Sale of a Farm.

James A. Pearce, Esq , as Trustee, sold at public sale, in this town, last Tuesday, the farm of Mr. Hamilton B. W[illegible]ntaining 70 acres, for the sum of [illegible]eventy dollars per acre. Lewin Us[illegible]q., purchaser. This was a favorite little farm, of moderate improvements, fine location, and brought as much as could have been expected these times. Eight years ago it would have sold for very near if not quite a hundred dollars an acre. It is said by some that last year $2,000 worth of fruit was sold off it.

Camp Meeting.

A Camp Meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church commenced in Baker's Woods, at the old ground, yesterday. We learn that about seventy tents are already up.

Rev. Lawrence W. Bates, D. D., of the Methodist Protestant Church, is announced to preach to-morrow, Sunday morning.

The Heavy Rain Storm

Of Tuesday night last, forced out the gates of Dr. T. H. Whaland's Mill, and wasted all the water in the pond. The doctor has had several misfortunes of this character during the past few years.

Members of Co. G, 13th Regiment

Who have not returned their Arms and Uniforms, are urgently requested to do so at once. They can be left at my office at any time during the coming week.

E. F. PERKINS.

I. O. O. F.

G. C. P., McClellan, of Baltimore city, on Thursday night installed the following officers of Thomas Wildey Encampment, No. 27, of this town:

C. P.—Joseph A. Catlin.
H. P.—James M. Vandyke.
S. W.—John K. Willis.
J. W.—Andrew J. Fiddis.
S.—S. E. Sullivan.
T.—Benj. Strauss.

The Encampment meets every Wednesday night, is steadily increasing its numbers, and bids fair to be a prosperous organization.

Drowned.

Wednesday afternoon last Alexander Hawkins, an old and well known colored man of our town, fell from Thompson & Lee's wharf while fishing, and was drowned. He had been complaining of his head, and it is supposed he had a vertigo. Eleck, as he was familiarly known, was a family servant of the late Judge Eccleston, and maintained a high character for a man of color.

Accident to a Vessel.

About 12 o'clock last Tuesday Capt. Taylor's vessel, the Gen. Washington, left here for Baltimore, having on board about 2,000 bushels of grain, mostly wheat, and some 200 boxes of peaches. During the afternoon, the weather which was threatening at the start, culminated in a regular North-East rain storm, but through it the vessel held on her course, until increasing in violence, the Captain ran in under Love Point, at the mouth of the river, for harbor. The sails were speedily lowered and both anchors put out, but did not prove sufficient to hold, and as the vessel was rapidly drifting on a lee shore an effort was made—which, however, proved unavailing—to get under way again, and in a few minutes the boat struck heavily forward and immediately afterwards grounded broadside to the shore, the water covering the deck except a small portion near the stern, where at last accounts she remained full of water. The schooner Planet, also the property of Capt. Taylor, was sent from Chestertown to the assistance of the Washington, Wednesday afternoon. A passing vessel took off the peaches Wednesday morning. It is thought the grain will be saved, but of course in a damaged condition. The vessel is supposed not to be very seriously injured. This craft has for years been well and favorably known as the old sloop Gen. Washington, but a week or two ago had been altered into a schooner.

SUNDAY LAST was a day of unusual excitement and bustle among the colored population hereabouts, and there were more strangers of the African persuasion on our streets during the day, than at any time since the fifteenth amendment celebration. No less than four steamboats, each well loaded, all landed within a short distance of each other; the Massachusetts at the railroad wharf, the Kent at the wharf foot of High street, and the Kent Island and Osceola at Ratcliffe wharf. The occasion was the "Bethelite" (negro) camp meeting in the woods of Mr. Thos. Baker, about two miles from Chestertown, where the "big guns" from Baltimore, Bishop Wayman and Dr. Revels (brother to the U. S. Senator) preached in the morning and afternoon to large congregations. Notwithstanding the very large number in attendance we have not heard of any infraction of the peace. About 5 P. M. the boats left the wharves, the Kent leading off, closely followed one after another by the other boats, presenting a rare spectacle in our waters, and one which drew together numerous observers.

Excursions.

Chestertown has this season been favored to an unusual extent by excursion parties from Baltimore. Last Monday there were two. The elegant steamer Sam'l. J. Pentz brought a large party, arriving at noon, under the auspices of a Masonic Lodge; and later the Kent Island landed a tremendous crowd of fifteenth amendment disciples, accompanying the Draymen's Association of E. Balt. The association were in uniform, and with a brass band (also colored) at their head, paraded through the streets. The band accompanying the Masonic excursion came up to the Court House yard and favored our citizens by the performance of a number of popular airs. The Pentz party left about 4 P. M., and the darkies followed about two hours after. We believe every thing passed off quietly. A party of young ebony bucks, evidently laboring under the effects of an over-charge of "corn juice" indulged in noisy singing on the main street until officer Greenwood arrested one of their number and took him before 'Squire Graves. On a solemn promise to "dry up," he was released, and the noisy party at once subsided.

The Tournament.

On Wednesday last the long-talked-of Tournament came off at Still Pond Cross Roads. The night before, our section was visited by the heaviest rain storm we have had for years, some four inches of rain falling during the night. This made the track soft and unfavorable for riding, and delayed the tilting until after noon, and also prevented many from attending, though the numbers present have been estimated between two and three thousand. The opening address was made by James A. Pearce, Esq., of Chestertown, whose speech we propose to give at length in our next issue.

The Marshals with Col. George Spencer as Chief, and Capt. J. T. Skirven as Assistant, and the Knights, formed a procession headed by the Kent Cornet Band, and marched through the town and thence to the grounds.

The Knights were arrayed in rich and appropriate armor, and the riding has been pronounced by competent judges, of the very best order. Mr. Wm. G. Rasin, Knight of Gloucester, to whom was awarded the first prize, a handsome gold watch, took both rings at each of the three rides, making the maximum number 18. He crowned Miss Jennie Rasin as Queen of Love and Beauty: T. H. Whaland, Knight of Clefton Manor, received the second prize, a handsome saddle and bridle, and selected Miss Sophie Beck as First Maid of Honor: Richard Deal, Knight of Worton, received the third prize, a handsome Afghan, and selected Miss Virgie Usilton as Second Maid of Honor: Walter Hudson, Knight of Mount Pleasant, received the fourth honor, and selected Miss Annie Jewell as Third Maid of Honor: Mr. Thos. Parsons received the fifth honor.

The crowning address was made by C. T. Westcott, Esq., who was called upon in the absence of Hon. Barnes Compton, who wrote a letter regretting his inability to be present. The steamer State of Maryland, from Baltimore, brought some four or five hundred of the Order of Knights of Pythias, who marched into the grounds headed by a band of music. The band united with the Kent Cornet and furnished admirable music during the day.

The entire affair was a success, creditable to those who managed it, and particularly so to Dr. E. A. Vannort, the able and energetic Chairman of the Executive Committee.

We think some one of the Knights might have honored Still Pond by selecting it as his name—a name as romantic in its origin as the Tournament itself.

The following is the order in which the Knights rode, with the result of the first ride; eighteen being the highest number:

Name.	Knight of	Ride.
Alexander Gray,	Forest Grove	0, 2, 4—6
Walter Hudson,	Mount Pleasant	6, 4, 6—16
J. H. Kelley,	Highlands	4, 4, 4—12
Robert Ford,	Green Hill	0, 4, 2—6
T. H. Whaland,	Clefton Manor	6, 0, 2—8
N. T. Hynson,	Coldbrook Vale	4, 2, 4—10
Richard Deal,	Worton	4, 0, 2—6
E F. C. Perkins,	Chester	0, 0, 6—6
Philip F. Clark,	Rob Roy,	2, 2, 6—10
Ed. Benney,	Broad Oak	4, 0, 2—6
George Biddle,	Rose Hill	0, 0, 6—6
Alfred Perkins,	Malta	0, 0, 4—4
John T. Kelley,	Bleeding Heart	2, 0, 0—2
Geo. W. Rodenhizer,	Ivanhoe	6, 2, 2—10
Jas. C. Roseberry,	Hiawatha	2, 2, 2—6
William Perkins,	Kingsdale	0, 0, 0—0
Charles McLeary,	Spotted Tail	4, 4, 4—12
Thomas O'Neil,	Hamlet	0, 0, 2—2
James A. Gale,		4, 4, 6—14
B. S. Roseberry,	The Leopard	6, 0, 0—6
Jno. C. Miller,	Camelworthmore	4, 6, 4—14
Wash. G. Skirven,	Lone Star	0, 0, 2—2
Wm. F. Wroth,	Golden Cross	4, 0, 2—6
J. W. Howard,	Chesapeake	4, 4, 6—16
Wm. G. Rasin,	Gloucester	6, 6, 6—18
Thos. Parsons,	Spanish Cavalier	4, 4, 0—8
T. W. Wickes,	Verona	0, 9, 0—0

The Knight of Mount Pleasant having made 16 was clearly entitled to the second prize, and the Judges so decided; but from some agreement among the Knights all who made six were entitled to ride again. In the second contest Clefton Manor and Spanish Cavalier tied, each making 16: they rode again and Clefton Manor won, making 16. In the third contest the Knight of Worton won, making 12.

Cheap Music.

It is seldom that cheapness is associated with merit and real value, but we must make an exception in favor of PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY. This valuable work comes to us regularly each month, overflowing with choice new Music—some fifteen pieces in every number. It is printed from 36 full-size music-plates, neatly bound, and sells for the modest sum of 30 cents. Volume VIII. began with the July number; and the publisher offers to send two copies—July and August for 50 cents. Address J. L. PETERS, 599 Broadway, New York.

THE RAILROAD.—The first train of cars ever in this town passed into the depot lot on Thursday last—just three years, five months and fourteen days after the first dirt was thrown at Millington. The entrance of the locomotive blowing her whistle aroused our people and called to the depot quite a number of curiosity seekers. The engine—the "Queen Anne"—was thoughtfully inspected, the conductor, engineer, brakesman, and all engaged on the train fully and completely interviewed, many comments made, and many prophecies ventured upon prospects of this town soon becoming a city.—The train, however, did not tarry long, having only come down to bring iron and ties, and soon bade farewell.—Centreville Observer of Tuesday Last.

Day Book for $1 a year in Clubs.

$1.50 A YEAR TO SINGLE SUBSCRIBERS.

The publishers in their issue of July 22d, say:

From this time forth, until January, 1873, we shall publish THE DAY-BOOK for $1.00 a year, to clubs of five and upwards, and single copies $1.50! We do this because the country is in danger, vastly greater danger than in 1860—for, though that involved a million of lives, it could at any moment be avoided by one word from Abraham Lincoln—the simple pledge to administer the Federal Government just as all his predecessors had administered it! But now, nothing but a widespread understanding of the "situation," and a solemn determination of the people to restore the work of their fathers, can save the country from the horrors impending over it, and which otherwise are as certain as death and as inevitable as the grave.

"IN PARIS, Mrs. Kate Chase Sprague bought six and a half yards of lace for eighteen thousand dollars, and the shop were it was sold retained a photograph of the costly fabric, and has it on exhibition."—Exchange.

We don't recommend any other of our poor American women to imitate the example.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.
