THE LAW OF LIBEL.—The Court of Appeals, in a case in which Geo. Snyder sued the proprietors of a partisan newspaper of Baltimore city for damages for an alleged libellous publication, have recently given an opinion of the law of libel, reversing the judgment of the Superior Court in its instructions to the jury, and remanding the case for a new trial. The paper in question published a statement that republican clerks passing from Washington to Philadelphia to vote were assaulted and beaten by ruffians in Baltimore, and that a young man, a newsboy on the train, "who takes every occasion to insult republican passengers, appears to have been in collusion with the ruffians." The plaintiff claimed that he lost his situation by this publication. Judge Dobbin instructed the jury if they should find that the peace of the city had been repeatedly disturbed, it was the right and duty of the defendants, as publishers of a public newspaper; to publish the facts, and comment thereon with such severity as to rebuke a flagrant breach of the peace.

The Court of Appeals, after discussing the nature of defamatory words, and what makes them actionable Per se, laid down as a rule that much that would injure a man's reputation and expose him to hatred, contempt or ridicule, would be libellous if printed, not actionable if spoken. There is always injury where the object or effect is the exposure of the accused to criminal punishment or degradation in society. The court further held that the words used being defamatory, and the question arising as to weather the publication was "privileged," even though the charge proved untrue, provided it was made in good faith, believing it to be true, reasonable prudence having been exercised in the ascertainment of facts, they could not agree with the view taken by the court below, which extended the doctrine of privilege further than is warranted by authority.

The court then went on to define what were privileged publications, in which it included all public debates, judicial proceedings, &c., for the reason that the advantage of the community largely outweighed any private injury resulting from the publication. Alluding to the opinion of Chief Justice Cochburn, in Rish All Bey vs. Whitehead, the court said:

"The proposition there maintained is that any man, editor or private citizen, has a right honestly to discuss all matters of public interest and to comment and criticise fairly the public acts of official persons. Such a proposition we do not for a moment question. So far as the publication before us was confined to the statement of the visitors, and violent assaults upon passengers, and reflected upon the delinquency of the police authorities and other officials, if made in good faith and upon reasonable grounds of information, the case comes within well recognized principles, and the publication is to that extent privileged. But such privilege does not extend to the right of charging the plaintiff, a private citizen, with having been in collusion with the ruffians and wrong-doers, and aiding them in selecting the victims of their intended violence by spotting the republicans for that purpose. Such a charge is not within the editor's privilege; he makes it upon his responsibility as any other citizen, and is bound to establish its truth by his pleading and proof, or to answer to the party for the damage and injury he may suffer in consequence of the charge."—*Balto. A WONDERFUL SKATING FEAT—A Little Jaunt of One Hundred Miles.—Shortly after the opening of the New York Central Park skating ponds, a man of medium height, with well-knit, sinewy limbs, appeared. The marvelous rapidity with which he skimmed over the ice astonished all beholders. The fastest skaters on the ponds were left far behind in their attempts to keep up with him. This man was Charles June, of Newburgh. It now seems that there are two more fast skaters in Newburgh, as the following account will show:

"On Thursday week three Newburgher, named respectively Charles F. and George June and Gilbert Carpenter, skated from Newburgh to Albany, a distance of 100 miles, in seven hours and five minutes skating time. From Newburgh to Poughkeepsie, distance sixteen miles, they found the ice very rough, and were one hour and fifty minutes skating that distance. From Hyde Park to Catskill, forty miles, the ice was in splendid condition for skating and ice-boating, and they made that distance in two hours and a half, or an average of sixteen miles an hour. Just before reaching Castleton they found the ice to be very rough, and were compelled to cross and recross the river several times. On the last mile of the one hundred Charles F. June made a 'spurt,' and skated it in three minutes and one second. The feat is believed to be with-out parallel in the history of skating on the Hudson."

The Promised Retrenchments.

The term "retrenchment," which the administration organs have been harping on for the year 1870, has turned out all bosh. The deficiency bill for this year foots up $10,000,000 and sundry appropriations for the army, navy, and other purposes, are larger this year than last. The poor tax payers are periodically tickled with sweet words and soft phrases, conveying promises of reform, which shall make their burdens lighter, but these promises are found as tangible as air. The knaves in power mean nothing; and to-day, instead of retrenchment, Grant's supporters are about engineering a new educational system for the country, which will create at least 50,000 new office holders. Every move now made by Grant & Co. undermines, little by little, the power of the States, tends to centralization, and increases yearly the taxes of the abused millions, who seem to grow more spiritless and cowardly as time rolls on. Had the Queen of England encroached upon the rights of her subjects to the degree President Grant has upon the rights of American citizens in the past five years, her head would have, ere this, rolled into a basket of saw dust and her children become political outcasts. When is this country to awake, or well it sleep forever?—N. Y. Day Book.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF A
Valuable Farm in Kent County, NEAR KENNEDYVILLE.

BY virtue of a Decree of the Circuit Court for Kent county, sitting as a Court of Equity, the undersigned as Trustee, will offer at Public Sale, to the highest bidder, at the Hotel of D. U. Dewees in Kennedyville, Kent county, Maryland, on Wednesday, the 15th day of March, 1871, between the hours of 11 o'clock, A. M., and 1 o'clock, P. M.,

All That Farm

Known as the Maxwell or Dunlap Farm, and now occupied by Lewis C. Justis, and containing 381 Acres, 1 Rood & 16 Perches,

MORE OR LESS.

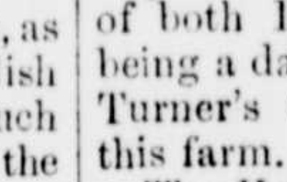

This Farm lays about one mile from Kennedyville, the present terminus of the Kent County Rail Road, and adjoins the lands of the late Daniel Jones, Dr. T. C. Kennard, and others.

The Farm is divided into five fields, and is under good fencing, all the road lines being enclosed by a good Osage Hedge. About the balance all arable. The soil is a medium clay, kind and productive, has been well limed, and is in a high state of cultivation. No portion of Kent county is more thrifty or improving, or more accessible to the markets of both Philadelphia and Baltimore, there being a daily boat to Baltimore, touching at Turner's Creek, two and a-half miles from this farm.

65 Acres are in Meadow and Wood,

The Kent County Rail Road, as extended, cuts one corner of the farm, giving opportunity for delivery of lime, &c., on the farm; and the track is now laid four miles below Kennedyville, and will soon be completed to Chestertown.

The Improvements are a two-story BRICK DWELLING, in good condition; three rooms and a Kitchen down stairs, and four rooms up stairs.

There are the usual OUT BUILDINGS.

THE TERMS OF SALE are—One thousand dollars, cash, on the day of sale, and the balance in three equal instalments, in six, eighteen, and thirty-six months from the day of sale; the credit payments to be secured by the purchaser's bond, with approved security; or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. Stamps and deed at expense of purchaser.

VENDUE NOTES can be obtained at this office.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
