road; also, Stables, Granary, Meat House and Poultry House.

The Mill and Large Dwellings are in good condition.

There is probably no better or finer stream of water in the county; it is abundant for the supply at all seasons. There is also from

30 to 40 Acres of Land attached, two of the Lots very fine for Truck.

The neighborhood is good; Schools and Churches are near. It is near the Kent County Rail Road, and a daily mail is carried to and from Chestertown and Kennedyville, connecting with the trains, and carrying a mail to Urieville, where there is a Post Office.

There is probably no finer Mill property in the county.

Mr. William T. Smith, on the premises, and who has a thorough knowledge of the property, will take great pleasure in showing every part of it, to any one who may call to examine it.

TERMS OF SALE—One third cash on the day of sale or in thirty days thereafter, at the option of the Trustee, and the balance in one, two, and three years, in equal instalments, from the day of sale, with interest from the first day of January next, to be secured by the bond of the purchaser, with security to be approved by the Trustee.
