LOCAL MATTERS.

The Orphans' Court

Met Wednesday last: present Jas. Beck of George, Thomas Lusby, and William Stevens.

The last will and testament of Philip Drugan was admitted to probate, so far as it relates to the personalty, and declared null and void as to the real estate. Letters of administration were granted to William T. Dove, of Montgomery county, with Joseph Bulack and E. G. Lind of Baltimore city, as sureties. The legal notice to creditors was ordered to be published.

C. H. Baker, adm'r of Melvina Baker, returned an inventory of personal estate, and on application was authorized to sell the personal estate of deceased.

The release of Pere and Geo. W. Brown, colored, to W. B. Turbitt, adm'r. of Jas. Brown, was received and ordered to be recorded.

The Chester River Steamboats.

It is a pleasure to hear again the whistle of our river steamers after an interruption, except a few days, of some six weeks. This Company have displayed a commendable energy in running their boats whenever the navigation would admit. Tuesday last, the LAW, notwithstanding the severe snow storm, made her trip to our town, and left the following morning, with a considerable sheet of ice to contend with.

The amount of travel by this route must necessarily be very considerable for some months to come. The LAW is a pleasant steamer, and her officers are all the community can ask. She leaves our wharf for Baltimore, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, returning alternate days.

The Twenty-Second.

Wednesday next is the 22d of February, and is now a legal holiday under our code. All notes or other papers becoming due to banks on that day must be paid the day previous. Being a legal holiday, it becomes a matter of inquiry whether any legal paper or process can be properly executed on that day. For instance, whether a levy under a fieri facias, or a summons, would be valid.

Vocal and Instumental Concert.

A Concert will be given at the Court House in Chestertown, on Tuesday evening next, for the benefit of the I. U. Church. From all that we can learn this will be a Concert well worth attending, Mr. Aschenfeld, who has the management, is a thorough musician and a fine performer. Aside from the object, we recommend our readers to attend the Concert. They will get full value in the musical treat. See advertisement.

Snow.

During Monday night and Tuesday last snow fell here to a depth of some ten or twelve inches, being the heaviest fall of snow during the winter. Those fond of the pleasure of sleighing made good use of the opportunity.

Resolute Lodge, I. O. G. T.,

Military.

Wednesday next, the twenty-second of February, the Military Company of this town will celebrate the day by a target practice and drill. A handsome gold badge will be shot for.

The Fifth Regiment, of Baltimore, have adopted a handsome new uniform:

The coat is of the full dress pattern, after the style and shape somewhat of a full dress swallow-tail party coat, and is richly decorated with gold lace ornaments. It and the pants are made of the best gray cadet cloth, and are very elegant. On the breast of the coat are three rows of large brass buttons, with stripes of black braid running between them. On the lower part of the sleeves are three "slashes" of rich heavy gold braid, underlaid with black cloth and mounted with brass buttons. On both sides of the collar are also "slashes" of gold braid, and at the terminus of the tails of the coat are gold grenades, and directly over these bursting bombs. On each coat tail are three slashes made of gold braid, black cloth and brass buttons, and still higher up are also two large brass buttons.

On the coat there are in all forty-six buttons, and a profusion of the best quality seven-line gold lace, all tastefully arranged and interspersed with black cloth. The pants are cut straight in the leg, and have a black stripe 1¼ inch wide of black cloth running down each side The officers' uniforms will be exactly the same as those of the men, with the exception of the insignia of their rank. All will look like full generals. The white cross belts and the black epaulets with white fringe will also be worn in full dress. The chevrons of the non-commissioned officers, and the service stripes on the sleeves, are also made of the heavy gold braid. A regimental button will be made from a special die, of a design that will be determined upon hereafter, with the motto of the regiment on it, "Decus et praesideum." The uniform is to be furnished by Develin & Co., of New York, at a price lower than any other responsible house in the country offered to undertake the work for.

THE AFRICAN.—Considering that the American blacks flourish in Africa, and that the average duration of the life of a white man in that country is not more than two years, and that the whole country is dotted with the graves of white missionaries, the practicability of using black missionaries to christianize and civilize the interior is being freely discussed. Bishop Janes, in this connection, is reported to have stated in a recent address that the colored people of the North were prepared to emigrate to Liberia as soon as they could, and added, what is undoubtedly true, that they would be valuable members of society. This country, he added, is large enough for our whole population, and we are all equal before the law, but there are prejudices against the colored race, and the colored man will not rest until he is independent and equal, socially, as well as before the law. He will, therefore, added the Bishop, get to Africa as soon as he can. These statements indicate very clearly that the "adsurb prejudices," which at the North they are so fond of ascribing to those of the South, as peculiar to that section, are quite as strong if not stronger, and of a character more hard to be borne, in the North than anywhere else.

VENDUE NOTES can be obtained at this office.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

Sold by J. L. Stam, Chestertown; J. P. Ireland, Galena, and all druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. [Nov. 19, 1870.
