

The Farmers' Column.

From the Delaware Gazette.

The actual value of Phosphates.

On Thursday, the 2d ult., the Board of Trustees of Delaware College held an adjourned session for the purpose of filling the chair of the Professor of Chemistry, made vacant by the resignation of Prof. C. P. Williams. This election does, or should, largely interest the agricultural interests of the State. As the Professor chosen becomes, under the Fertilizer law enacted at the last session of the Legislature, the State Chemist, and holds in his hands, to a great degree, the success or failure of the farmer's toil—by his ability or ignorance, honesty or perfidy, will benefit or injury accrue, as the law requires all fertilizers offered for sale or manufactured within the State to pass through his analysis, and since the annual sales of guanos, superphosphates and other fertilizers exceed $500,000 within the limits of the State, it is highly important that the State Chemist should be a man of the first order, as by his report will the farmer be governed in his purchase. That my fellow farmers may more fully see the importance of the law and the State Chemist, I append hereto the results ascertained by analysis of some of the leading fertilizers from samples furnished by the manufacturers, handed to the writer by Prof. C. P. Williams, late State Chemist and Professor of Chemistry in Delaware College:

These results show that the farmer obtains from each 2000 pounds of superphosphate from 30 to 60 pounds of ammonia, and from 50 to 250 pounds of soluble phosphoric acid, and from 20 to 80 pounds of potash. The remaining ingredients that go to make up the whole are either insoluble or available only by atmospheric action. Now as the ingredients of each article are relatively the same, and beneficial to the farmer proportionate to their commercial value, by analysis only can he determine their merits, and which article to buy; hence the importance as to who shall be the State Chemist, for to him we must look for protection from the many impositions practiced by irresponsible traffickers in manipulated fertilizers. I have the result of some twenty additional articles, which, if desired, can be published.

Respectfully, yours, FARMER.

FOLLOW THOU ME.

Have you looked for sheep in the desert,
For those who have missed their way?
Have you been in the wild waste places,
Where the lost and wandering stray?
Have you trodden the lonely highway,
The foul and darksome street?
It may be you'd see in the gloaming
The print of the Saviour's feet.

Have you folded home to your bosom
The trembling, neglected lamb,
And taught the little lost one
The sound of the Shepherd's name?
Have ye searched for the poor and needy,
With no clothing, no home, no bread?
The Son of Man was among them;
He had no nowhere to lay his head!

Have ye carried the living water
To the parched and thirsty soul?
Have ye said to the sick and wounded,
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole?"
Have ye told my fainting children
Of the strength of the Father's hand?
Have ye guided the tottering footstep
To the shores of the "Golden Land?"

Have ye stood by the sad and weary;
To smooth the pillow of death;
To comfort the sorrow-stricken,
And strengthen the feeble faith?
And have ye felt when the glory
Has streamed through the open door,
And flitted across the shadows,
That I had been there before?

Have ye wept with the broken hearted,
In their agony of woe?
Ye might hear me whispering beside you,
'Tis a pathway I often go.
My disciples, my friends, my brethren,
Can ye dare to follow me?
Then, wherever the Master dwelleth,
There shall the servant be!

Puzzling a Doctor.

Mr. M., an army surgeon, was very fond of a joke (unless perpetrated at his own expense,) and had, moreover, a great contempt for citizen officers, who were renowned more for their courage than their scholarship. One day, at mess, after the decanter had performed sundry perambulations of the table, Captain S., a brave and accomplished officer, and a great wag, remarked to the doctor, who had been somewhat severe in his remarks on the literary deficiencies of some of the new officers—

"Doctor M, are you acquainted with Captain G?"

"Yes, I know him well," replied the doctor; "he is one of the new set. But what of him?"

"Nothing in particular. I have just received a letter from him, and I will wager you a dozen of old port that you cannot guess in six guesses, how he spells cat."

"Done! It's a wager."

"Well, commence guessing," said S.

"K, a, double t."

"No."

"K, a, double t, e."

"No."

"K, a, t, e."

"No! try again."

"C, a, double t, e."

"No, you have missed it again."

"Well, then," returned the doctor, "C, a, double t."

"No, that's not the way; try again—it's your last guess."

"C, a, g, h, t."

"No, that's not the way; you've lost your wager," said S.

"Well," said the doctor, with much petulance of manner, "how does he spell it?"

"Why, he spells it c, a, t," replied S., with the utmost gravity of manner, amid the roar of the mess, and almost choking with rage, the doctor sprang to his feet, exclaiming—

"Captain S., I am too old a man to be trifled with in this manner!"

Never too Old to Learn.—We should never consider ourselves too old to learn. Socrates, at an extremely old age, learned to play on musical instruments. Cato, at eighty years of age, thought proper to learn the Greek language. Plutarch commenced the study of Latin when between seventy and eighty. Sir Henry Spelman neglected the sciences in his youth, but commenced the study of them after he had turned fifty. After this time, he became a most learned antiquarian and lawyer. Dr. Johnson applied himself to the Dutch language but few years before his death. Franklin did not fully commence his philosophical pursuits until he reached his fiftieth year.

"The world has learned that a thing is not necessarily good because it is dry. There is no religion in chips. We never could see any sanctity in husks."

Do not sin in rebuking sin; do not sin in failing to rebuke it.

Beautiful Ireland.

We know, of course, that Ireland is called the "Emerald Isle," and that the color of the emerald is green, but never had it entered into our imagination that there was anywhere in this world to be seen such verdure as it charmed our eyes to look upon in the rural districts of Ireland. The slopes, the knolls, the dells, fields of young grain, over which the breeze creeps like playful spirits of the beautiful, the pastures, dotted over with sheep of the purest wool, the hillsides, rising up in the mist-shrouded mountains, are all covered with thick carpets of smooth velvet green. But Ireland should be called the Flowery Isle. There is not a spot in Ireland, I believe, where blessed nature can find an excuse for putting a flower, but she has put one—not only the gardens and meadows, but upon every hill and the crags of the sea, from the great blooming rhododendrons down to the smallest floweret that modestly peeps forth from its grassy cover. The Irish furz, so richly yellow, covers all places that might otherwise be bare or barren; the silk worm delights everywhere, from thousands of trees, "to top its web of gold;" the blooming hawthorn, with the sweet-scented pinks, and especially the white variety, adorns the landscape and the gardens; wall-flowers, of every hue and variety, clamber to hide the harshness of the mural supports; beetled cliffs of the North Sea are fringed and softened with lovely flowers, and if you kneel anywhere almost upon the yielding, velvety carpet, you will find little, well-nigh invisible flowerets, red, white, blue, and yellow, wrought into the very woof and texture. Ireland ought to be called the Beautiful Isle. The spirit of the Beautiful hovers over and touches to living loveliness every point.

An Old Lady's Advice.

"Now, John, listen to me, for I am older than you are or I couldn't be your mother. Never do you marry a young woman, John, before you have contrived to happen at the house at least four times before breakfast. You should know how late she lies in bed in the morning. You should take notice whether her complexion is the same in the morning as in the evening, or if the wash bowl and towel have robbed her of her evening bloom. You should take care to surprise her, so that you can see her in her morning dress, and observe her occupation when she is not expecting you. If possible you should be where you could plainly hear the conversation between her and her mother. If she is ill-natured and snappish to her mother, so she will be to you, depend upon it. But if you find her up and neatly dressed in the morning, with the same countenance, the same smiles, neatly combed hair, the same ready and pleasant answers to her mother which characterized her deportment in the evening, and if she is lending a hand to get breakfast ready and in good season, she is a great prize, John; and the sooner you secure her to yourself the better."

Spend Wisely.—Look most to your spending. No matter what comes in, if more goes out, you will always be poor. The art is not making money, but in keeping it; little expenses, like mice in a barn, when they are many, make a great waste. Hair by hair the head gets bald; straw by straw the thatch goes off the cottage, drop by drop the rain comes into the chamber. A barrel is soon empty, if the tap leaks but a drop a minute. When you mean to save begin with your mouth; there are many thieves down the red lane. The ale jug is a great waste. In all other things keep within compass. In clothes choose suitable and lasting stuff, and not tawdry fineries. To be warm is the main thing, never mind the looks. Never stretch your legs further than the blanket will reach or you will soon be cold. A fool may make money but it needs a wise man to spend it. Remember, it is easier to build two chimneys than to keep one going. If you give all to back and board, there is nothing left for the savings bank. Fare hard and work while you are young, and you will have a chance of rest when you are old.

Sure Cure for Neuralgia.

The Norwalk Gazette says: A friend of ours who suffered horrible tortures from neuralgia, hearing of a noted physician in Germany who invariably cured that disease, crossed the ocean and visited Germany for treatment. He was permanently cured after a short sojourn, and the doctor freely gave him the simple remedy used, which was nothing but a poultice and tea made from our common field thistle.

The leaves are macerated and used on the parts affected as a poultice, while a small quantity of the leaves are boiled down in the proportion of a quart to a pint, and a small wine-glass of the decoction drank before each meal. Our friend says he has recommended it far and near, and he has never known it to fail of giving relief, while in almost every case it has effected a cure. It is certainly worth a trial.

His Card.—Prof. H., of Yale College, was passing out of the recitation room on his crutches, when an ambitious freshman dropped slyly into his cap a piece of paper, on which he had written legibly the word "monkey!" Tickled with his joke, he told his success to all his student friends. But a speedy retribution befell him. At the next recitation, the bland Professor addressed his division thus, in his sweetest tones: "Gentlemen, as I was passing out of the room yesterday, one of your number did me the very high honor to leave with me his card!"

☞ A young gentleman was seated with other persons in a room where a young girl sat bolt upright and utterly silent. Silence, indeed, fell upon the entire party, and the gentleman first alluded to said, in what he supposed to be an almost inaudible tone of voice, "Awful pause!" "I guess, mister," exclaimed the indignant lass, "that you'd have awful paws, too, if you had to do the scrubbing that I does."

☞ Men may judge us by the success of our efforts. God looks at the efforts themselves.

THE EUREKA
FANNING MILL.
The Greatest Invention
OF THE 19th CENTURY!
FARMERS, LOOK TO YOUR INTEREST.

THE attention of Farmers and Mechanics is particularly directed to the combined economy, utility and practicability of the Eureka Mill, and to the many other advantages it possesses over every other Fanning Mill which has been introduced to the public. It is the fruit of long and patient investigation by the inventor, who has made it his constant study for over twenty years. He has secured several patents for Mills, and has always been rewarded with the best of success. But not feeling satisfied with his former attainments, he determined to reach the climax, and he now believes that his new invention will warrant him in exclaiming in the joy of his heart, like the philosopher, Phythagoras, EUREKA, signifying in the Grecian language, "I have found it." This has given the name to this new Mill.

In this Mill are all the former improvements, to which have been added several more, adding still greater advantages than were at first anticipated, or even thought possible by the inventor himself. It embraces the three great essentials necessary in every invention.

It combines Utility, Economy and Practicability!
THE EUREKA MILL

Is small and lighter, and is capable of doing more and better work in a given time than any other Mill ever invented. It is the only Mill that will successfully remove from wheat such pests as Cockle, Garlic, Oats, Rye, &c.

Should an extra quality of grain for seed or gristing purposes be required, it can be so arranged as to catch in one box perfect grain, and in the other, grain fit for market or mill. Here is made a great saving usually lost sight of; for nearly one-quarter of the grain cleaned in the common Mills is lost when sown, on account of shrunken kernels and inferior grain. The Eureka Mill saves all this, and gives seed every kernel of which will grow when put into the ground, and this saving will, in a short time, pay for the Mill.

HINES & BURCHINAL,
Chestertown, Md.,

Owners of the Mill, are having them manufactured at the Sash Factory and Planing Mill of Noland & Co., Port Deposit, Md., which is a guarantee they will be put up in the very best manner.

PURELY
WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS

R. Walker, Proprietor. R. H. McDonald & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 Commerce St., N.Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to lie dormant throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this SARSAPARILLA: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
