Lib.r P.C. No C. Signed and Sealed in the presence of us — this 24th Day of aprill 1672.
Nath: his mark Reade. Griffith Vsleevens. his mark.

And please yo.r Hono.r the 15th of august 1673.
Vide Com.ton — to Sybry and — Itero.q.s Lib. FW fol: 437: 438.
Came Nath: Reade before me and I did Strictly Examine him and did give him his oath and as for the first he answers he did know the Testator Six years or thereabouts before the publishing of this his last Will and testament and for the second he doth not know what Day nor Certainly what month but to his best Remembrance it was aprill and he is Sure it was in the year of Our Lord 1672. and to the third he Declares he was in sound and perfect Memory when he Signed Sealed and published this his last Will and Testament — and to the fourth he doth not answear he doth not know any thing of it Mr. Woolman was with me and doth Declare that it was a Mistake of him for he writ the Will and did put January in the Stead of aprill and as for the year 1672 that I am Sensible that the Children was not born nor Capt. Loyd Married and as for the Other Witness he is Run away Capt. Loyd will inform yo.r Hono.r — more at Large I would a returned it down before this but he desired to desist till he did go down himself No more to — trouble yo.r Hono.r with all at present but Subscribe my Self yo.r Hono.rs Humble Servant to Command —
Wye Sept.r 8th 1673. Iona: Sybrey

To the Right Hon.ble his Lordships Chief officer for Probate of Wills and granting of administrations in the province of Maryland —

Right Hon.ble — att the Instance of Capt. Philemon Loyd I presumed to Certifie yo.r Hon.r my knowledge Concerning the Will of Mr. Henry Hawkins Deceased If I may be admitted to give my testimony therein being so much Concerned —

To the first Intero.q.y —

I knew him from Sucking Infant till the Day of his Death being for the most part Conversant with him.

(To)

Lib.r P.C. No C. To the second To this I dare not positively averr because in 9 So great a mistake as here happened the Day of the month might be mistaken also and I do beleive is because the will it self was written out some time before the Seaking thereof — but how long I cannot Remember but that it was in the year one thousand Six hundred Seaventy and two — and in the month of aprill and that it was the last will and testament of Henry Hawkins that Ever he made or appointed this I can Safely averr upon my oath —

To the third that he was of good sound and perfect Memory

To the fourth the Testator some time before the Signing of this Will desired me to write him a new will for — some reasons then Exprest and gave me the heads thereof and desired me to do it at my Leasure how — long before the publishing thereof I cannot remember but at the Signing to the best of my knowledge I — found this Error. and thinking it not much material I only noted the true Month not quite obliterating the word (January) hopeing it would never be made use — of but that it was not to any Intent of fraud Circumvention or deceit I Can Safely Swear to if Called —

Sept.r 11th 1673 Rich.d Wolman
