Of Talbot.

ELECTION DAY—TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8TH.

The Democratic Nomination.

COL. HAMBLETON'S LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

CAMBRIDGE, MD., Sept. 15, 1870.

Hon. Samuel Hambleton: Dear Sir—We have been appointed by the Democratic Conservative Convention of the First Congressional District, held here to-day, to notify you of your unanimous nomination for Congress. Permit us to make known the unanimity and good feeling expresed for you by the Convention. With you for our standard bearer, and trusting in the immaculate principles of the party and the intelligence of the community, in the language of Richelieu, "there can be no such word as fail."

Yours very truly,
G. W. GOLDSBOROUGH,
JAMES A. PEARCE,
JOHN H. HANDY.

To Messrs. G. W. Goldsborough, J. A. Pearce and John H. Handy Committee:

GENTLEMEN—Your favor of the 15th inst., notifying me of my nomination "by the Democratic Conservative Convention of the First Congressional District, held here (Cambridge) to-day for Congress," was received by me on the 17th. You also inform me of the unanimity and good feeling which pervaded the convention, and attended the nomination. I am greatly obliged to the convention for the honor conferred, and accept the trust with sincerely expressed diffidence, and distrust of my ability to measure up to the kind expectations of my friends. But of one thing be assured, no energy or exertion on my part shall be wanting in the approaching canvass to ensure success.

You are pleased to remark, "with you for our standard bearer, and trusting in the immaculate principles of the party and the intelligence of the community, in the language of Richelieu, "there can be no such word as fail.'" Gentlemen if in this approaching contest we had the usual electors and voters to appeal to, in this truly enlightened and patriotic Congressional District, there would be no doubt of the result. The principles of our party have long since thoroughly commended themselves to a vast majority of that constituency, and secured their unvarying support. But it is not to be disguised that we now have a new element in this contest with which to grapple. I allude, of course, to the negro, or colored vote. By fraud the Fifteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States has been proclaimed as adopted. The Radical party, by Congressional dictation, that States should only be admitted into the Union upon the adoption of that Amendment, which ensured suffrage to the negro a direct Congressional interference with the rights and legislation of the States wholly forbidden by the Constitution of the United States, as formed by our fathers—and by counting the votes of States never legitimately given in assent to it, has forced this new order of thing upon us. The white men of the District have, therefore, only to meet manfully and courageously this forced issue at this, the first election there under. Now is the accepted time and hour, or interminable trouble and degredation will follow, in the shape of a claim of social equality on the part of the blacks in the common schools of the counties, intended for the education of the children of the white man, and other equally repulsive advances to equality of rights with that race. I shall be most happy to address my fellow men in each county town of the District; but this will not meet the crisis, or fight the battle. It is an election for Congress only. We have not the usual Presidential or State elections, or county tickets even—which lstter usually enlist varied local interests and feelings, and draw out the vote. Yet our people must reflect that this election towers above the usual party contests of the day. It is not so much whether this political party or that shall rule in the country. Such political parties have existed from the dawn of the Republic, and been fought out upon certain announced principels of policy. The plain and undisguised issue is one of races—whether the white, Caucasian race, or the negro race, shall rule in the State, and shape its policy and legislation for the future. The small number of white Radical voters in every county of our District has heretofore been powerless to assail the pure principles of the Democratic Conservative party. It is by addition of this large negro vote the Radicals now hope to effect the overthrow of that patriotic party.—Are the white men of the District prepared for such a result? If they are true to themselves and their principles, it can never be. But to ward it off, at this first election and contest with this element, every Democrat and Conservative in every county must lend his aid and exertion.—It is matter of notoriety that the Radical party has levied upon the Federal officeholders in the State a large amount of money and brought it into this District, to secure the election of their nominee for Congress. For what purpose is it to be introduced? Not to ensure the negro vote. That is confidently claimed by them on the score of gratitude for the right of suffrage bestowed upon that race—and again, the Radical party asserts that every negro is sworn in their secret lodges to support its ticket. This corruption fund; then, must be expected in some other manner to sway or affect some portion of the white vote of the District; that it added to the negro vote, may ensure the success of the Radical party. Are the white men of the District prepared for negro domination, to be brought about by any such proposed means? What an insult to the white men of the District! Every white man will spurn such an effort, and the degraded leaders also who thus propose to subsidize them to such degradation. If the white men be but true to themselves—if every white Democrat and Conservative in the District will only turn out at the approaching election, and see that his neighbor also does so, without the negro vote we can maintain the supremacy of the white race, as we have done to the present time, and keep those leaders and aspirants for office through the negro vote where they have so long been in Maryland, in merited obscurity and retirement; and maintain the proud supremacy of the Democratic Conservative party, which is emphatically, "the White Man's Party" of the country.

I have said so much already on the above absorbing question of the supremacy of races that it only remains for me to add, in conclusion, that the Radical legislation of the past session of Congress alone is sufficient to arouse the intelligence and patriotism of the country, and ensure the success of our party. The profligate expenditure of the people's money for rings and jobs of all kinds—the infamous Tariff Laws for the benefit of particular States, classes and interests—the squandering and lavishing of the public lands, intended for future homesteads for the people, upon corrupt and favored corporations—the unequal and grinding taxation of the great and growing agricultural interests of the country—the persistent refusal to tax, in any shape or form, any of the government bonds in the hands of holders—to favor the rich monopolists and capitalists of the country—the systematized efforts to break down the rights of the States, and State governments, for the purpose of erecting upon their ruins a central despotic power in Congress, to be wielded by a reckless faction therein, to the destruction of all co-ordinate departments of the government, are some of the enormities of that legislation, enough without any addition to stir up the masses and ensure our success.

Apologizing for the length into which this letter of acceptance has already run, and thanking you for the kind terms of your letter of notification, I subscribe myself. Your friend and servant,

SAM. HAMBLETON,
EASTON, Sept. 19th, 1870.

War News from Europe.

The negotiations for peace which have been attempted by the French people have failed from the excessive demands of Bismarck.

Strasbourg has surrendered, with a garrison of 451 officers and 17000 troops.

The British cabinet is said to be considering the question of intervention.

A DAILY COMPANION.—Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, has been, in common with other great lexicons of the English language, one of my daily companions.

My testimonial to its erudition, the accuracy of its definitions, and to the vast etymological research by which it has been enriched through the labors recently bestowed upon it, can hardly be of much value, sustained as the book is in the world-wide reputation, by so general an approbation; but I have no hesitation in thus expressing my sense of its merits.

JOHN L. MOTLEY,
the Historian, and late Minister at the Court of St. James.

THE RULERS OF FRANCE.—It seems impossible for any sovereign of France to die upon the throne and bequeath his power to his immediate descendants. Of all the sovereigns of France since 1774, Louis Napoleon has had the longest reign as President and Emperor. They thus compare: Louis XVI., eighteen years; Napoleon I., fifteen years; Louis XVIII., nine years; Charles X. six years; Louis Phillippe, eighteen years, and Louis Napoleon, twenty-two years.

THE COMING STATE ELECTIONS.—On the 11th of October elections will be held in Pennsylvania for Congressmen; in Ohio, Indiana and Iowa for Congressmen and State officers, except Governor; in Nebraska for Governor, State officers and Congressmen; and in West Virginia on the 27th of October for Governor, State officers and Congress. In most of these States elections will also take place for members of the Legislature. All the other States which have not already voted will hold their elections in November.

The Committee appointed to prepare suitable Resolutions expressive of the feelings of the Teachers' Institute of Kent and Queen Anne's counties in relation to the death of two of its members, since its last meeting, beg leave to report the following:

Resolved, That in the premature demise of Zachary Upsher Crittenden and Mathew P. Day, late teachers of Kent county, this Institute has reason to deplore the loss of two of its efficient and greatly esteemed members, the cause of education suffers the loss of two most energetic and faithful laborers, society of two useful citizens and their families sustain a loss to them irretrievable.

Resolved, That while we humbly bow to the inscrutable decree of the Allwise Disposer of life, we can but lament that our beloved brethern should have been cut down in the vigor of their manhood, and the prime of their usefulness, and we fully adopt the sentiment of the poet,

"Sorrow's semblance weeps not o'er their tomb,
But sorrows self laments their early doom."

Resolved, That we sincerely and deeply sympathize with the bereaved relatives of our deceased brethern, and direct that these resolutions be published in, The Kent News, Chestertown Transcript, the papers of Caroline County and of papers of Middlesex Co. Va., and a copy thereof be sent to the immediate families of each of our peparted brothers.
