LOCAL MATTERS.

The Orphans' Court

Met on Tuesday: present, Jas. Beck of Geo., Thos. Lusby, and Wm. Stevens.

The Court passed a number of claims against the estates of deceased parties.

R. Hynson, exect'r. of R. S. Thomas, returned an inventory of the personal estate of deceased, which was ordered to be recorded, and obtained an order to sell the same.

C. J. Scott, executor of Jas. G. Chrisfield, returned his first administration account, which was passed and ordered to recorded.

The County Commissioners

Met on Tuesday last: present, William T. Hepbron, Thomas P. Dixon and Stevenson Constable.

Ordered, that the tax erroneously charged Miss Frances Anderson, for 1870, be refunded.

Sewell Hepbron, Wm. N. E. Wickes, and Geo. W. Davis, Esq's., were appointed examiners, to determine whether the public convenience requires a public road commencing on the road from Turner's Creek to Kennedyville, and running through the lands of J. W. Webb and others to a branch of Turner's Creek, and thence to Shrewsbury Lane.

The bonds of C. W. Warren and W. V. Lucas, tax collectors, were received and approved.

New Music.

We have received from CHARLES B. BAYLY, 221 Baltimore street near Charles, the following music:

True to the Gray—words by Pearl Rivers. Music by Paul Helen.
Lee's Funeral March—by same.
Mazurka de Salon—by same.
The Nymph—music by same.
I Dreamed of Thee—music by same.
Last night, Sweet Love, I Dreamt of Thee—words and music by H. E. Loane.

Persons in want of any kind of Music or Musical Instruments—especially Parlor Organs—are referred to the advertisement of Mr. Bayly elsewhere.

Fine Rain.

Thursday last our section was blessed with a copious rain. The wheat was beginning to suffer much, and the farmers to utter loud complaints.

Early Wheat.

Pere Chambers, an old and well known colored citizen of our town, brought to our office on the second instant, several stalks of wheat headed, from his college lot. We hear that the wheat is commencing to head in several of the lots near town. Harvest must be some weeks earlier than usual.

INTERESTING TO WHISKY LOVERS.—An official statement shows that the total spirit-producing capacity of the 300 distilleries in the United States is 216,354 gallons, and the supposed daily consumption is 230,000, there are 13,646 gallons more consumed than is made. The excess is presumed to be the result of adulteration. The distilleries for the year ending April 30, 1871, produced 43,123 gallons more than the past year.

HORRIBLE OUTRAGE—A Negro, His Wife and Four Children Murdered, and the House Burned Over their Bodies.—The Raleigh Sentinel of Tuesday, 2d inst., has correspondence from Rutherford Court house, which give details of a shocking outrage. Silas Weston, a free negro before the war, living on the border of McDowell county, has for many years lived with Polly Steadman, a white woman of loose character. Polly had four children between fourteen and two years of age — Some time ago three notorious characters —Govan and Columbus Adair and M. Bernard—were charged with the theft of a quantity of brandy. Silas was the principal witness against them, and they had threatened his life. The following is from the sworn deposition of the woman, Polly Steadman: On Wednesday evening, shortly after nightfall, the dog began barking, and the next moment the door was broken in and the three men above named rushed in, firing as they came. Silas fell dead with two balls in the head. One of the men stood over the children, shooting them like pigs. Polly tried to get under the bed, but was flung back. Then she fought. One of the men attacked her with a knife, and finally, with five deep cuts in the body, her throat gashed and a pistol shot in one eye, she sank to the floor. The bodies were heaped together with a lot of straw and combustible stuff, the pile set on fire, and the ruffians made off. Polly, badly scorched, crawled out, dragging the body of the youngest child, and crawled to the residence of a Mrs. Williams, several hundred yards off. When the people reached the remains of the log house three bleached skeletons grinned from the ashes, and one blistered corpse lay without the door. Polly's testimony was taken; she knew the murderers well; they were her near neighbors, and were not disguised.—Squire Haws issued the necessary warrant, and they were all taken and brought by Sheriff Walker to Rutherford. They were found at home, and one of them in bed, although it was late in the day. It is to be added that all the parties are of the lowest order of society; no political significance attaches to the act except such as may be found in the fact that the three murderers naturally acted, as customary with their class, on the side of the party in power, and for several years past have been radicals, and the terror of conservative voters at the polls.

A VOICE FROM BOSTON.—The patient energy of the South under the goading tyranny of Congress, and the incompetent and corrupt officials who are encouraged by Congress, entitles it to the highest praise. It has steadily pursued a course of frugality and industry that cannot fail not merely to restore its material wealth and prosperity, but develop both to an unprecedented degree. And, while frugal and industrious, and submitting to exactions greater than have ever been imposed upon a conqured people, it has given an example of commercial honor which should go far to condone any previous faults. One million of dollars of indebtedness contracted before the war has been redeemed, payments to that amount having been made by Southern merchants to one house alone, that of Claflin & Co., New York, since the return of peace! and doubtless iustances of similar good faith are within the experience of other mercantile houses in the North.—Boston Post.

SALE OF LIVE STOCK.—At a sale of imported Jersey cattle at Philadelphia, on Tues-Tuesday, heifers sold at prices ranging from $225 to $275. A three-year-old cow brought $430. The whole lot, nineteen in number, was sold. The bidding was very spirited. A Guernsey cow sold for $520, another for $300, another, bought by Mr. Winsor, of Connecticut, at $310. Pigs and boars from the Prince Consort's show at Windsor, England, sold for from $50 to $60. Several ponies and fancy dogs brought good prices.

A Lady with a Feather in her Face.

From the Boston Herald, April 30.

Some time since a lady residing at the South End, while performing the ordinary duties of her household, was suddenly taken with a severe pain on the right side of her face. Supposing it to be a species of neuralgia, and that it would soon pass off, she paid but little attention to it. The pain, however, continued to increase in violence, causing much suffering, and a few days subsequently a small swelling commenced to form on the inside of her face, gradually enlarging in size. Becoming somewhat alarmed, she deemed it necessary to send for a physician, and Dr. L. R. Sheldon was accordingly called in. Upon an examination of the case, being fearful that the swelling might break and produce a lasting disfigurement of the lady's countenance, he decided to remove the tumor by the aid of surgical instruments. The operation acquired considerable skill and caution, but it was successfully performed, the lady undergoing it with remarkable fortitude. The tumor was found to contain a small feather, about one inch in length, which was probably the cause of all the trouble. How it came there is a wonder.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
