LOCAL MATTERS.

Cruelty to a Destitute Child.

Constable Ayres was last week notified that a negro child was being starved and ill-treated in the "swamps." With his usual alacrity he procured a warrant from G. M. Hart, Justice of the Peace, and going to the house of Anna Ward, brought away her grand daughter, aged about 9 years. The girl stated that she had eaten nothing for three days. When examined by the Justice, she was found to be badly marked all over her body, and also bore marks of recent brutal treament: she says she was tied up by her wrists the evening before and on the morning that she was brought away, because a few cents were given her at a store, with part of which she bought something to eat, and carried the balance home. The sight of the money led the negroes to believe that she had informed on them, and she was then whipped, as they told her, for telling lies to white people. The girl was so weak she could scarcely walk, and talked in a faint tone, showing very great debility. She had on an old dress that scarce sufficed to hide her nakedness, and of material not too heavy for summer; on her feet a pair of what once were women's shoes, but now full of holes and no soles upon them, the tops only clinging to her ancles. Clad in this condition she was sent out to the stores all through the winter, to buy snuff with a few old rags, her road leading through the woods where the water is now a foot deep The child was sent to the alms house until she could be brought befere the Orphans' Court—for truly she is an orphan, although she has a mother living.

Three negro men lived through the winter in this hut, and the girl says they were often all without any food for days together: we know they have been offered work.

There are more such cases of destitution if the officers will only be on the alert: we wish to see them save the children from suffering if the parents will not work.

A Second Installment

Of Mr. David Smith's family, for the Ship Yard Farm, came down from Pennsylvania last Friday. They brought with them a regular Pennsylvania wagon and a team of four beautiful, large, bay horses. The wagon is of an entirely different shape from ours, being a scoop or coal scuttle shape at each end, and four times as large as ours. It was a novel sight to our people to see them going along with a wagon hauling at one load 80 bushels of corn. Mr. Smith and his family are quite a reinforcement to the Rees' Corner neighborhood, and we wish them a hearty welcome.

Fire.

The Dwelling of Mr. H. H. Rasin's on his farm on the Sassafras river, was destroyed by fire on Monday morning last. Supposed to have caught from a coal oil lamp in the kitchen. Mr. Rasin's loss is estimated at five thousand dollars.

A Dangerous Innovation.—A servant girl in Easton, Penn., read a story in the papers which told how the hunters of Siberia, when they are hungry and have no food, lie down, place a board over the stomach, and get their companions to sit on it. If we are to believe the narrative, the Siberian hunter immediately rises like a giant refreshed with wine, feeling just as good as if he had eaten a hearty Christmas dinner. Now, this domestic, upon turning the matter over with the darkened recesses of her intellect, could not perceive why the principle would not apply as well to an American babe as to a wild rover in Siberia. So when the next offspring of her employer cried with hunger, this woman, instead of giving it sustenance immediately from a glass bottle with a gum thing on the nozzle, went and got the pieboard, spread it over that unsuspecting child, and sat on it a quarter of an hour. Like King Henry, "it never smiled again," and the hired girl told the man who has charge of the jail that there certainly must be something wrong about that Siberian-hunter system, or else the newspapers did not explain it properly.

Consolidation.—The 5th and 6th Divisions (Queen Anne's and Kent counties) of the 1st Collection District of Maryland, have been consolidated, and will hereafter be known as the 5th Division, and be under the charge of John T. Hand, Esq. of Queen Anne's county.

☞ In order to keep negroes from the places of amusement, the following rule is resorted to in New Orleans. A certificate is given to purchasers of tickets to the opera, for instance:

"Opera House of New Orleans.
Parquette—No. 115.
Contract

Between the Opera Association of New Orleans and the holder of this ticket.

It is agreed, and this ticket is sold with the understanding, that the Comptroller shall have the right to refuse admission to or to expel the holder thereof upon returning the regular price of the same."

Thus the pleasure-seeker buys the ticket under contract that he shall be put out on the refunding of the money at the pleasure of the comptroller of the place of amusement. In this way no law is violated, and the unwelcome negroes are excluded legally by their own consent.

☞ A private letter from Paris brings to our notice a curious case of what is called the irony of history. The great exhibition of 1851 was supposed to be the inauguration of a period of perpetual peace. A large collection of French wheats was sent to it by order of the National Assembly. After the Exhibition these samples were stored for the benefit of the curious in the galleries of the Conservatoire des Arts et Metiers. The directors of the museum and their families, and the sick and wounded (for whom beds had been prepared in the building), have lived through the latter portion of the siege upon good white bread made out of the samples above mentioned.

Liability of Banks for Special Deposits.—At Cleveland, Ohio, an important suit was decided, involving the liability of banks for special deposits. Thomas Dawlin sued the Second National Bank to recover $10,000 in the United States bonds deposited as a special deposit with the cashier on May 1st, 1869. The cashier subsequently became a defaulter and committed suicide. The bank officers said the bonds had been appropriated by the cashier, and refused to acknowledge any liability for them. The jury, however, gave a verdict for plaintiff for the amount with interest from the time of deposit.

The Next Govenor of Maryland.—The following gentlemen have been named as candidates for the gubernatorial office next Fall: Hon. Robert Fowler, of Baltimore county, late State Treasurer; Gen. Robert H. Carr, of Baltimore city; Hon. F. C. Latrobe, of Baltimore city, late speaker of the House of Delegates; Hon. R. B Carmichael, of Queen Anne's county; Lemuel Showell, Esq., of Worcester county; Hon. H. D. Farnandis and Hon. W. Archer, of Harford county: Mayor Banks, of Baltimore city; Hon. Jas C. Clarke, of Washington county, and several other gentlemen.

The Nathan Murder.

New York, March 8.—Superintendent Kelso, of the police department, in a conversation this evening with representatives of the press, stated that from about six weeks subsequent to the murder of Benjamin Nathan, the detectives were convinced that Wm. Forrester was the perpetrator of the crime. A proclamation describing Forrester, and offering a reward of $2,500 for his arrest has been issued.

The democrats at Des Moines, Iowa, have elected their mayor, treasurer and mashal, and the republicans the remainder of the ticket. Des Moines is usually 500 republican majority.

BLACKSMITHING AND WHEELWRIGHTING.

WE, the undersigned, take this method of informing our friends and the public that we have connected Wheelwrighting with our former business, believing it will be better for ourselves and our customers too, as we will be able to work much lower where there is to be but one profit. We have in our employ. We intend to have the wood work done as we have had our Blacksmithing—that is to say, in the very best manner; and we are willing for the public to be the judges. Our experience is that "the best is the cheapest."

We will have Plows, Cultivators & Harrows for sale. We shall also put up new Carts,

Wagons, Dearborns, Express Wagons,

&c., in good style.

ALL KINDS OF REPAIRING DONE AT SHORT NOTICE.

Our work will be done as low as at any other establishment here or elsewhere, in the State or outside of it. We are determined to leave no excuse in the way of those who have heretofore been sending their money out of our own community—where it is so sadly needed—to build up manufacturers at a distance. We challenge a comparison of our work with that done any where else, as to price, material, workmanship, style, finish, or any other essential.

VENDUE NOTES
can be obtained at this office.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
