LOCAL MATTERS.

Shooting in the Streets.

Within the past week or two there has been considerable reckless shooting about the streets of our town at night. A week or more since, a pointer dog of Mr. N. G. Westcott's, was shot by some one, with a duck gun in our streets, a portion of the load going into the windows of Wm. H. Hamilton and B. B. Perkins' stores. Wednesday night of this week, about 10 o'clock, some one shot a pistol ball into the sign of E. T. Willis, watch maker. As Mr. Willis was at the time engaged in putting in the bow-window shutters, the ball must have gone but a short distance above his head. This reckless shooting is not only contrary to the town ordinances, but extremely dangerous, and unless arrested by the town authorities may result in the loss of life, or seriously injuring some of our citizens.

The Orphans' Court

Met on Tuesday: present, Jas. Beck of Geo,, Thos. Lusby, and Wm. Stevens.

After passing a number of accounts, the last will and testament of William S. Lassell, dec'd., was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded Eliason and John T. Dodd were appointed to appraise the said estate, and the legal notice to creditors ordered.

E. A. Vannort, executor of Daniel Hanes, returned his first and final administration account, which was passed and ordered for record.

William J. Griffith, executor of Jacob Caulk, returned his first administration account—passed, and ordered to be recorded.

Samuel Huslock, guardian to Eliza T. Money, returned his guardian account for the years 1869 and '70, which was passed.

Isaac Holly, guardian to Isaac E. Holly, Lewis M. and Eugene Holly, (colored) returned guardian accounts for the years 1869 and '70—passed, and ordered for record.

Presentation.

On Friday the 10th inst., at the Armory of the Reed Rifles, the result of the target shooting of the 22d ultimo was announced by the judges, and the presentation to the best shot made.

The Company met in full dress uniform with arms and knapsacks, and were drawn up in line, the Armory being moderately well filled with ladies and gentlemen, when Mr. C. A. A. Stanley, one of the judges of the shooting, announced the result of the late practice, as follows:

Private Hubert Smith made the three best average shots—private John Ireland made the second three best shots and the best single shot—private Carroll made the third best shooting.

The prize, a handsome gold pin representing a soldier's knapsack, engraved "G. Co. 13th Reg. M. N. G." was then presented by D. James Blackiston, Esq., in a very neat and appropriate speech, which we regret to be unable to give our readers.

The pin is to be the property of the Company, and the best shot at the last target practice to have the possession of it until he is excelled by some better marksman.

An Incident at St. Paul's.

That truth is sometimes stranger than fiction was forced upon us stronger than ever upon hearing announced last Sunday that a collection would be taken up for a young woman away out in Minnesota, who was a baptized member of this Church, and who now called upon her mother to aid her to get bread. All she asked was money sufficient to clothe her, so that she might go into the city she was near, and find work.

She was one of a number who were hunted up from the highways and byways by the members of the Church, at a time when unusual efforts were being made, under the ministration of Rev. Mr. Sutton, to bring in all who had never been marked with the sign of Christ. And now, after years of travel and wanderings, perhaps of suffering too, she is away out in a strange land—knowing no one—having, she says, no friend but God, she remembers her baptizmal certificate; and, as a last hope, she writes a letter and directs it to the Minister and God-parents who signed there for her—all their names she puts on the envelope in the hope that one of them may get it. One does; it is put before the people who saw her baptized, and help is sent her. Truly to her does baptism bring blessings in a way unexpected by her and by all who once had seen her taken into the care of the Good Shepherd.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

For a Cough and Cold, no better remedy can be had. Take small doses three times a day and put the feet in warm water at night, until the disease is broken up.

For Influenza, when it affects the throat or lungs, take the same course.

For Whooping Cough, give small doses three or four times a day.

For Croup, give large and frequent doses until the disease is overcome.

No family should be without the Cherry Pectoral on hand to protect them, in case of attack, from the above complaints. Its timely use often spares the patient a great amount of suffering and risk, which he would incur by waiting until he could get other aid. Parents, keep it in your houses for the exigencies that arise. Lives dear to you may be saved by it.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that the best qualities it ever possessed are strictly maintained.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

Sold by J. L. Stam, Chestertown; J. P. Ireland, Galena, and all druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. [Nov. 19, 1870.

ALL KINDS OF REPAIRING DONE AT SHORT NOTICE.

Our work will be done as low as at any other establishment here or elsewhere, in the State or outside of it. We are determined to leave no excuse in the way of those who have heretofore been sending their money out of our own community—where it is so sadly needed—to build up manufacturers at a distance. We challenge a comparison of our work with that done any where else, as to price, material, workmanship, style, finish, or any other essential.

MILLING.

CHESTERTOWN, DEC. 27TH, 1870.

The subscriber most respectfully informs the Public that after the first day of January next he will take possession of the Mill and will conduct it, he hopes, more to the satisfaction of the Public than for some time past. He is in treaty for a very superior Miller, and soon as the Spring opens will make some improvements which must render her equal to any Mill on the Eastern Shore.

He hopes whenever there is any cause of complaint to be at once notified of the same. By strict attention or supervision, and competent workmen, he hopes soon to be able to re-establish her former reputation.
