Mass Meeting.

The Democracy assembled in Mass Meeting on Wednesday last. The meeting was organized as follows:

President, George W. T. Perkins, Vice-Presidents, R. C. Johnson, Sam'l. Comegys, C. H. Baker, George S. Diehl, Horatio Beck. Secretaries, A. J. Rees and H. W. Vickers.

Senator William T. Hamilton, addressed the meeting at some length, and with much force, and the effects of his remarks will be felt at the ballot-box on the 7th of November. Time does not admit of any extended notice of his remarks. The meeting was not as large as it would have been had the weather been clear, but the house was well filled with attentive hearers, and the meeting will bear fruit.

Attention

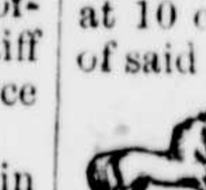

Is called to the several District Meetings before the day of Election. Efforts should be made to get the voters of the districts to attend these meetings. An additional inducement is now offered in the way of oysters; an abundance of oyters will be provided at each of these meetings. At Galena on Wednesday, Nov. 1st., there will be a Grand Rally, at seven o'clock, P. M., at which, in addition to a number of speeches, there will be an abundance of oysters.

A CARD.

I HAVE discovered in my canvass of the County, an impression prevails that, if elected, I intend to place the jail in the possession of a deputy. The impression is wholly without authority from me, for it is, and always has been my purpose to occupy the jail, and devote my personal attention to the discharge of my official duties.

I hope this announcement may be entirely satisfactory to my party and many friends.

Oct14-3t. A. B. WHEATLEY.

RUNAWAY APPRENTICE.

Ran away from the subscriber on or about the 1st of May, 1869, ISAAC HYNSON, a colored apprentice, indentured by the Orphans' Court for Kent county; now about twenty years of age.

All persons are hereby forwarned from harboring him under the penalty of the law.
