

The Farmers' Column.

Peninsula Fruit Growers' Association.

From the Middletown Transcript.

The Association met in the State House, at Dover, on Tuesday, April 18th, 1871, at 2 o'clock, P. M. Vice President Ridgely in the chair.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

The proposition of the railroad companies in regard to the rates to be charged for carrying the crop of 1871, was then read as follows:

The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad.

OFFICE MASTER OF TRANSPORTATION, PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28, 1871.

Dr. Henry Ridgely, Chairman of the Committee of Peach Growers' Association, Dover, Del.—Dear Sir: At the meeting of your committee with the presidents of the railroads between the Peninsula and Jersey City, N. J., last week, an offer was made to you of the following rates for the transportation of peaches the coming season, viz:

Dover to Jersey City, per car load (of 16,000lbs.) $100, and the Delaware State Tax added.

Middletown to Jersey City, per car load (of 16,000 lbs.) $90, and Delaware State Tax added, and all other stations in Delaware at not exceeding the same rate protionally in even dollars. All stations in Maryland at proportional rates, clear of Delaware State Tax. Will you please inform us if these rates are acceptable and are agreed to by your committee. Very respectfully, CHARLES K. IDE.

Master of Trans. P. W. & B. R. R. Co.

WALTER FREEMAN,

Gen. Frt. Agt. United Companies of N. J.

In connection with this proposition an explanatory letter of Isaac Hinckley, Esq. was read as follows:

The Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad.

PRESIDENT'S OFFICE, PHILADELPHIA, March 13, 1871.

H Ridgely, Esq., Chairman, &c, Dover, Del.—Dear Sir: I have your letter of the 11th instant, advising that there is an objection amongst your committee to our proposition in repard to peach traffic.

I think that the objection is caused by a misunderstanding, for while I was at Dover I learned that our proposition was construed to mean that the whole Delaware State Tax was to be added to the rates named,

I am glad to have this chance to explain that there will be collected from the peach traffic (the same as heretofore) only a fair proportion of all our expenses, including taxes. I know that the peach growers cannot object to paying their proportion of our expenses with the other customers of the road, and taxes are an expense as much as fuel or wages. There would be no necessity of making a special matter of taxes if these were laid equitably upon the company, for my stockholders are quite willing to pay a fair tax upon their property. But the legislature purposes, I am told, to make this company collect and pay over one-fourth of the whole amount assessed in the State, while we do not own one-twentieth of the property which is benefitted by the State Tax. Now if this Company be made to raise this large amount, much of it must of course be collected from their business in Delaware, because the people of other States will not consent to pay our taxes, (and by our I mean yours and mine and those of those other citizens of Delaware.)

Please explain to your committee that if the tax laid upon this Company be no larger than that laid in 1869 upon our capital stock, earnings and rolling stock, the proportion to be borne by the peach traffic will be no larger than it was then.

Very truly yours,
ISAAC HINCKLEY,
President.

The subject of freight charges, State taxes and their bearing upon the peach interest, were then discussed by Messrs. Todd, Samuel Townsend, Fulton, Brown, Heverin and Biggs, when Mr. Fulton offered the following resolution, which was adopted with but one dissenting voice:

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Association, the rate proposed by the railroad companies for carrying peaches for 1871 is too high, in view of the present prospect of a large crop, and therefore, that the whole subject of freights and transportation be referred back to the Executive Committee to confer with the railroad authorities and report to an adjourned meeting to be held in the State House on the 9th of May next, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Biggs offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committe of three be appointed to prepare resolutions and present them for the action of the next meeting of this Association, expressing the views of the Association in regard to the unfair and unjust tax imposed upon the railroad company, thereby compelling the peach shippers, in an indirect manner, with other freighters upon the Delaware Railroad, to pay more than their fair and just proportion of the State taxes.

At the suggestion of Mr. Brown, Mr. Biggs modified his resolution by striking out the words "unfair and unjust."

The resolution was then advocated by Mossrs. Biggs, Brown, Samuel Townsend, John Townsend and Hayes, and opposed by Messrs. Fulton, Heverine, Day and Todd.

Mr. Fulton moved to strike out all after the word "company" which was agreed to.

The resolution was then agreed to, and is as follows:

Resolved, That a committe of three be appointed to prepare resolutions and present them for the action of the next meeting of this Association, expressing the views of this Association in regard to the tax imposed upon the railroad company.

Adjourned to meet May 9th, 1871.

From the Aldine for April.

Spring Flowers.

April has dallied with us too long,
Now putting us off with a robin's song,
Now out of a cloud of gusty glooms,
Nodding and tossing her alder plumes,
As they were sprays of Summer-blooms;
Anon, with sunshine on her crown,
Shifting her cloak, all ragged and brown,
To give us glimpses of her green gown,
Lifting her veil, or glimmering through,
Just to see how blue, how blue
Are her eyes, the deep, enchanting hue
Which brim's the liverleaf's cup with blue.

It is time for April's flowers to show
Along the hem of her gown's soft flow.
I plucked the earliest, long ago,
From a cloud-piled field of sunset-sky,
Ere the wild March-snows had drifted by;
Lilac, white, and the delicate dye
Tinging the cheeks of anemones,
Pearl-color, pink of the buds that drink
At a brown brook's mossy, flower-fringed brink,
And rare, even on those upper leas,
That luminous tint of clear pale green,
Which only blooms in the sky, I ween.

It is time for April's flowers to show
Along the hem of her gown's soft flow.
I plucked the earliest, long ago,
When robin the wizard's song was new.
A vision of blossoms serenely blue,
Breathing shy, delicate odors forth,
Appeared and vanished, of aery-birth,
A vision by robin conjured forth.
But it comes no more, the robins sing,
And I wait with closed eyes, listening,
But the sky-blue flowers, with starry eyes
And odorous breath, no more arise.

The Jew Before the World.

In a late number of the Jewish Messenger, we find the following:—

"The better and truer sentiment respecting the Jewish race, has never been so generally entertained as at this moment. It required the genius of Disraeli to establish for this world of readers an ideal Jew of a loftier tone than the traditional creation of the stage. A generation passed away since 'Coningsby" first taught the English people that the genius of the age, was singularly embodied in the Jewish race. Claiming for it even more than its due, Disraeili had the satisfaction to find the mediæval prejudice against it slowly and surely crushed, and the Jew recognized as the equal of his fellow-Englishman in the Halls of Parliament.

"The same battle is fought to-day in these United States, with the strong religious element out of the contest or necessarily overmatched by disunion of Church and State. Prejudice against the Jew exists in many breasts that should be utterly free from bias. It is fostered by a singular ignorance and intolerance, imported into America with some of our least acceptable emigrants. It is stimulated by occasional lapses on the part of Israelites of bad character, guilty of petty offences, and their lineage and religious confession paraded in the papers. The public mind needs to be educated on this subject. The world must know, by repeated lessons in current and past history, that the Jewish race is bright, pure, commanding; that admixture has not impaired its powers or dimmed its glory; that, if the Jews continue to be a peculiar people, it is in the highest sense—the people preserving with the religion emanating from on high a history which is unparalleled among nations, and a record proofs of whose authenticity science daily discloses. We never did consider it marvelous that a talented Jew should be elected Alderman, Mayor, Governor, or Judge; it is so cummon a circumsuance in France, Belgium, Holland, and Great Britain, that the religion of the successful candidate is not mentioned.

"In this free country, the Hebrew race is not to be left behind. In the direction of our social, commercial, and political interests, the Jew is rapidly taking a conspicious position. We no longer regard it as a favor that Presidents or Conventions shall designate citizens of the Jewish faith to positions of importance. It is a recognition of the latest power of the Jewish race, which must come, if we have patience. By the time there is a Hebrew in every State occupying a post of dignity, and performing his duties with characteristic ease and ability; the newspapers will be tired of telling us the race or religion of a petty malefactor, or a delinquent merchant, who happens to be a bad Israelite. It may savor of arrogance, but we feel justified in keeping the Jewish name proudly before American readers, until they have become ashamed of that ignorance and bigotry which see in the Israelite a being different from any other decent citizen, and which attaches to him either curiosity or obloquy.

City vs. Country Papers.

Take, for example, the Cincinnati Gazette. This paper charges for advertising 25 cents per line, each insertion. A column contains 333 lines, worth, at this rate, $84.25 per week, or for 52 weeks, $4,327.44! While but few country papers get as much as $100 a column for a whole year! Can you understand now why the city papers can be furnished so cheap?

The reading matter which appears in city weeklies is simply a rehash of that which has appeared in the daily during the preceding week, and the labor for setting the type being paid for its appearance in the daily, why, of course, it costs nothing to transfer it to the weekly. A city editor can "kill two birds with one stone"—a country editor can not. Every line that appears in a country paper is set for that paper alone, and can appear in no other, while it is different in the city, as we have shown. Taken all in all, there is far more labor required, and a greater expense incurred, in the publication of a country newspaper than our readers imagine. How assential it is, therefore, that they should be encouraged, and their industry rewarded by every citizen in the county subscribing for the paper, and doing all he can towards supporting it.

SWEET OIL FOR POISONS.—A plain farmer says: "It is now twenty years since I learned that sweet oil would cure bite of a rattlesnake, not knowing that it would cure any other poison, both on man, or beast. I think no farmer should be without a bottle of it in the house. The patient must take a spoonful of it internally, and bathe the wound for a cure. To cure a horse it requires eight times as much as it does for a man. Here let me say, of one of the most extreme cases of snake-bite in this neighborhood—eleven years this summer—where the case had been of thirty days' standing, and the patient had been given up by his physicians, I heard of it and crrried the oil and gave one spoonful, which effected a cure. It is an antidote for arsenic and strychnine. It will cure bites of bees, spiders, or other insects, and will cure persons who have been poisoned by a low running vine, in the meadows, called ivy."

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
COMPOUND FLUID
Extract Catawba
GRAPE PILLS.

Component Parts—Fluid Extract Rhubarb and Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Juice.

For Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Bilious Affections, Sick or Nervous Headache, Costiveness, etc. Purely Vegetable, containing no Mercury, Minerals or Deleterious Drugs.

H

These Pills are the most delightfully pleasant purgative, superseding castor oil, salts, magnesia, etc. There is nothing more acceptable to the stomach. They give tone, and cause neither nausea nor griping pains. They are composed of the finest ingredients. After a few days' use of them, such an invigoration of the entire system takes place as to appear miraculous to the weak and enervated, whether arising from imprudence or disease. H. T. Helmbold's Compound Fluid Extract Catawba Grape Pills are not sugar-coated, from the fact that sugar-coated pills do not dissolve, but pass through the stomach without dissolving, consequently do not produce the desired effect. The Catawba Grape Pills, being pleasant in taste and odor, do not necessitate their being sugar-coated. 50 cents per box.

E

It gives the complexion a clear and healthy color and restores the patient to a state of health and purity. For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of pains and swelling of the bones, ulcerations of the throat and legs, blotches, pimples on the face, erysipelas and all scaly eruptions of the skin, and beautifying the complexion.

M

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S
Concentrated Fluid Extract Buchu,
THE GREAT DIURETIC,

has cured every case of diabetes in which it has been given, irritation of the neck of the bladder and inflammation of the kidneys, ulceration of the kidneys and bladder, retention of urine, diseases of the prostrate gland, stone in the bladder, culculus, gravel, brick-dust deposit, and mucous or milky discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms: indisposition to exertion, loss of power, loss of memory, difficulty of breathing, weak nerves, trembling, horror of disease, wakefulness, dimness of vision, pain in the back, hot hands, flushing of the body, dryness of the skin, eruption on the face, universal lassitude of the nervous system, etc.

B

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is diuretic and blood-purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, and excesses and imprudences of life, impurities of the blood, &c., superseding Coaiva in affections for which it is used, and syphilitic affections—in these diseases used in connection with Helmbold's Rose Wash.

LADIES.—In many affections peculiar to ladies the Extract Buchu is unequaled by any other remedy—as in chlorosis or retention, irregularity, painfulness or suppression of customary evacuations, ulcerated or schirrus state of the uterus, leuchorrea or whites, sterility, and for all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from indiscretion or habits of dissipation. It is prescribed extensively by the most eminent physicians and midwifes for enfeebled and delicate constitutions, of both sexes and all ages, attended with any of the above diseases or symptoms.

O

H. T. HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
Cures Diseases, arising from imprudences, habits of dissipation, etc., in all their stages, at little expense, little or no change of diet, no inconvenience and no exposure. It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to urinate, thereby removing obstructions, preventing and curing strictures of the urethra, allaying pain and inflammation, so frequent in this class of diseases, and expelling all poisonous matter.

Thousands who have been the victims of incompetent persons, and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they have been deceived, and that the Poison has, by the use of powerful astringents, been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu for all affections and diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. $1.50 per bottle.

L

HENRY T. HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH
Cannot be surpassed as a Face Wash, and will be found the only specific remedy in every species of cutaneous affection. It speedily eradicates pimples, spots, scorbutic dryness, indurations of the cutaneous membrane, &c., dispels redness and incipient inflammation, hives, rash, moth patches, dryness of scalp or skin, frost bites, and all purposes for which salves or ointments are used; restores the skin to a state of purity and softness, and insures continued healthy action to the tissue of its vessels, on which depends the agreeable clearness and vivacity of complexion so much sought and admired. But however valuable as a remedy for existing defects of the skin, H. T. Helmbold's Rose Wash has long sustained its principal claim to unbounded patronage by possessing qualities which render it a toilet appendage of the most superlative and congenial character, combining in an elegant formula those prominent requisites, safety and efficacy—the invariable accompaniments of its use—as a preservative and refresher of the complexion.
