LOCAL MATTERS.

The Orphans' Court

Met on Tuesday: present, Jas. Beck of Geo,, Thos. Lusby, and Wm. Stevens.

James M. Hyrons, guardian to Margaret Hyrons, returned his guardian account for the years 1867, '8 and '9, which was passed and ordered to be recorded.

Lewis F. Newsome, administrator of Martin L. Newsome, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of deceased—received, and ordered to be recorded.

William T. Dove, administrator C. T. A. of Philip Drugan, returned an inventory of the personal estate of deceased, and obtained an order to sell the same. Also returned a list of debts due deceased.

Edwin Smith, executor of John P. Smith, returned an inventory of personal estate of deceased; received, and ordered for record.

Citations have been issued for the following parties, returnable on Tuesday next:

Medford Hynson, guardian to Frances L. Hynson et al.; William R. Wilmer, guardian to John W. Greenwood et al.; Emily F. Clift, guardian to Ida Armstrong; John J. Blackiston, guardian to Ellen L. Adkinson et al.; Mary E. Coleman, guardian to Nora J. Coleman et al.; and John C. Sutton, guardian to Matilda Sutton.

The I. U. Concert.

The Concert at the Court House on Tuesday evening last was exceedingly creditable to the performers, and well attended, considering the unfavorable afternoon: most of the seats were taken, though the room was not crowded. The programme was opened by the amateur band of Broad Neck, assisted by Prof. Ascherfeld. Miss E. Kelly then sang "Consider the Lillies," a solo, and difficult piece. She had also a part in several of the choruses, and, in part second, sang alone, "O, ye tears." Miss Kelly sings very sweetly, and her voice is considerably cultivated and under good command, and with careful instruction and practice she must make a songstress far above the average. "Hearts that have loved us, where are ye now?" solo, by Mrs. Dr. Beck, was sung exceedingly well and sweetly. Overture, "Caliph of Bagdad," performed by Mrs. Geo. Stephens and Miss Jennie Smith on the piano and by Prof. Ascherfeld on the Æolian Seraphine, was admirably executed. Mr. Charles Hurlock had several solos, and parts in most of the pieces, and fully sustained his reputation as a young gentleman with a somewhat extraordinary voice. He sang solos, "Go ask my wife," and "Ever in dreams." "The Whistling farmer boy," a duett, by Mr. Hurlock and Mr. Thos. Kelly, afforded much merriment. "Put me in my little bed," solo, by Miss Ella Hunt, was very well received. "I am a Merry Zingara," by Miss S. Beck, a long and difficult piece, drew forth loud applause, clearly evencing that Miss Sophie is a favorite. If "From Greenland's icy mountains," had been given in the familliar tune, it would have been decidedly better. The entire affair gave general satisfaction, and fully proved Prof. Ascherfeld's theory, that there is plenty of latent musical talent in our midst. It is scarcely necessary to say that the Professor fully sustained his high reputation as a musician and teacher.

We have not learned the proceeds, but judging from the numbers, it must have been considerable.

Accident on the Kent Railroad.

Friday last two colored men fell from the gravel train on the Kent road below Kennedyville, and were both injured, one having his leg broken, and the other his back, and it is thought, his spine. The men were riding on the side of the car, against which they had been cautioned.

The road between Kennedyville and Worton station is now being ballasted.

The Twenty-Second.

The anniversary of Washington's birth was not marked by any special demonstration in our town. The bank and public offices were closed, and the military company of the town had a target practice in the morning and a drill in the afternoon. The company has been recently reorganized and most of the members are new recruits.

The prize shot for, was a gold pin, representing a knapsack, to be publicly presented at the armory, on Friday evening the 3d of March, by Mr. D. Jas. Blackistor, one of the judges, until which time the successful party will not be known.

The New French Executive.

M. Thiers, the new "Chief Executive" of the French nation, is a native of Marseilles, of humble parentage and distinguished career. Thirty-five years ago this month he was appointed premier of France, with the portfolio of foreign affairs, and in the political agitation of this century in France he has taken an active and influential part. He was born April 16, 1787. He received an excellent education in the public schools of Marseilles, and studied law at Aix. Admitted to the bar in 1820, he soon discovered that he was not destined to become an eminent lawyer and he shortly abandoned that career for letters and politics, in both of which departments he attained great eminence.

M. Thiers has filled some of the highest official positions of France. His most famous literary achievement was his "History of the French Revolution." The first two volumes of this great work appeared in 1823. Recognizing his own imperfect knowledge, he devoted himself to study with great resolution, taking Baron Louis as his instructor in finances, and General Foy and Jomini in tactics and strategy. He sought every source of accurate information, and, with the fullest knowledge that he could acquire, set to work at the third and succeeding volumes. This famous book had an extensive sale in France, and was received with great popularity, especially after the revolution of 1830.

He strongly opposed the war of July, 1870, on the ground that France was not prepared for it. After the disaster of Sedan he was sent on a mission to all the courts of Europe to seek recognition for the new republic and aid against Prussia. In both he was unsuccessful. M. Thiers is a grand officer of the Legion of Honor, and is a member of many distinguished foreign orders. He is a strong adherent of the Orleans dynasty. This man, who was very near being mobbed last July for opposing war, is now made chief executive of France.

Another Danger on Shipboard.

A marvelous accident nearly caused the death of the living freight of the steamship England, from Queenstown 12th ult. for New York. She had about 200 passengers, and among her cargo an immense amount of bleaching powders in barrels. On the fifth day out, as detailed by the New York Herald, the crew working below were suddenly driven on deck by the presence of offensive, suffocating fumes. The last to reach the deck fell senseless, their eyes almost protruding from their sockets, their mouths wide open, and with death imprinted on every lineament of their countenances.—Next, the head wind drove the Stygian fumes into the saloons, and the passengers, in a panic, fled to the deck, gathering forward, where the wind gave a breathing place. Attempts failed to throw overboard the obnoxious cargo, which had caused the trouble by the shifting and breaking open of some of the barrels, the contents of which, uniting with the water shipped in a gale, developed the poisonous gases, and the efforts to lower firemen to the engine-rooms to replenish the fires under the boilers were also futile. In the meantime every bit of metal about the ship was fast turning a sort of white or pearl color, and the men who had to handle shovels, bars, or anything that this sediment, as it were, had accumulated upon, soon had their hands so badly eaten that they cracked open and rendered them powerless to longer work. Finally, the ship was put about and returned to Queenstown under sail, where the powdur was thrown over bymeans of grappling irons, and the passengers were transferred to the Italy, which sailed on the 25th.

VENDUE NOTES can be obtained at this office.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
