LOCAL MATTERS.

Inquest at Betterton.

Daniel W. Dewees, Esq., summoned a jury and held an inquest, on the 9th instant, at Betterton Wharf, on the body of a boy found in the water on Saturday evening by some fishermen, quite a distance below the wharf. The deceased was named William E. Cain, and about 10 years old. It is thought that he fell from the wharf while fishing Friday evening. The jury rendered a verdict of accidental drowning.

Corner Stone Laying.

Monday next at 10½ o'clock A. M., as will be seen by adv[illegible]ent elsewhere, the corner stone of [illegible]ol house will be laid at Still Pond. Arrangements have been made to make the occasion one of much interest. The corner stone of the old Harmony school house, erected half a century ago, will empty its contents into the new stone of this building. Addresses by the Rev. Mr. Brindle and J. H. Kelley, Esq., will be delivered, and vocal music from the Still Pond Choir will enliven the occasion.

The school house is only second to the Church; in fact, we do not know that it would be far wrong to say, more important. For while the Church languishes in the midst of ignorance; where the healthful influence of the school is felt, virtue and Christianity make progress. The school is surely the handmaid of Christianity. No event, then, is of more, or should be of more interest to a locality, than the erection of a school house. We hope to see a proper appreciation of the occasion.

The Comprehensive Family Bible.

Mr. William S. Stam is the agent for the sale of this work, which is properly described by its title, A Comprehensive Family Bible. It contains the Old and New Testaments, with full marginal notes and references, the Apocrypha, Concordance and Psalms in Metre; to which are added Blackwood's Aids to the study of the Sacred Scriptures; and a new and improved Dictionary of the Bible, by Rev. Alfred Nevin, D. D.; sixteen fine steel plates, four illustrative maps in colors, and more than two hundred engravings on wood.

It is impossible to give a perfect idea of this work in a small compass, and we recommend those desiring a complete work for the study of the Scriptures to examine its merits. Mr. Stam will call upon our citizens at an early day.

Mr. C. M. Riley,

Superintendent for Col. Hanson of "Radcliffe," brought us this week some of the finest specimens of Early Rose potatoes we have seen. They are a large, beautiful potato, and yielded at the rate of thirty bushels for one. Also, several heads of the "Hanson" Lettuce. This is a variety which has been cultivated in Col. Hanson's family for a number of years, and is particularly described in H. A. Dreer's Catalogue of '71, the leading Seedman and Florist of Philadelphia. Mr. Dreer pronounces it the best variety known.

The Orphans' Court.

Present, Jas. Beck, of Geo., Thos. Lusby, and William Stevens.

A number of accounts against deceased parties were passed.

A power of attorney from M. Helen Owen to Wyatt Owen was received, and ordered to be filed and recorded.

James W. Ivens, administrator of James W. Ivens, deceased, returned a list of debts due deceased.

R. J. Lusby, administrator of John M. Hudson, and acting guardian to the minor children of deceased, was authorized to make repairs.

J. P. Ireland, administrator of John Edw. Hall, returned his first and final administration account.

Letters of administration De Bonis Non on the personal estate of Samuel Clark, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted to Louis B. Vanhorn, with George Vickers and Martha Clark as sureties; and the legal notice to creditors ordered.

☞ We call attention to the additional advertisement of the Tournament committe. The proper regalia for the various officers is given, the price of admission, &c.

The most persevering efforts on the part of the committee are being made to make this tournament a grand affair.—Its identification with the Order of the Knights of Pythias will attract large numbers of the Order. S. S. Uppercue Grand Recording Scribe of the order, has visited the chairman of the committee and made arrangements for the accommodation of a thousand visitors, who will make an excursion on the Steamer Maryland. Excursions from Annapolis, Wilmington and Philadelphia will also attend. A special invitation has been extended to the Military Company of this town. Ample arrangements have been made for supplying refreshments for man and beast.

We can assure those who wish to attend, that the gentlemen who have the affair in hand will do every thing for their comfort and convenience.

Hon. William Welch met with an accident some days since while driving his carriage through a gate. Before he could shut the gate his horse started, and in attempting to catch it he was struck by the wheel and thrown violently to the ground, breaking his shoulder blade. Though somewhat painful nothing serious is apprehended.

The proper drainage of the streets of a town is a matter of the utmost importance. It is one which has not received the proper attention in our town. Attempts at improvement often result in making bad worse. The recent attempt to improve the drainage at the corner of High and Queen streets is a case in point. A little damp and muddy gutter has been converted, at considerable expense, into an unsightly pond on the side of the street, which will be deleterious to health after a while. If the Bailiff will some calm night, about ten o'clock, walk from the corner of Queen and Fish streets to Water street, he will be almost overpowered by a perfume not near so agreeable as the balm of a thousand flowers.

Washington College.

The Annual Commencement took place on Wednesday last. Original Orations were delivered by W. J. D. Lucas of Queen Anne's Co., subject, "Knowledge is Power," and S. C. Beckwith, of Dorchester County, subject, "Classical Literature." The young gentlemen are very young, and their efforts were fully commensurate with their years. The Degree of Bachelor of Arts was conferred upon W. J. D. Lucas.

After the delivery of certificates to the Proficients by the Principal, R. C. Berkely, the annual address was delivered by the Rev. S B. Southerland, D. D. The Rev. Doctor's subject was Manliness, which he illustrated in the character of David. The peculiar fitness of his subject and the apt manner in which it was treated, was the universal expression. The exercises were enlivened with music by the Kent Cornet Band, assisted by Prof. Holland of Baltimore.

As is usual in public gatherings in our town, a number of those present near the door took no interest in the proceedings themselves, and appeared determined to prevent others from enjoying it. Much of Dr. Southerland's address was entirely lost to those in the lower part of the Hall. And we think a feeble effort, at least, might have been made to restrain the disorder.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Listlessness, Languor and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Liver Complaint and its various symptoms, Bilious Headache, Sick Headache, Jaundice or Green Sickness, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Dysentery or Diarrhœa, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Rheumatism, Gout, Gravel, Palpitation of the Heart, Pain in the Side, Back and Loins, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For Dropsy and Dropsical Swellings they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Suppression a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.
